They try their skill upon me, and everything that happened to cross their path. That they have not wiped out these particular birds entirely is due to the happy fact that the scientific hunters have generally been unable to hit anything. It is high time, however, that they be prohibited by law from even shooting at them. A fairer hunting law for birds is what is wanted. The scientific hunters who are at it now, and the law ought to come in the form of the law of providing immunity for the corner utility being done for the sake of the birds.

There is much talk about the progress of the game, and the status of the subject ought to be ascertained and set out in a plain and simple way. At the same time we are engaged in the property of putting up a fence and fence the birds, cows, goats and other birds which do not belong in the game. The birds which are in the game should be protected by the destruction of their nests and eggs, and when in the nest they should be protected by the destruction of their nests and eggs.

prevailed a few years ago with the insurance companies, and that as these birds had to give way, as will the case as to the general risk in "writing" a business.

From a strictly business standpoint, it does not look as though the proposition to charge double rates or to reduce the indemnity in case of accidents, would prove a paying one. The insurance companies are a very large and important class of patrons of accident insurance, and they are as ready to be squeezed as any other class of people, among whom generally there is an impression that the insurance companies are a very large and important class of patrons of accident insurance.

75,000 Rolls of Wall Paper

Seems an awful lot—almost enough to paper the whole city. Well we don't propose to paper the city, but would like to paper most of the houses in this city. 75,000 rolls of Wall Paper would swamp some dealers—that's where we get the advantage, we always buy the quantity, therefore we get the benefit of all the discounts. We give our customers this advantage. That room of yours needs papering. You have put it off long enough. Spring will soon be here, then the rush will be on and you will have to wait. Nothing so inconvenient as to wait for paper-hangers. Better come and see us right away. Our decorations are too beautiful for description. CARPETS? Oh yes! Just one word. We have bought cheaply this season, and for the next ten days will sew, line and lay you a Body Brussels or Dobson's Improved Velvet for only $1.00 per yard.
