

UTAH BATTERY ROUTS REGULARS

Famous Artillery Under Capt. Webb Gives Attacking Force Warm Reception.

CONGRATULATIONS FOR HIM

Highly Complimented After Sham Battle on His Selection and Good Judgment.

Tomorrow is Pay Day, When N. G. U. Will Take Train at Dale Creek And Arrive Monday Night.

(Special to the "News.") Camp Emmett Crawford, Wyo., Aug. 8.—It was Utah day in camp yesterday for the famous battery of artillery under Capt. Webb with battalions of Utah Infantry under the command Maj. J. Williams and Kammerman representing the Blue army repulsed and utterly annihilated an attack in force by two regular United States regiments, two militia regiments, three mountain batteries, a regiment of cavalry and a force of signal corps and engineers. The maneuver was made on the theory that a large army was en route from Cheyenne to Laramie via telephone road, through Tie pass, a treacherous defile.

The Brown army was to route the army from the pass in preparation of a big advance today. WIPED OUT REGULARS. Capt. Webb with his battery was stationed on a high rocky hill to the right of the pass supported by the Utah Infantry which had been watching the advancing Browns for half an hour. His troops opened fire, completely wiping out the attacking troops.

There was no unpraised with the Brown army at the time so the force was not routed out and the attack was continued. Mountain batteries crawled up the steep rocky mountain where the work was difficult to reach and speeded fire across the canyon. This maneuver was a good demonstration of the utility of such artillery in a canyon where light artillery is practically out of the question.

HIGHLY COMPLIMENTED. It was a significant victory for Capt. Webb and he was highly complimented for his selection of the excellent position and the methods after the maneuver by many of the regular officers. The work of the Utah Infantry in supporting the artillery and repulsing attempted assaults on flanks and rear also came for praise.

The maneuver began at 6 a. m. and lasted until nearly 3 p. m. The men were all tired out and were in their blankets by 6 o'clock in the evening. RESTING TODAY. Today all are resting with only exception to occupy their time. All the troops have commenced packing for the move home Sunday morning. Camp life is practically over for the Utah boys and the only activity in evidence is the preparation to leave. It will be a day tomorrow. The march to Dale Creek will commence after dinner tomorrow and the Utah boys will arrive early in the evening. They expect to arrive at Salt Lake today.

Arrangements have been made for Governor Cutler to review the troops at the close of the maneuver. When the boys will march down Main street, Salt Lake, with colors flying and band playing.

Outside of sore feet there are no cases of indisposition. The camp is universally voted by all to be the most successful in the history of the National Guard of Utah.

(By Associated Press.) The Utah battery of field artillery under command of Captain W. C. Webb, who won his first spurs in the Alpine and two battalions of Utah Infantry, under command of Major J. Williams and Kammerman, put to rout an attacking force of two regular United States regiments, two militia regiments, three mountain batteries, a regiment of cavalry and a force of signal corps and engineers.

The theory of the problem was that the advance of a large army was to push the Utah battery through the narrow pass to the canyon of the Utah battery. The battery opened fire and the signal troops were ordered to open fire. The battery was ordered to open fire and the signal troops were ordered to open fire.

FURMAN'S CHALLENGE.

Explains Last Night's Race and Makes A Fair Enough Proposition.

"Bill" Furman is out with a righteous kick on last night's pursuit match race, in which he lost to McFarland. Furman says he supposed he was going to ride "Mac" a half-mile, French style, best two in three. "Not until I reached Salt Lake did I know that they had been slated for," he says. "I didn't say anything, for I didn't want to begin feeding the minute I got my foot in the town, and I'm not sure except on one point. A certain 'sporting editor' (?) in this town took a crack at the race without being fair enough to even mention the fact I had been on a train for four days and was in a much higher altitude than the one to which I was accustomed. I can make 'Mac' go in the kind of a race I mentioned, and want a crack at him in the sprint style, for in all fairness I should be given some say-so in a race in which I am one of the contestants. If they'll do this, I'll show 'em a real race."

JUDGE DIEHL'S GRIND.

Volunteers Perform Detective Work—Martin Case for Tuesday.

Officials at Volunteer headquarters have been trying for several days and nights to get some clue as to the identity of a sneak thief who has been appropriating various articles and small change from the place. Last night they decided to leave some money lying around loose and try to "trap" the thief. The scheme worked beautifully.

A marked 50-cent piece was placed on the counter and a careful watch kept on all who went near the coin. Finally a fellow named C. W. Millard was seen to stroll up to the counter and stealthily speak the coin. He then walked outside, and took a seat on a bench. In a few moments he retired.

FUNERAL OF SENATOR ALLISON

Services Simple, Including Reading from the Psalms and Part Of Epistle to Corinthians.

BUT THERE WAS NO MUSIC

Interment Was Private, Presbyterian Service Being Read at Grave by Rev. Dr. Bergeton.

Dubuque, Ia., Aug. 8.—As he lived so was Senator William B. Allison buried today in a manner devoid of all ostentation. Services were held at the residence of the dead statesman and while not of a private character the limited accommodations of the home permitted only the presence of the distinguished visitors, the relatives and the most intimate friends of the late senator. The services were simple and consisted of the reading of the twenty-third psalm, the 15 chapter of the Epistle to Corinthians and a prayer. The Rev. Bergeton of the Westminster Presbyterian church officiated. There was no music. The interment was private and after the Presbyterian service had been read by Dr. Bergeton the body of the senator was lowered into its last resting place on the hillside which overlooks the Mississippi river.

All Dubuque paid silent tribute to the memory of Senator Allison today. During the hours of the funeral not a wheel turned throughout the city and every business house closed its doors. Buses hung at half mast from public buildings and hundreds of homes and business houses were trimmed with crepe.

A most effective feature was the winding with black and white of the trolley poles throughout the main thoroughfares of the city. The body of Senator Allison lay state yesterday afternoon and evening and thousands of people called to pay a final tribute of respect. The only floral tributes were a wreath of the colors of the American flag, the colors of the Iowa flag, and a banner of the colors of the Iowa flag. The pallbearers were all residents of the city and intimate friends of the senator.

Many distinguished visitors were in attendance at the funeral. Besides the members of the congressional committee named by Vice President Fairbank and Speaker Cannon, there was a large delegation from Des Moines, consisting of Gov. Cummins and other state officers. The Des Moines party brought with them a beautiful floral banner 54 feet long and 4 feet wide. The body of white carnations and the words "In God we trust" were written in the Iowa flag.

The grave of Senator Allison is in the family lot in Linwood cemetery. A modest marble shaft bearing the name of the senator was erected on the lot 20 years ago. The grave is close to that in which is buried the body of the late Speaker Henderson.

CALAVERAS COUNTY FOREST FIRES UNDER CONTROL

Sonora, Cal., Aug. 8.—After burning since Saturday night, the forest fire in Calaveras county, Cal., is under control. Thousands of dollars' worth of property have been destroyed. The flame of the fire approached close to the famous Calaveras Grove of big trees, and was stopped only by the heroic efforts of 60 men who worked with the forest rangers in fighting the flames. Deer and other game were driven into the valley by the fire. It is believed that all danger is over.

SUBMARINE BOATS.

Lawrence Spear Says Japan is Making Great Strides in Building Them.

New York, Aug. 8.—Lawrence Spear, vice president of the Electric Boat company, who is considered the leading authority on submarines in America, returned to New York after a tour of observation abroad. He will immediately begin the construction of the submarines for the United States government.

He have had an opportunity to learn something about the extent of the building of fighting craft in foreign countries. He said that Japan is not buying battleships or cruisers from Brazil but is making tremendous strides in the building of torpedo boat destroyers and submarines in her own yards.

"No one knows what they have or what they intend to build. They are courteous but secretive. England and Germany have been called upon by Japan to submit plans for the construction of shipbuilding plants."

PROVIDENT SAVINGS LIFE.

Inter-Southern Life May Not Take Up Its Option on Stock.

New York, Aug. 8.—The Tribune this morning says:

"It looked yesterday as if the contemplated purchase of the majority stock of the Provident Savings Life Insurance company of Louisville would not take place."

John G. Webb, on whom it was said the promoters of the deal placed their greatest reliance, to furnish the means to put the deal through, returned to his home in Springfield, Ohio.

The option held by the Inter-Southern Life Insurance company of Louisville, which much opposition has been shown, will not be consummated. If they fail to make good, the Louisville financiers, it is understood, will see the $250,000 said to have been deposited for the purchase, which sum, in case the deal went through, was to be included in the purchase price.

CONVENTION OF CRIMINALS

Ben L. Reitman, Who Calls Himself "King of Tramps," Issues Call for One in Chicago.

POLICE ARE OPPOSED TO IT

Inspector McCafferty Says He Will Arrest Every Criminal Who Arrives.

New York, Aug. 8.—Police headquarters have heard that Dr. Ben L. Reitman of Chicago who calls himself "King of Tramps," and has spent the last 20 years doing rescue work among the inhabitants of the underworld, has issued a call for a "convention of criminals" to meet in this city next month. To that part of Dr. Reitman's program which is directed toward the obtaining of safe conduct and immunity from arrest of the delegates while they are in the city, Inspector McCafferty, in charge of the detective bureau made strong objection last night.

"I'll order the arrest of every criminal who arrives for the convention," said Inspector McCafferty, "and I am not yet sure that I won't arrest those persons who are getting up the affair. We want no assembly of criminals in this city."

Dr. Reitman says, "It was suggested that all of the criminals will agree to do no criminal act while they are in the city."

"Dr. Reitman may believe what those fellows tell him," said the inspector, "but I won't. We can and will arrest all of them as suspicious persons and the chances are that we'll find that many of them are fugitives from justice, escaped prisoners, men under indictment or men wanted in connection with various crimes. We'll throw out the drag-net and gather them in."

According to the prospectus of the convention, criminals from all parts of the country are to meet here to discuss their relations to society, to the police and to one another. "Brotherhood" is the watchword of the convention.

The titles of some of the addresses to be delivered at the convention if the police forget to go around and arrest everybody connected with the gathering, are:

"Twenty-one Years a Criminal," "Twenty Years a Prisoner," "Dope and Booz," "Do the Police Owe the Criminal a Fair Deal?" "Easier to Commit Crime Than to Find a Job," "What Society Owe the Criminal," and "The Average Income of the Criminal."

Inspector McCafferty laughed when he came upon the last topic.

"They'd all fatten their averages if we let them collect in New York," he said. "This is a hospitable city but we have to draw the line somewhere. In this case we'll draw it before the temporary chairman of the convention begins his opening remarks. It does seem a shame though to stop it before the committee on resolutions gets its report ready. I'd give a month's salary to get a look at that report."

CANADIAN PACIFIC STRIKE INSETLED

Is a Strain on Both Sides, Each Making Claims and Bluffing.

PLENTY OF UNSKILLED MEN

Many Officials and Clerks in Winnipeg General Offices in Yards Doing Strikers' Work.

Winnipeg, Aug. 8.—Fifty more non-union workmen were taken to the Winnipeg shops of the Canadian Pacific railway this morning and put to work. The company has perfected arrangements for housing and feeding 1,000 men in the yards. A special policeman on duty in the yards was brutally assaulted by an unknown man with a club last night. A number of Winnipeg strikers have been rebuked by their executive officers for publicly jibing at a workman who had refused to join the strike. They had carried a banner bearing the word "scab" and had followed the man home.

The company has received many applications from men for work in shops and the officers claim the strike will result in nothing more serious than temporary inconvenience. The men on the other hand profess to be confident of success. It is accepted as a fact in business circles that it will be a fight to a finish.

The company is maintaining a system of picketing the system at all important points. Many officials and clerks in the Winnipeg general offices are out there every day, in overalls doing some of the work of the strikers. One of the men who walked out Thursday stated that one of the foremen was placed between the men and was simply being forced to quit work. They received an ultimatum, warning them of the consequence of their refusing to strike, and the company has insisted that they take positions as foremen over non-union labor at various points along the line and they refused to do so.

Foremen working under existing agreement that men earning $125 per month could not be forced out, are still at their duties. All have been informed that in the future there would be no promotions from the ranks and that all appointments would be made from technical schools and the foremen who went out would not be taken back.

The officers of the railway are besieged by unskilled men seeking for work, but they are not the kind wanted. The company is relying principally on a large contingent of British workmen, who are expected to arrive here at the end of next week. The foremen were put at work today. All of the foremen were working late into the night. The general opinion at the company's headquarters is that the strike is already practically defeated.

It is said that the company will not be so generous in giving employment to the men who have deserted it. Many of those now striking were making as high as $100 a month and even more, while the strike pay amounts to $35 per week for unskilled and $45 for married men. The company set four Japanese at work yesterday in the Lethbridge, Alberta shops. There are 2000000 cars in the yards. Many of them are Canadian. Several locomotives are being assisted by auxiliaries. One express train had to drop one express car because the engine power was insufficient.

A special from Fort William says: "A rumor that the Canadian Pacific shed men may go on a strike, perhaps through lack of work, is not true. There is no rush of freight business. If they do go out it will in all probability be a strike of the men who are not married men. The company set four Japanese at work yesterday in the Lethbridge, Alberta shops. There are 2000000 cars in the yards. Many of them are Canadian. Several locomotives are being assisted by auxiliaries. One express train had to drop one express car because the engine power was insufficient."

DEMOCRATIC SIMPLICITY

Not More Than Five Hundred Dollars Will Be Spent On Bryan Notification Ceremonies.

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 8.—Not more than $500 will be spent by the local committee for the entire notification ceremonies Aug. 12. Mayor F. W. Brown, as chairman of the committee, said today that the expenses will be kept within that limit. The parade consists of two bands, a platoon of police and a company of mounted democrats or escort for W. J. Bryan. J. W. Kern and the notified committee. There will be no marching clubs in the parade.

EXCELLENT WAY TO END CATERPILLAR PLAGUE

Zittau, Germany, Aug. 8.—The Saxon authorities have determined that seeds to be an excellent way to put an end to the caterpillar plague which is having such a disastrous effect on the forests. They have discovered a method to catch the insects in the traps that lay the eggs by which the caterpillars multiply. They make use of what they call the electric light trap.

The forest of central Europe have from time to time been ravaged by moths from Russia, whose larvae devour the trees of the forest. The splendid pines of the Lausitz mountains are this year threatened with extinction.

SPONBERG WASN'T FAST ENOUGH FOR THE CUBS

Chicago, Aug. 6.—Pitcher Karl Sponberg landed a berth today and left to join the Springfield club of the Three-I league. He came here on the recommendation of a supposed friend of his, only to ascertain quickly he wouldn't do for fast company. The Cubs were sorry for the youngster.

Sponberg left Ogden a few days ago. He pitched good ball in the Utah state league.

MUTTERINGS IN FIRE DEPARTMENT

Subordinates Are Freely Criticizing the Latest Appointment By the Inner Circle.

SENTIMENT FOR NATIVE SON

Men Don't Like Getting a Fire Chief from Kentucky and Freely Say So.

Have Nothing Against Chief Glore Personally But Much Regarding "American" Party Methods.

The appointment by Mayor John Bransford of W. H. Glore as chief of the fire department has stirred up a veritable hornet's nest within the department. The men are "sore" and angry, with a big S and a big A. They don't like it a little bit. They have nothing against Chief Glore, that is personally, but they are decidedly angry at the mayor, the council and especially the "inner circle."

It is conceded that Chief Glore is a gentleman, has had some experience in fire fighting, knows something about water systems and horses and it is not impossible, that in time, he will make a good chief for Salt Lake City.

But, why was he appointed? Why did the mayor, the council and the "inner circle" pick a man who is barely a citizen of the state up to the time he qualified? Why were competent and capable men who have given years of their lives to the service of the city ignored? Why is it that a life long citizen is forgotten? And why is it that a comparative stranger who has had but little experience in fire fighting during the past 19 years is placed in charge of an up to date department in preference to a man who has worked for 10 or 15 years in the service here?

IGNORED AND SNUBBED.

These are questions asked by the firemen. Many of them have been ardent "Americans." They have worked hard for the party and had a reason to expect some reward. They have been ignored. Was it necessary to go out of the state for a chief of the fire department? Are there not at least a half a dozen men in the service who are capable to fill the position?

But merit apparently does not count with the "American" party and when the new men came in they expected great things from the "American" party. They worked hard at the primaries and at the polls and they have received as a reward for their labor? A cold throw down.

"OH, WHAT'S THE USE."

This morning a number of the firemen were interviewed and asked to express their opinions on the appointment of the new chief. Some of them had nothing to say but they all seemed to know just what they meant. "Oh, what's the use?"

Many expressed their opinions in no uncertain manner, as indicated below. "For obvious reasons," said one, "I am withheld. Were they to become known the all powerful 'inner circle' would get busy and several heads would fall into the political basket. The 'inner circle' cares nothing for efficiency. It matters not whether the police and fire departments are worthy the name just so long as they can be made a political machine. The 'inner circle' makes no promises made by firemen this morning there is nothing of a personal nature against the new chief and they are not intended as an attack upon him, they are intended to show the workings of the 'American' party."

NATIVE SONS SLAPPED.

Said one of the oldest members of the fire department:

"I do not believe in being selfish, but I am of the opinion that we should take on a little 'Native Son' sentiment, like they do in California. The way things are being run now there is absolutely no encouragement to work. There is no incentive to put forth one's very best efforts. The 'inner circle' is making a mistake. The way things are being run now there is absolutely no encouragement to work. There is no incentive to put forth one's very best efforts. The 'inner circle' is making a mistake. The way things are being run now there is absolutely no encouragement to work. There is no incentive to put forth one's very best efforts. The 'inner circle' is making a mistake."

IT IS OUTRAGEOUS.

Another prominent fireman said: "While I believe Chief Glore is a gentleman and that perhaps he will make a good chief, I nevertheless think his appointment is most outrageous. The 'American' party has certainly shown that merit does not count. What is the use of giving your year after year for promotion?"

"There are half a dozen men in the department better qualified," said another, "men who have had long experience, men who understand all the workings of the department and know the city thoroughly. A man who has worked hard and faithfully in the service and in the interests of the American party too, but what do we get? A throwdown. Why do they appoint a man who was barely a citizen up to the time he qualified? By 'qualified' I mean, filed his bond?"

HE WAXES PROFANE.

One member was particularly angry. "I think it is a damned shame," said he. "If such actions constitute American party principles then I say to hell with the American party. Just look at the men who have worked in the department for years. Think of the faithful workers who were kicked out for political reasons. Think of the scores of men who were born and raised here who are competent to fill the position of chief of the fire department, and then to think that the ungrateful ass who will appoint a man who has been in a Rip Van Winkle sleep for 20 years as chief of an up-to-date fire department in a city the size of Salt Lake! It is enough to make the gods weep."

"Chief Glore is apparently a fine man, socially, but he has not had active experience for nearly 20 years. He is too far behind the times to teach the boys, behind the times to teach the department anything and he is too old for the department to change its volunteer ideas. He does not know the town and he will take him a long time before he becomes at all familiar with the location of fire alarm boxes. He will need a driver constantly. Why Mayor Bransford didn't appoint a Salt Lake man is beyond me."
