MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE

Peculiar Actions of A. H. Ingold Who Forsakes Wife in Chicago and Skips West.

HE FAILED TO PAY ALIMONY

Sheriff After William Eccles, Jr., With Court Summons—Dr. Rich in Italy Cause of Anxiety.

Ogden, Dec. 31.—The police of Ogden have had their attention called to the mysterious disappearance of A. H. Ingold, former joint agent at Cobro, Nevada, on the line of the Southern Pacific and Nevada Northern. His disappearance is causing a great amount of concern to his wife, family and friends.

About three weeks ago Ingold and his wife left the Nevada town for a visit with relatives in the east. Early last week the Ingolds started west. While in Chicago Ingold left his wife for a few minutes waiting on the street corner. Falling to appear in a reasonable length of time, Mrs. Ingold began a search for her husband and traced him as far west as Ogden. He registered at the Healy hotel and left last Thursday morning and his present whereabouts is unknown.

Inquiry at the office of Superintendent Manson of the Southern Pacific in the effect that Ingold has a leave of absence for 30 days and has not as yet reported for duty. There are no charges against the man with the company, his accounts are correct and he has a certain amount of salary coming to him. Mrs. Ingold left for Salt Lake last evening where she will seek the aid of the police in her search for her husband.

The Great Reaper Busy in Moroni—One Fatal Case of Diphtheria.

Special Correspondence.
 Moroni, Sanpete Co., Dec. 29.—A double funeral was held in the ward tabernacle today over the remains of a 7-year-old boy, son of Joseph Marx, who died two days ago from an attack of dropsy, the other case being that of Mrs. Nora Gee, wife of Samuel E. Gee, of the adjoining ward of Freedom. She passed away on the 26th inst. Her death also was due to dropsy. She was the daughter of Joseph Wise of Mount Pleasant, aged 33 years; the mother of two children, who, with the husband, survive. She was of a gentle, loving disposition, and endeared herself to a large circle of friends, who deeply mourn their loss.

The services were very largely attended, comforting remarks being made by Bishop Bradley, Bishop Jensen of Freedom, Elders Joseph L. Jolley, Aaron Hardy and Soren C. Nielsen.

Moroni has recently been stricken with a few light cases of diphtheria, and one fatal case, which took off the 4-year-old boy of Cyrus and Callista Tidwell on the 27th inst.

The grim reaper has also gathered several of Moroni's aged citizens recently, viz: Lawrence Nessen, a respected old gentleman of 76 years, who succumbed to a long attack of asthma; Swen Anderson, a veteran of 85 years, who had lived here since 1861, and had passed through the hard times and Indian hostilities of early days, and at this writing, the body of Jens C. Hansen, a good, industrious resident, aged 72 years, lies awaiting the last sad rites. He passed away on the 28th. Funeral services will be held on the 31st.

Moroni's 5,000-ton best pile is now being shipped to Lehi at the rate of six to seven cars per day. It will take about two weeks more to finish the job.
