

Nasby Turns Reformer.

Nasby has appeared as an advocate of the rights of labor. He went to Factoryville, a village hard by the Confederate X Roads, because he knew the mill hands "needed a leader, for none uv em knew how much they wuz sufferin until I went and told em." He repeated the substance of Kearney's speeches to them that "they was groanin under a tyranny compared with wick the sufferins uv the Rooshun serf wuz nuthin, and that they would never hev their own til they organized and crushed their oppressors. I showed em that wat they wantid wuz to krush out capital and be themselves their own roolers. It wuzn't hard to do."

Accordingly one day they marched in a body to the employers. "The bloated employers tried to reason with em, and tried to show em that they wuz payin all they cood afford to, in the present deprest condishun uv things, and that they wuz gittin now ez much ez they wuz before, when the kost uv living wuz taken into account. They hed the impudence to tell em that if they hed to accede to their demands that they wood hev to shet up the mills, and one uv em told the men that if they wood assom the mortgages, as well ez the biznis, he wood be perfectly willin to relinquish it then and there."

The workmen wood hev yeelded, but I have made em a speech, which whooped it up again. They became infooriated, and moved on the works. In less than a minit they hed guttid it, in five minits it wuz in flames, and in a half hour it wuz in ashes, and the men firmly but determinedly move off. The first battle for the rites uv man hed bin fought in Factoryville, and the first vitory uv labor over capital in Kentucky hed bin achieved."

For three days, while the whisky lasted, the men were jubilant, but at the close of that day Nasby noticed an ominous change in their demeanor toward him.

"Is the bosses goin to bld agin?" they asked one ov another.

"I ruther think not," wuz the anser.

"The fact is, all that they hed wuz investid in them mills, and that is gone. They hain't got nothin to bld with."

"The merry hell, you say. Then where are we goin to git work?"

That staggered em. They loafed about in a listis sort uv way, for a day or two, but they didn'tenthuse very much. Invitashens to take suthin began to be uncomfortably infrekent, and there seemed to be a disposishun toward me that I didn't like.

"Yoo see," sed one ov 'em, "that we hev succeeded in gettin our rites. We hev crushed capital. It is very crushed. We never saw a more complete crushin out uv capital than this is. But we can't see where we hev made anythin by it, to any alarmin extent. We hev bustid capital effectooally. The meat barl is low, the flour is gone, and we ain't got no work. Yoo showed us how to bust capital—now spose yoo kindly show us how to git more, and hev it better organized."

This disgusted Nasby, and he asked them: "Hev yoo no aspirashens for a higher and better life?" I replied, "Do yoo want to continyoo to grovel at the feet uv yoor oppressors? Hev yoo no pride?"

"We hed pride," wuz the answer uv this slave, "but that vanishes. We hev stummicks wich is alluz with us. Wat yoo want to do is to git out uv this seckshun in jist three minits, or we'll ornament a tree with yoo."

I left afoot. I hed the inishias-hun money in my pocket, and a soot uv cloze that I rescood from the burnin mill, and absentmindedly forgot to ask who owned em. I didn't do ez well ez Kerney, but it served my purpos.

FAMILY RECORDS.

WE ARE NOW PREPARED to receive orders for FAMILY RECORDS of an approved form.

Each book is divided into five forms.

The first form is that of a "FAMILY RECORD," with ruled and printed spaces for births, marriages, and deaths, in each family, also for names, dates, and places, one page accomodating one family.

The second form is a "CHURCH RECORD," with spaces for blessings, baptisms, confirmations, ordinations, endowments, and patriarchal blessings and various particulars of the same.

The third form is a "SEALING and ADOPTION RECORD," with spaces for name of person sealed, birth, death, time, place, etc.

The fourth form is a "MISSION and APPOINTMENT RECORD," with spaces for names, date of birth, field of labor, date of appointment, departure, release, etc.

The fifth form is a "RECORD for BAPTISMS, ENDOWMENTS, ORDINATIONS, and SEALINGS for the DEAD."

Each book is furnished with a title page, on which the person owning the record can enter his or her name. An explanation of the forms, or instructions how to keep the record is also printed in each book.

These Records are well printed and ruled on good ledger paper, substantially bound. We can furnish them of any size, from one to five quires, or larger, but probably five quires is as large as will be desired. We can also furnish the various forms in a record, proportioned to each other to order.

MEXICAN

Mustang Liniment,

FOR MAN AND BEAST

This Liniment very naturally originated in America, where Nature provides in her laboratory such surprising antidotes for the maladies of her children. Its fame has been spreading for 35 years, until now it encircles the habitable globe.

The Mexican Mustang Liniment is a matchless remedy for all external ailments of man and beast.

To stock owners and farmers it is invaluable. A single bottle often saves a human life or restores the usefulness of an excellent horse, ox, cow, or sheep.

It cures foot-rot, hoof-ail, hollow horn, grub, screw-worm, shoulder-rot, mange, the bites and stings of poisonous reptiles and insects, and every such drawback to stock breeding and bush life.

It cures every external trouble of horses, such as lameness, scratches, swinny, sprains, founder, wind-gall, ring-bone, etc., etc.

The Mexican Mustang Liniment is the quickest cure in the world for accidents occurring in the family, in the absence of a physician, such as burns, scalds, sprains, cuts, etc., and for rheumatism, and stiffness engendered by exposure. Particularly valuable to Miners.

It is the cheapest remedy in the world, for it penetrates the muscle to the bone, and a single application is generally sufficient to cure.

Mexican Mustang Liniment is put up in three sizes of bottles, the larger ones being proportionately much the cheapest. Sold everywhere.
