

SEEKING MEN FOR NATIONAL GUARD

Capt. H. K. Eakle Opens Recruiting Station at Y. M. C. A. Club Quarters.

ESCORT TO THE GRAND ARMY.

Militiamen to Participate in Great Parade of the Veterans of the Civil War.

A recruiting station, an innovation in the national guard, has been opened in the Y. M. C. A. by Company C, First Infantry. It is conducted much along the lines of similar stations in the army, an officer and a detail of enlisted men being on duty to explain to likely young men the details of national guard service, the conditions of enlistment and the nature of the duties required of members. The station was opened this afternoon, but the working hours of the station will be between 8 p. m. and 10 p. m. every night.

The station created much interest among visitors to the Y. M. C. A. this afternoon. National colors are in evidence about the office and the place is made attractive with a display of photographs of the members of Company C at camp in the army. In the rifle range, practice march and maneuvers. The idea of opening the station was first suggested by Capt. H. K. Eakle, commanding Company C, and was heartily approved by the higher officers. The plan as soon as approved was quickly put in operation and is expected to yield good results.

"The purpose of the bureau is to enlist young men of sound body and mind, of good character and habits and suitable for the service that will be required of them," said Captain Eakle today. "This service is not arduous. It is not more than any willing young man may render. It is a valuable service to any young man, training his mind to a ready obedience to proper authority, a respect for the government and all that it represents, a love for the flag, a patriotic lesson that is never forgotten.

W. McFadden, resigned. John L. A. Redmon has been appointed rural carrier, George F. Cambridge, substitute, route 1, Nampa, Idaho.

MANY CHECKS RECEIVED.

Former Governor Cutler's Mail Contains Utah Hotel Remittances.

Former Gov. John C. Cutler received a number of checks today covering most of the second installment of the subscriptions to the stock of the Utah Hotel. The company is incorporated for $1,500,000, of which $1,000,000 is to be paid up. The first 10 per cent was paid at the time of the incorporation, and tomorrow is the last day for the payment of the second installment of 10 per cent, including the value of the land tomorrow will witness nearly one-fourth of the capital of $1,000,000 paid in.

TAKING THE SCHOOL CENSUS.

Fifteen census enumerators begin work this morning taking the school census. The city is divided into districts so that the work can be rushed. It will probably require six weeks or two months before the reports will be filed in the office of the clerk of the board of education.

COMPARISONS BY TOURISTS.

Quite a number of eastern people, including Canadians, passed through this city en route to the Epworth league convention at Seattle. Several of them were from Toronto, Canada. They told friends here that while Canada looked up to the United States in most things, they were by no means envious of this country in its disregard of the Sabbath as a day of rest. In Toronto, for instance, on the Sabbath day, there are no street cars running, the streets are deserted save by churchgoers, there are no Sunday newspapers, and no Sunday picnics or excursions.

RESISTED AN OFFICER.

E. C. Lewis and A. Cowan persisted in their belief that the stockade was still in existence until they were arrested by Special Officer A. Reuting and lodged in jail under a charge of resisting an officer and trespassing.

The men were arrested shortly after 9 o'clock last night after they refused to obey the officer's warning to leave what used to be the stockade premises.

MISSING LINK COMING.

Mr. Darwin is a Member of Ringling Brothers' Big Menagerie.

Mr. Darwin is coming to Salt Lake City. He is not the illustrious gentleman born a hundred years ago, who wrote profound theories about our ancestors, but a creature so like the missing link the great philosopher predicted, that scientists must ponder when they see him.

Darwin lives in a miniature house with a fireplace, bay windows, electric lights and pictures on the wall. In a little back room he has an iron bed and a table. He sits at his table, drinks from a bottle, eats with a knife and fork and after his repast smokes a soothing pipe. His house has wheels and occupies the place of honor in the menagerie. Ringling Brothers' circus which exhibits here on Monday, Aug. 2.

This big menagerie has been wonderfully improved since the Ringling Brothers last came here. They have about every specimen of animal life that belongs to this age, and many animals the like of which are never shown elsewhere. At the head of this department are the two largest giraffes in captivity, 40 elephants, a single horned rhinoceros and a hippopotamus.

Just as the menagerie excels so also is the circus proper the greatest that ever toured in any part of the world. In fact, in the opinion of their many great admirers the Ringling Brothers have surpassed their former brilliant records. Not in the history of the show business has any other amusement enterprise possessed a single act equal to any one of at least 20 features which these two famous circus kings are presenting this season.

New York city was amazed at the size of the institution when the season's opening was made at the Madison Square Garden. It was the circus surplus of the last 25 years and the great audience room was taxed to its utmost, so great was the demand for tickets.

The performances here will be given in every detail just as seen in New York. The parade will be all new, the opening spectacle the most brilliant of all and the program the most sensational ever seen on earth.

An official emblem typifying the idea and sentiment of the Inland Empire exposition which is to be held in this city in October by the Utah State Fair association is now being designed and when completed copies will be sent broadcast over the country. The design will illustrate the development and progress of the people of the "Inland Empire." On one side will be shown an Indian chief standing at the entrance of his wigwam surveying the vast stretch of land which has been transformed from a desert into a fruitful valley. On the other side is shown a pioneer standing by his wagon viewing the same scene. The foreground of the design shows the barren desert land, while stretching away in the distance are fields of waving grain and still farther away a city with factories, skyscrapers, warehouses, etc.

President McDonald has given the commission for the drawing to E. V. Simpson, a local artist, and it is expected that it will be finished by the end of the week. It is the intention of the officials to have it published in every publication in the state, and it is probable that a prize will be offered for the best essay written on the idea. The same design will be used in all the advertising of the exposition, including its reproduction in colors on posters to be distributed throughout the state.

MAIN STREET DEAL.

Western Union Quarters Retransferred for the Sum of $53,000.

A transfer was recorded last evening, from the estate of I. M. Higley et al. to A. Richter, of 29½ ft. front on Main street between First and Second South streets, for $53,000. The property has been transferred to the Western Union Building corporation, the property being the building and ground occupied by the Western Union telegraph offices.

ELKS ELECT SAMMIS AND SELECT DETROIT

Los Angeles, July 13.—The grand lodge of Elks today elected the following officers:

Exalted Ruler—James U. Sammis, Le Mars, Ia.
Leading Knight—Warren G. Sayre, Wabash, Ind.
Lecturing Knight—J. D. Jones, Scranton, Pa.
Secretary—Fred C. Robinson, Dubuque, Ia.
Treasurer—Edwin R. Leach, New York.

Trustee—Perry A. Clay, Denver.
Tyler—Charles L. Dickler, Beidjle, Minn.

The balloting for grand exalted loyal knight resulted in no election, four candidates being voted for and no one receiving a majority. J. L. Preston of Wyoming received 225 votes. Another ballot will be taken tomorrow.

The count was completed at 9 o'clock and after the official notification of the result had been made to Grand Exalted Ruler Holland at his headquarters at the Alexandria hotel, the results were given to the press.

The vote for grand exalted ruler was extremely close, Sammis receiving 522 votes and Herrmann 529.

The only business transacted by the grand lodge today outside of the election of officers, was the selection of Detroit as the place for holding the reunion in 1910. St. Louis, Boston and Portland, Ore., were mentioned as rivals of Detroit, but no strength for any one of these developed and when St. Louis withdrew from the contest Detroit was named by acclamation.
