Re-arrested.

W. N. Thomas, of Beaver Cañon, whose discharge for unlawful cutting of timber on government lands was made by Commissioner Bixby last week as mentioned in the News, was re arrested Monday on the same tharge and bound over by Commissioner Fisher at Pocatello to await the action of the next grand jury. Mr. Thomas has instituted a damage suit of $2,500 against special land agent Temple for unlawful seizure and detention of lumber at his mills. In these two important cases we shall soon see what we shall see.—Black-loot (Idaho) News.

A Fiend's Crime.

On Sunday evening a terrible crime was committed at Sandy, Salt Lake County, the particulars of whice, and the names of the parties, are withheld at the request of the officials, until after the examination, which was set for this afternoon, before the Justice of the Peace at Sandy, when County Attorney Moyle will appear for the prosecution. The defendant, who was strested, is charged with having outnied a married lady, who was in delicate health. Her husband was absent from home at the time the awful crime was committed. If the charge be substantiated, speedy justice should overtake the perpetrator of the diabolical deed.

Retirement of Judge Henderson.

The Ogden Herald of this morning has an article in which the early retirement of Judge Heuderson from the beach in Utah is intimated. The Herald, in that connection, reproduces the following from the Lansing Journal, a Michigan paper:

following from the Lansing of the Michigan paper:

"It is altogether probable that the judge will retire from the bench in the course of a few months, as he is thinking seriously of returning to Michigan and resuming the practice of his profession in Lansing. His host of friends in central Michigan, where he has in central Michigan, where he has won all his laurels as a successful lawyer, will rejoice to learn of his decision. Ingham County certainly has no worthier or better loved son."

Ordinarily the water does not differ materially from that on the suiface in the vicinity, but whenever the wind rises the water immediately changes its color to the complexion of milk. As the well is situ ated several miles from any large body of water, and as it was driven through two other distinct streams at different depths before reaching the present supply, Mr. Manning is at aloss to know what causes the changes.

The Midland.

Our Pleasant Grove correspondent learns from Mr. Don C. Driggs, who arrived there by Saturday's D. & R. G. train from the Midland Railway, so far as jobs are let, is almost finished up. But new work will be let along the White River this fall. The C. C. & I. Co. are building a brauch road from Setank, 15 miles to coal mines. Messrs. Orman, Crook & Co. have a contract to construct the track to State line in Utah, 75 miles from the present terminus, The big tunnel between Leadville and Glenwood will be flatshed in about three weeks, when trains will move up to the latter place.

weeks, when trains will move up to the latter place.

Mr. Driggs reports the moral atmosphere of those camps as decidedly oad. Garbage in human shape is brought out from the east by the car lead and dumped ont to be employed as railroad ands. But they will not work more than a day or so when they pull out for better fields. It would be nard to imagine the depth of depravity o which these "enaws" will descend. They are "going West." Quite a number of Urah men are coming home. The outlook for future operations this fall is not very flattering out that way. The citizens in the vicinity of the Ute troubles were very nuch excited. This was Mr. Driggs' first out from home. He feels glad to be once more among family and frieuds; the contrast is quite agreeable.

Contemptible Conduct.

Contemptible Conduct.

On Monday afternoon as Mrs. Panter, of Cottonwood, was returning from Bountiful in company with ner young sister in a single buggy, they were overtaken by three young men driving a wagon. The young men drove up alongside and abruptly bantered the occupants of the buggy for a race, to which they made no reply and turned their vehicle to the outside of the road in order to be out of the way. The young men drove their team across in front of the buggy, when the ladies turned their horse to the opposite side of the road. The young men repeated their tactics by again driving their team in front, slowing up and at times stopping entirely in order to harass the ladies as much as possible. They kept this mode of operations in tor apout a mile. Another team times stopping entirely in order to harass the ladies as much as possible. They kept this mode of operations up for about a mile. Another team driven by a small boy and belonging to one of the young men in the first wagon was behind the buggy, and when they had satisfied themselves by tormenting the ladies, they called to the boy to whip up his howses and come abead, which he did. In passing the buggy he had luto one of the hind wheels of it breaking every spoke and throwing the inmates out in the road. The young men stopped, looked at the wreck, laughed and drove on, leaving the ladies helpless and miles from any acqualitances. Passers by on the road assisted in putting a pole under the axis and fixing up the outfless of the parties guilty of this dastardly conduct could not be ascertained but they ought to be identified and severely punished.

Fatal Result of a Drunken Spree at Stockton.

A deplerable event occurred at Stockton. Tooche County, yesterday afternoon. James Donelson, a young man who resides with his parents at Tooche City, was on a visit with them to other members of the family who were working in the mines at Stockton. Young Donelson was standing in the door of a saloon, and being somewhat excited owing to the influence of liquor he had been driuking, drew his pistol and flourisbed it about his head. Mr. Donelson, Senior, was standing outside of the saloon. Some one called the constable to disarm the young man, and as the cificer stepped up, the weapon in Donelson's hand was discharged, the builet entering his fathwon all his laurels as a successful lawyer, will rejoice to learn of his decision. On motion of Mr. McCornick, the treasurer was instructed to give the subscribers ten days' nonce of a meeting to organize a railway company. This meeting will be held at 8 p. m. on Thursday, Sept. 15, at the Chamber of Commerce building.

The meeting then adjourned.
It is probable that the new line will follow generally the route that was proposed for the D. & R. G. when that road was ambitious to reach the Pacific Coast. This would parallel the line of the Utah & Nevada to Stockton, crossing Tooele Valley in a southwesterly direction to St. Johns' then going nearly due west through the Ousoul Mountains, past the south end of the Cedar Range, then out on to the Desert, striking the north base of Granite Mountain, and making almost an air line to Clitton, from whence a slight deflection to the southwest brings it to DeepCreek, the present objective point, though it is not at all likely that the raid would stop there; being that far on the way it would doubtless be pushed rapidly forward to some point on the Pacific. on the Pacific.

RECEIVED A LETTER

from Elder M. S. Marriott, dated Wairoa, August 2d, 1887. The writer having ocen the companion of the deceased, gives particulars of his sickness and death. He was taken ill on July 8th with lung disease accompanied by a high fever. He grew steadily worse until the 19th, when he breathed his last, notwithstanding that all was done for him that could be by Elder Marriott and wife, with whom he was staying at the time.

Elder Marriott states that deceased was a straightforward, true, faithful and affectionate young man, and much esteemed by Maories and Europeans whose acquaintance he had formed while on his thission. He had begun to preach in the language of the natives, and was making good progress in his missionary labors. Elder Young often spoke of his parents, brothers and sisters, especially during his sickness, and requested Elder Marriott to write to his lather "that his son died Firm in the Faith, as he had lived." The young mission-

father "that his son died as he had lived." The young missionary further declared that he had kept himself pure, and his covenants inviolate, and that if God wanted him to, he was willing to go.

Elder Marriott and his wife were the only two persons from Utah who were with Elder Young at the time of his death, but after that event, other Utah Elders in the mission came to their assistance.

On July 22nd funeral services were held at Nuhaka, the place of his demise, at the hone of a native family. Next day the remains were conveyed to Wairoa, from which point they were shipped for home ou July 30th.

THE FOLLOWING TESTIMONIAL from two native Saints, is enclosed in Elder Marriott's letter, by their re-quest, belog translated by him:

To the Parents and Relatives of B. W. Young:

As our departed friend has made his home with us while at the Wairoa, we take the pleasure of writing you a few words.

We, in connection with the Saints of this branch, greatly deplore the departure of our friend and brother, and as he is about to depart for Zion we say unto him go in peace, although we greatly mourn his loss. Our love for him is like unto that of our own child. We send you a few tokens through our respect ior our estremed brother. If convenient we should like to hear a few words from you. From Bro. The Rape Case.

The Rape Case.

The examination of the charge of rape, against the degraded wretch, Richard Williams, was held before Justice Harrisen, at Sandy, yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Harriet Roson, Williams' victim, was present, and gave ber testimony, the details of the case being too revolting for publication. She is a very poor and ignorant woman, and is partially demented. During the latter part of July, Williams took supper with Mr. and Mrs. Roson. After supper Mr. Roson went to work in the casion, where he had to remain all night. Williams remained at the house and after the two small children were put to bed he locked the doors and outraged Mrs. Roson, who lought against him for half an hour before he accomplished his purpose. There was no house within half amile, so no help could be called from the outside. After he had succeeded he remained in the house all night, occupying the bed. A day or two atter he had overcome the woman. He tried to get out of it yesterday by saying that she made no resistance, but her direct testimony, and the admissions Williams had made to the railroad men, presented too strong a case against him. His bail was fixed at $1,000, but being unable to find sureties, he was lodged in the county jall last night. He is a low specimen of the tramp-miner. the tramp-miner.

A REMARKABLE GROWTH.

A REMARKABLE GROWTH.

The many friends of Messis. Montgomery Ward & Co., formerly at 227 and 229 Wabash Av., Chicago, will be glad to know that the rapid growth of their business has iorced them to remove from Wabash Ave. to 111, 112, 113 and 114 Michigan Ave., where they have purchased a magnificent building, the seven floors of which they will occupy exclusively. These seven floors are each 100x165 feet, aggregating nearly 120,000 square feet (about 3 acres) of floor surface. The new quarters will enable tuem to bandle their large business to the better advantage of their thousands of customers. Fifteen years ago Messis. Montgomery Ward & Co. occupied but one room and that only 25x40 feet. The enormons growth of their business during these filteen years can only be explained by the fact that they sell direct to consimers, supplying all their wants, and never misrepresent any article. The success of this house proves the old saying, that "Honesty is the best policy," and from this policy they never deviate. The Fall catalogue issued by Messis. Montgomery Ward & Co. ought to be in every family. W
