FRAGMENTS.

No paper to-morrow.

The "Silver King" to-morrow night.

The grand jury visited the city jail to-day.

A number of the denizens of Provo are in town.

Be duly thankful for all blessings to-morrow and every other day.

Last evening's Union Pacific train was delayed six hours by the storm.

The large new telephone poles for Main Street were being put in position to-day.

Hon. JOHN T. CAINE, Utah's Delegate to Congress, left for Washington this morning.

The traditional turkey and plum pudding day will be generally observed throughout the city.

The Utah Central and D. & R. G. W. railways will sell round trip tickets at single fare to those wishing to visit this city to-morrow.

The "Silver King" will be played to-morrow afternoon at a matinee.

The box office opened this morning for the sale of seats for to-morrow and Friday evenings.

Several boys who are charged with breaking into a store on Second South Street, and also doing some damage at Independence Hall, on Sunday night, were arrested this afternoon.

The concert in the Theatre last evening drew even a smaller house than the first night. Several causes conspired to produce this result—other attractions and bad weather. It is a good performance, but not for $1.

T. J. WINTER, formerly of this city, but now engaged in merchandizing at Rexburg, Idaho, is down from the Snake River Valley. He reports everything in that region as fairly prosperous, and says that the farmers have raised large crops (turning the past season. He will return in a couple of weeks.

LOCAL NEWS.

Will Suspended.—To-morrow being Thanksgiving, business at this office will be suspended until Friday. No paper will be issued on Thursday.

Bound Over.—Yesterday afternoon, when taken before Commissioner McKay, on the charge of unlawful cohabitation, Thomas Fenton waived examination, and gave $1,000 bail for his appearance to answer to any bill found against him by the grand jury.

Will be Closed.—The exhibition of the fine paintings by Mr. Alfred Lamborne will be closed during Thanksgiving Day. Most of the pictures have received extended notice in the News. Mr. Lamborne's studio, over the Union National Bank, should be visited by every lover of the beautiful. It is open daily, except Sundays, and the public generally is invited.

Police Court.—In Justice Pyper's tribunal to-day, Daniel Brown, for being drunk, paid $5.

A. Johnson, for the same thing, was fined $10, which he paid.

Frank White, for vagrancy, was fined $30, which not paying he was escorted to the lock-up.

Herbert A. Slade, for an assault, was fined $10 and costs, $17.50 in all, which he paid.

Series of Lectures.—The directors of the 20th Ward Institute have taken steps to furnish the members of the institute, and the members of the ward, generally, with a series of lectures during the winter season, one lecture each month. The first of the series will be given by Brother H. W. Nalabition, Friday evening next, in the Ward school-house. The opening exercises commence punctually at 7:30. Non-residents of the Ward are cordially invited.

Arrested and Discharged.—Last evening Deputy Marshal Cannon arrested Philip H. Williams on the charge of unlawful cohabitation with Mrs. Martha Pugsley and Clarissa Ames Pugsley as his wives. The defendant gave $1,000 bonds for his appearance before the Commissioner to-day. At the examination P. H. Williams appeared as counsel for the defense. A plea of not guilty was entered, and the two ladies named in the complaint, and two or three others, were called as witnesses. The defendant also testified in his own behalf. The substance of the evidence was that while the defendant had two wives, several years ago he and the plural wife entered into an agreement to separate. Since that time they have not borne the relation of husband and wife, nor had the defendant supported her. He had met her at their daughter's house a number of times, but always by invitation, and there was nothing to show that the association of the two as husband and wife had been maintained; in fact, an opposite condition of things was shown. The defendant was discharged, Commissioner McKay finding that there was no probable cause to believe him guilty.

The Smith Case.—After our report closed yesterday afternoon, Judge Spiers took the witness stand and testified substantially as his predecessors had, saying Smith acted like a madman. James M. Smith and Officers Johnson and J. Y. Smith followed, but nothing of an important nature in addition to what had already been brought out was added. The prosecution then rested, and the defense made a motion to dismiss, which was argued pro and con till after 8 o'clock, when court adjourned till 10 o'clock. This morning, at that hour, Justice Pyper announced that the motion was overruled, and the case to the defense was commenced. The plea of temporary insanity, superinduced by a severe injury inflicted 14 years ago and being under the influence of liquor, was interposed. Mrs. Smith, the defendant's mother, and J. M. Smith, gave evidence as to both these points, strongly supporting the theory of the defense; subsequently, in rebuttal, S. H. B. Smith, the defendant's father, was called by the prosecution, but his evidence was more favorable to the other side. At the conclusion of his testimony, the case was argued by the respective attorneys, and closed at 12:30, when the Court decided to hold Smith to answer to the grand jury in the sum of $800. When we went to press the bond had not been given, but it probably will be given.

Joseph Palamontain, the miner injured in the Idaho Mine at Grass Valley, California, several days ago by a log running over him, died Saturday evening, after having suffered greatly since the accident. He was buried under the auspices of the Masons and Odd Fellows' orders, of which he was a prominent member.

A BIG SCHEME.

THE UTAH MIDLAND RAILWAY COMING.

Readers of the News will remember an item which appeared in these columns some two months ago, concerning the advent and subsequent departure of a railroad surveying party, several companies as to where they were going and what they were to do when they got there being aloft. These questions were all set at rest this morning by the filing of articles of incorporation of the "Utah Midland Railroad" with Secretary Thomas and the issuance of a certificate thereupon. The authorized capital is $5,000,000, and at the rate of $1,000 paid up for each mile of road, $250,000 at least must be paid in, as it is contemplated that the road will cover the corresponding distance. The road, which is to be broad gauge, will run from the Colorado State line on the River side Salt Lake to Ogden. The incorporators are—Salt Lake City, John Lawrence, Caleb W. West, W. S. McCormick, P. H. Lannan, F. H. Auerbach, J. A. Groesbeck, O. J. Sallsbury, H. W. Lawrence, Eli H. Murray, G. S. Edwards, Colorado Springs, President J. J. Hageman, Vice-President Orlando Metcalf, and General Manager D. B. Robinson, General Solicitor Henry T. Rogers and H. D. Fisher of the Colorado Midland. The directors are the incorporators from Colorado Springs, and W. S. McCormick and E. H. Murray of Salt Lake City. President Hageman, of the Colorado road will likely be President of the new corporation. It is the intention to have the Utah Midland connect directly with the Colorado, a name which runs through a large portion of the western part of that State, and between the two organizations there will of course be a strong business affinity, each not only operating for the benefit of the other, but under different names, being in fact one and the same thing.

There are two surveying parties in the field, one in Utah, the other in Colorado, but the exact route from end to end has not yet been definitely determined. Whichever path may be chosen, one thing is tolerably certain—that it is a big enterprise. The traffic between Utah and Colorado is at present in its infancy, though by no means unimportant; and it will increase with additional facilities, besides which, way-business will be considerable. Of course work will go right ahead and the road be completed as soon as energy and capital can do it. The total cost is estimated, we understand, at from $5,000,000 to $7,000,000.

AN UNKNOWN BODY.

AN INQUEST HELD OVER THE REMAINS.

We learn that an inquest was held over the body of an unknown man who was found dead by Thomas Tilly and William Johnson, at Desert Springs, Iron County, Utah, November 14th, 1888, while hunting stock. They returned to the Desert Springs, not knowing what to do, and on the 15th went to Hebron and reported to the justice of the peace. The body was lying on the road as though the man had lain down to sleep. His height was five feet six inches, he had light hair, a bald head, heavy mustache and had on a dark coat and vest, light pants, brown overalls, also a black gum coat, no hat could be found. There was a journal and some letters and other papers found on his person that would imply he had been a sewing machine agent, also letters from a lady, supposed to be his wife, addressed "Dear Fred," from Las Vegas and Tucson, signed "Lulu;" also two or three envelopes addressed, "Fred, Bell," one postal card to the postmaster at San Francisco, requesting mail belonging to Fred. Glickerson, forwarded to Columbia, Cal., and some photographs of himself.

THE VERDICT.

TERRITORY OF UTAH,
County of Hebron,
City of Washington.

An inquisition holden on the desert, in Hebron precinct, Washington County, on the 16th day of November, 1888, before the justice of the peace in said county, upon the body of an unknown man, lying dead, the jurors whose names are hereunto subscribed.

The said jurors, upon their oaths do say that said man came to his death by freezing.

In testimony whereof we have hereunto set our hands the 16th day of November, A. D. 1888.

A. J. BARNUM,
 JEFFERSON HUNT,
 JOHN D. PULSFRIER,
 Justices of the Peace.

CITY COUNCIL.

The City Council met in regular session at 7 o'clock last evening, Mayor Armstrong presiding.

On the recommendation of G. G. Bywater, Joseph St. John, a gentleman residing in the Seventeenth Ward, was granted a peddler's license free.

The request of T. A. Morrison for a free peddler's license was referred to the committee on license.

One retail peddler's license was granted.

The claim of witnesses in the suit of San Levy vs. Salt Lake City, and the stenographer's bill in the same case, were allowed, and an amount covering the same approved.

The report of Police Justice Pyper for October was referred to the committee on police.

On the recommendation of the committee on police, the report of the marshal was placed on file as correct.

The committee on cemetery stated that they had considered the petition of Jos. Wm. Taylor, asking permission to disinter bodies and remove them to other cemeteries, and reported adversely thereon. The reason of this report was that the existing ordinance forbids the removal of bodies from the City Sexton, giving the committee no discretion. It was suggested that the ordinance be referred to the committee on municipal laws. The ordinance was referred to the committee on municipal laws.

The sum of $1,000 was appropriated to the Street Superintendent's contingent fund.

The sum of $500 was also added to the City Marshal's contingent fund.

The Council then continued the work of considering the report of the committee on police, and after spending some time at this, adjourned until Tuesday next.

Convicted.—The trial of Peter Tomney, of Tomney & Hillestead, liquor dealers, for permitting disorderly conduct in his place of business on the 20th of July last, took place to-day, in the Third District Court. Four police officers and a woman who was present at the time stated gave testimony showing that some disgraceful scenes were witnessed at the place, and in the presence of the defendant. Several witnesses for the defense, including the defendant himself, denied these allegations, but the jury evidently concluded that the positive testimony of the witnesses for prosecution was the correct version, and this afternoon found the defendant guilty. Ten days' stay was allowed, pending a motion for new trial.

Mrs. Ross Ballesterre, a daughter of P. A. Brown, Esq., last evening, was brought before court and required to give $300 bonds for her appearance as a witness in the case of the United States vs. F. A. Brown when wanted.—Her-ald.

GEORGE DUNFORD

GIVES HIMSELF UP TO RELEASE HIS WIFE—HE IS SENT TO THE PENITENTIARY.

In February, 1888, an indictment was found against George Dunford, of this city, charging him with unlawful cohabitation. About the same time, his wife, Mrs. Eliza Dunford, evaded the officers in their efforts to serve a subpoena upon her as a witness, after being informed of the nature of the case, and for which action she was arrested and held to answer for contempt of court. At the time of these proceedings the defendant was absent from the Territory.

It having been understood that the action against Mrs. Dunford might be quashed by the defendant giving himself up and pleading guilty, he appeared in the Third District Court this afternoon, and admitted that the allegation in the indictment was true.

F. S. Richards, on behalf of Mr. Dunford, requested the Court to take into consideration the fact that the defendant was advanced in years, was in delicate health, and had given the prosecution no trouble.

Mr. Dunford then came forward, and in reply to questions by the Court, stated that he would be 66 years old on Dec. 15, 1888; through exposure he had become subject to rheumatism, from which he was a severe sufferer; as to his financial condition he had met with several heavy losses in recent years.

When the Court asked the defendant whether he promised to make good his conduct, the reply was that he would be utterly impossible for him to make any promise, that would be against his children—his own flesh and blood.

To the inquiry of the Court as to whether he would give any assurance that in future he would live only with his lawful wife, Mr. Dunford replied that it was utterly impossible for him to make any promise as to his future conduct.

The Court then sentenced the defendant to imprisonment for six months, the time to pay $100, and costs. He went to the penitentiary this afternoon.

The conclusion of these proceedings, Mr. Dickinson moved that the case be set aside, and that Mrs. Eliza Dunford be dismissed. The Court refused an order to that effect.

Gone Hence.—The Orion Era, published at St. John, Arizona, has been the drapery of its couch about it and laid down to pleasant dreams—in other words it is dead. An article in the last number headed "Valedictory" and addressed "To Our Readers," says, among other things:

"One reason for its discontinuance is that the paper has not received the support necessary to keep it afloat. It has involved its editor in debt, which he is able to pay, by selling property in another Territory, but which is not his; believing its patrons will settle and relieve him from this necessity, and so earnestly requires that they pay up."

The editor, Mr. John B. Milner, announces that hereafter he will devote his entire time to the practice of law in which field he will certainly be successful than he has in that of journalism.

The Winberg Examination.—The case of the United States vs. Andrew W. Winberg, who was brought to-day on the charge of unlawful cohabitation, came up before Commissioner McKay at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The complaint, which is sworn to by D. W. Rench, charges that from December 1st, 1888, to November 1st, 1888, defendant lived with Mrs. A. W. Winberg and Jane Doe Winberg as his wives. Three of the defendant's daughters were the only witnesses; the substance of the testimony was that the alleged second wife left her home a year and a half ago, and her present whereabouts are unknown; he had been seen at her house occasionally prior to that time.

This evidence was not deemed sufficient, and accordingly, at 3:30, a recess was taken to enable the prosecution to get other witnesses.

Court Notes.—Proceedings in the Third District Court to-day:

M. Shaughnessy vs. E. A. Wall et al.; dismissed.

John S. Bowman et al. vs. Charles Whiting et al.; default and judgment.

Charles Wanless, petit juror, excused.

B. B. Bitter vs. Fred. Solomon; Andrew Gebhardt, guardian, substituted for plaintiff.

The grand jury came into court and reported seven indictments under the laws of the United States, and one under Territorial statutes.

An attachment was issued for Geo. Smith, a defaulting witness before the grand jury.

Thomas Jenkins, Thomas Ryan and George C. Watts, who are under indictment to appear to answer in court on Friday at 10 a. m. for arraignment.

Salt Lake City vs. Peter Tomney; keeping a disorderly house; tried before a jury. F. Hoffman for defense and P. S. Richards, J. H. Moxley for prosecution, verdict of guilty.

United States vs. George Dunford; unlawful cohabitation; plea of guilty; sentenced to imprisonment for six months, and to pay a fine of $150 and costs.

The United States vs. Eliza Dunford; proceedings in contempt against witness; case dismissed.

The People vs. A. J. Peacock; battery; on trial before jury.
