Held to Considerable Property Abandoned by Their Father.

DESTITUTION AND STARVATION

The Little Ones Taken Care of By the Police to Be Sent Back to Their Native Country.

New York, N. Y., Aug. 6.—Four children were detained by New York police today by John H. Smith, an undertaker, and left starving, in the street, at 150 Broadway street. All the clothing and furniture was sold, and the children were left to starve. It is said, on good authority, that the children are held to considerable property in the street, that they cannot leave until they are within the age of 16, under the terms of their own mother's will.

With the eldest, Anne, a girl 15, and the youngest, John, a boy 14, who is a cripple, from hunger, that the children are held to considerable property in the street, that they cannot leave until they are within the age of 16, under the terms of their own mother's will.

NO REAL CAUSE FOR ALARM.

How Treasury Officials View the Financial Situation.

THE PASSAGE OF THE TARIFF BILL WILL BE A TREAT TO THE FINANCIAL WORLD.

Washington, Aug. 6.—There are differences of opinion among the treasury officials as to the probability of another bond issue. Neither Mr. Carlisle or Assistant Secretary Charles is willing to admit that there is any real cause for alarm in the present financial situation.

It is known, however, that the President and his advisers are watching with great interest every change in the financial situation, and that every phase of it is being carefully and thoughtfully studied.

Without doubt, the treasury officials are fully prepared to meet any emergency that may arise, and they are confident that the government will be able to meet any such emergency without resorting to a bond issue.
