

non-union crews and a sharp melee followed in which a score of men were reported to have been clubbed. Chief Kohler with number 30 car was pushed to the scene and dispersed the crowd. Chief Kohler was struck in the neck with a stone but was not seriously hurt.

An attempt to run cars on the Payne avenue line early today was frustrated by a crowd of strike sympathizers. They took down the car controller lever of a car, pulled down the trolley and cut off the trolley rope. The motorman and conductor left the car standing in the street. Later it was hauled back to the barns.

At the junction of the Collinwood and Euclid Beach lines in the eastern suburb, a switch point was broken off and a telephone pole was thrown across the tracks, effectually tying up the progress of cars in that section for the time being.

MOB WITH CROWBARS.

A mob armed with crowbars and other tools attempted to tear up the street railway track on St. Clair avenue near East Ninetieth street this morning. The mob was dispersed, however, before much headway on the work had been made.

The crew of a car on the St. Clair avenue line was dragged from the car by the mob. The conductor was badly beaten, his scalp being laid open with a brick. Both the conductor and motorman were finally rescued by the police.

"Hitting will not be tolerated," declared Chief of Police Kohler today. "Any outbreaks on the part of the street railway men or any attempt to interfere with cars running will not be permitted and will be dealt with severely."

Leaders of the street car union claim that although negotiations have been under way looking to arbitration of the differences between the employees, the company has systematically held off the union men, placed them on the extra list, supplanted them with Forest City men and had given every indication that it was the purpose of the Municipal Traction company to force the union men out of the service and use arbitration only as a cloak for delay.

MEN LOYAL TO UNION.

President Behner of the union, in commenting on the strike situation today, said:

"All the men are loyal to the union and there is no doubt that we will win in the end."

"I believe the public is on our side and realize that our men have been treated unfairly by the traction company."

"We have stationed pickets at every barn. These men will try to persuade any one who shall attempt to run cars out of the barn to quit work. They will do this by persuasion, by peaceful methods, and not by violence."

BEV OF BACKSLIDERS

Grand Aggregation of Wrongdoers Ranging from Placid Drunks to Burglars Face Diehl.

Judge C. B. Diehl of the criminal division of the city court, having recovered from a slight illness, was on the bench again this morning and disposed of a number of cases.

Frank Cameron and Allen Gates, charged with selling phony jewelry, were glad to plead guilty to the charge and take advantage of a "noter" which means they will have to shake the dust of Salt Lake from their feet before Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Earl Elsbury, charged with battery upon his wife, Nellie Elsbury, pleaded not guilty and the case was set for Monday afternoon next. In the case of John Keohane, charged with beating his wife, the man pleaded guilty but as he had been in jail five days awaiting trial, he was fined only $5.

John Pano, a Greek, charged with indecent conduct, was unable to understand the complaint as read to him and the matter went over until Monday afternoon.

The case of Albert Lemars, charged with battery upon an elevator boy in the Board of Trade building, was continued until Monday.

Charles P. Ludwig, charged with stealing a number of articles from the room of O. Ray, pleaded that he was drunk and that he took the things "in the spirit of devilry."

"I was drunk when I took the things," said Ludwig, and did not take them for profit but just for fun." It was shown, however, that the man secreted the articles about his clothing, and as Judge Diehl thought the man carried the "joke" too far, he was fined $25.

Homer Mahoney, the man who was found yesterday on the O. S. L. tracks, admitted he was drunk and it was also shown that he had been begging. He will spend the next 10 days in the city jail.

Fred Beesley was assessed $2 for violating the bicycle ordinance. In the person of John Donovan, arrested on the charge of using abusive language to C. P. Eyer, the police believe they have in their custody a man who will bear watching. His actions, they say, have been most suspicious recently and while they have nothing of a definite nature against him, more than the charge preferred, they propose to make a thorough investigation into his actions during the past few days. He was fined $10 by Judge Diehl and is now in the city jail. He was questioned this morning by the police, but declined to give a detailed account of his movements in neighborhoods where

YOUNG FAMILY REUNION

Will Be Held at Wandamere June 1 And Preparations Already Begun To Make Day Enjoyable.

The annual reunion of the Young family will occur at Wandamere, June 1, and already active preparations are being made for the occasion. It is the intention to make the day more interesting, if possible, than any of its predecessors, and to that end, John M. Young, president of the Young Family association, and various committees are hard at work arranging details.

There will be a number of specially invited guests, including the First Presidency, members of the quorum of apostles, and other leading Church officials. Governor John C. Cutler will head the list of civilians who will be invited to attend. A program of musical and literary excellence will be rendered.

DOCTOR WINDSOR HERE.

Will Give Free Lectures on "Mairimony" at the Lyric Theater.

"Mairimony" is the interesting title given the first of a series of scientific entertainments to begin Sunday at the Lyric theater, continuing several nights, consisting of illustrated lectures and delineations of character by William Windsor, L.L. B., president of the Boston College of Philosophy.

He will introduce upon the stage seven young women and an equal number of men representing different types of human nature and show them their affinities and incompatibilities.

Monday night he will lecture on "How to Become Rich," introducing portraits and experiences of men and women who have amassed fortunes by adopting philosophical principles.

ANDERSON TOWER OPENING.

For the first time in many years, "Anderson's Tower" will be thrown open to the public tomorrow. This famous landmark on the hill at Sixth and A streets is the highest accessible point within the city limits. For years after it was built, in 1886, it was one of the show places of the city, admission being charged to those who wished to see one of the most beautiful views in the United States. Later, the tower was closed and boarded up. Now

Stowe & Palmer, the real estate men who are agents for the Tower Heights subdivision, have secured from the owner of the tower, Mr. Robert R. Anderson, permission to throw it open free to the public all day Sunday, and from 2 to 5 o'clock weekday afternoons.

YOUTHS WERE CELEBRATING.

Late yesterday afternoon the police rounded up about 25 school boys who had been having "fun" by placing torpedoes on the car tracks. Several complaints had been made at headquarters and upon investigation the police found the boys had been most suspicious recently and while they have nothing of a definite nature against him, more than the charge preferred, they propose to make a thorough investigation into his actions during the past few days. He was fined $10 by Judge Diehl and is now in the city jail. He was questioned this morning by the police, but declined to give a detailed account of his movements in neighborhoods where

SAYS HUSBAND IS OPIUM FIEND

Gertrude Barnes Makes Charges Of Gross Cruelty Against Frank C. Barnes.

STRUCK HER REPEATEDLY.

While Under Influence of Liquor and Drugs He Abused Her and Threatened Her Life.

Charging that her husband, Frank C. Barnes, is given to the excessive use of intoxicating liquors, and of morphine and the smoking of opium, and that he has threatened to kill her, Gertrude Barnes today filed suit in the third district court asking for a decree of divorce. She also asks for an order restraining Barnes from entering her rooming house at 48 east Second South, and to that end, John M. Young, president of the Young Family association, and various committees are hard at work arranging details.

According to the complaint, defendant has been addicted to the excessive use of liquors and drugs, capable of providing a comfortable living for them both, has refused to work and has subsisted on the earnings of plaintiff since the five years defendant has treated plaintiff in a systematically cruel and inhuman manner, some of the instances of cruelty being enumerated as follows: That on May 15, 1908, at March 1, 1908, the defendant mentioned, defendant used abusive and violent language to her, and struck her violently on her head with his clenched fist. On May 15, 1908, at the same place defendant struck her on the neck with his fist and threatened to kill her. When she was taken to the hospital, he refused to let her go, and at least once he threatened to kill her. Defendant was at that time so violent that he was taken to custody by the police and removed from the house.

Plaintiff asks the court to restrain defendant from checking on their joint bank account in the National Bank of the Republic, for decree of divorce and for such other relief as the court may deem equitable.

SUES FORMER EMPLOYER.

John Finister has filed suit in the district court to recover $1,399 damages from the White Sewing Machine company, by whom he was employed as a salesman. He alleges that while so employed he was compelled to walk over a defective platform in front of the company's office in order to get in and out of the building, and that on April 20, 1908, while so doing, he stepped on a defective plank in the walk and fell through to the basement, causing severe injuries to his legs and arms.

INFORMATION IN TEST CASE.

Information has been filed in the district court by Dr. Henry LaMotte, a plaintiff in the test case to be made to determine the rights of physicians to practice optometry. The information sets forth that Dr. LaMotte on April 4 unlawfully without securing a license to do so practiced optometry by refracting the eyes of S. W. Lever and by employing subjective and objective means to determine the accommodative condition of his eyes. The contention of Dr. LaMotte is that a practicing physician has a right to treat any ailment of the body and the outcome of the case will be watched with great interest.

MET HIS AFFINITY.

Virginia Halstead yesterday filed suit in the district court for divorce from her husband, Harry Halstead, setting up the novel ground that after six years of presumably happy life together, her husband told her that he had met his affinity, repeating the statement so often that it amounted to positive cruelty. The Halsteads were married at Denver, Dec. 16, 1901. More than a year ago, Mrs. Halstead alleges, her husband began to neglect and fail to support her. Her husband months ago he became cruel, treating her in a cool and indifferent manner.

CLARK WILL FILED.

The will of former Mayor John Clark was filed in the Third district court yesterday, accompanied by a petition of John E. Clark, James M. Barlow, William N. Clark and Julia C. Taylor that it be admitted to probate. The estate is valued at $28,537.20, divided as follows: Real estate, $15,100; personal property, $13,437.20. The will bears date of Jan. 24, 1908, and John E. Clark, James M. Barlow, and William Clark are named as executors without bonds. The will provides for the payment of $50, the interest of which is to be used in ornamenting a cemetery lot, and divides the estate among the following heirs: John E. Clark, Julia C. Taylor, Emma Jane Barlow, Mary Alice Clawson, Ella C. Madsen, William N. Clark, Ella C. Smith, Vaughan H. Clark, and Geneva Clark, children, in equal shares.

LETTERS IN CALLISTER ESTATE.

In the matter of the petition of Rosina M. Edgington Callister for letters of administration in the matter of the estate of William D. Callister, deceased, Judge Ritchie today granted the petition and fixed the bond at $7,000. The estate consists of $3,400 in personal property, and several pieces of real estate.

CRUELTY ALLEGED.

James H. Hattan today filed suit in the Third district court for divorce from Pearl M. Hattan, alleging cruelty as the ground for his action. The couple were married Aug. 7, 1905, at Kansas City, Mo.

SONS OF WALES MEET

A movement is on foot to form a ladies' auxiliary to the organization known as the Sons of Wales. The society met last evening in the Goddard-Pitts building, there being a good attendance of members and friends. Addresses were made by Former Mayor Edwards of Willard and Evan Arthur of Salt Lake.

Favorable Welsh airs were furnished by a graphophone, and there was a program of solos and recitations. Prof. William Ap. Madoc, of Chicago, who has been sojourning in Wales, sent greeting to the local society in a letter. The next regular meeting will be held the second Friday in June, at which time it is expected that Judge J. A. Howell, of Ogden, will address the society. A special meeting of members will convene May 22. Resolutions of respect to the late Mayor Price will be prepared by a committee composed by Evan Arthur, John Morgan and John James.

SELECT REV. MR. BUXTON.

Rev. Dr. Albert Buxton, Ph. D., has been selected as superintendent of the Utah training school, as the detention home will be called. The county commissioners decided to make the appointment on recommendation of Judge Gowan of the juvenile court, and his nomination will be confirmed at the meeting of the commissioners next Monday. Rev. Buxton is pastor of the Central Christian church in this city, and he has distinguished himself since coming to Utah by his earnest work among the young. Dr. Buxton has expressed a willingness to accept the responsibility of conducting the home, and the officers of the juvenile court and the commissioners are much gratified that the school will be in such capable hands.
