Various Cures.
Advancing years, care, sickness, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all operate to turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR will restore added or gray, light and red hair to a rich brown or deep black, as may be desired. It softens and cleanses the scalp, giving it a healthy action, and removes and cures dandruff and humors. By its use falling hair is checked, and a new growth will be produced in all cases where the follicles are not destroyed or glands decayed. Its effects are beautifully shown on brassy, weak, or sickly hair, to which a few applications will produce the gloss and freshness of youth. It is made in its operation, it is incomparable as a dressing, and is especially valued for the soft lustrous richness of tone it imparts. It contains neither oil, nor dye, nor any other coloring matter, and it keeps it fresh and vigorous. For sale by all dealers.

The Millionaire Star will be mailed to any address, on receipt by the publishers, of $1.50. Three copies will be forwarded for $3.75, the reduction being on account of the difference in postage. Address: William Budge, 42 Wellington, Liverpool, England. d471

Direct Trade With Manufacturers For Utah, Montana, Wyoming, Nevada and Idaho.

The well known house of D. M. Osborne & Co., Manufacturers of Mowers, Reapers and Self-binding Harvesters, needs no introduction from us at this time, for they have for some years been selling their wares in all parts of the Territory through their agents and local agents, etc. Recently, however, an important change has been made in their mode of conducting the business, and it is a change which must commend itself to our country merchants, and the farmers. This change is no less than the establishment of a Branch House, located either at Salt Lake or Ogden, supplied with every variety of machines made by that Company, in sufficient quantity for the wants of the trade, large stocks of extra parts, a sufficient force of competent mechanics and travelers, together with every appliance and facility for pushing their business and giving to the farmer as near direct trade as is possible. By this means one of the largest manufacturing houses of the world is brought to our door face to face with its patrons. Prices will be somewhat reduced, and certainly all interested parties are benefited. The company must have representation in every farming district, and those who have heretofore exclusively represented or handled their machines, will in all probability have the opportunity. Mr. N. Argus, of the San Francisco branch recently visited Utah and will return again in about 30 days, when all arrangements will be completed. In the meantime parties desiring to communicate with the company for agencies, or on other business, can address D. M. Osborne & Co., Box 294 Salt Lake City, Utah. d s w 2

Solid Merit with Test.
For all the bitter opposition of valour rivals, no better illustration could be had of this fact than the immense sale already attained by the great Throat and Lung Remedy, Dr. Angus, Kaiser, and his Edifice. For the cure of Coughs and Bronchial Affections, it is truly wonderful, even those suffering from Consumption in advanced stages find great relief, and numbers of patients have found, to their delight, not only relief but cure. It being perfectly harmless, it is at once popular with mothers, who of all others have felt the necessity of such a medicine. The genuine bears the Prussian Coat of Arms, the fac-simile signature of Dr. Angus, Kaiser, and has his name blown on every 75 cent bottle. A trial size may be had for 25 cents.

It will cure when they fail, it is pleasant to take, harmless to the youngest child and we guarantee what we say. Price 10 cts., 50 cts. and $1.00. If your lungs are sore, Chest or Back lame, or Shiloh's Consumption Cure. Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Department, Wholesale and Retail, Salt Lake City, Utah.

EVENING NEWS.

Saturday, November 9, 1879.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Sunday Services.—Sunday Schools at 10 a. m. Meeting in the Tabernacle at 2 p. m., and in various ward meeting-houses in the evening as usual.
At the latter, home missionaries will be in attendance.
From the Suburbs.—Mr. Joseph A. West, of the Junction, is in the city this morning.
Pleasant Call.—The white washers have been "making it pleasant for us" to-day. But the time in our hair grows out so fast, we are writing anything funny on the subject. Come again, some holiday.

Grape Growing and Wine Making.—The following communication, just received from Washington, will be of interest to the owners of vineyards in Utah:
U. S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, Washington, D. C., October 25th, 1879.

Mr. E. V. Morris, Corresponding Secretary Deseret Agricultural and Manufacturing Society:
Sir.—I have the honor to request that you will send to this Department, at your earliest convenience, the names and addresses of those engaged in grape culture and wine-making in your section. In order that we may send to each a copy of a circular of questions we have prepared relative to the methods employed and the results obtained. Very respectfully,
J. E. A. CARMAN, Acting Commissioner of Agriculture.

It is desired that all, to whom this message will apply, immediately send their names and addresses to R. V. Morris, Esq., Salt Lake, so that he may, within a month from this date, forward the list to Washington, as requested by the Commissioner of Agriculture.

Returned Missionary.—We had a pleasant call this afternoon from Elder F. F. Howells, of the 15th Ward, who has recently returned from a mission to Great Britain. He left here July 18th, 1877, and for 13 months labored in the Welsh Conference, before being transferred to the London Conference. In the latter district he remained five months, and then succeeded Elder Daniel Jacobs in the presidency of the Norwich Conference. He was released to return and did so at the same time as Elders Bramall and Lewis, a brief account of whose experience has already been published. Bro. Howells is in excellent health and has enjoyed his labors very much, though glad to be at home once more among his friends and acquaintances in Zion.

District Court.—Proceedings Saturday morning, Nov. 8, 1879, before Judge Emerson:
Jurors excused until Monday, Nov. 24, 1879, at 10 a. m.

People, etc., vs. Frank Scott and Edward Johnson, housebreaking; defendants Scott and Johnson sentenced to a term of two years in the penitentiary.

People, etc., vs. John Murphy, assault with intent to commit murder; sentenced to one year and six months in the penitentiary.

People, etc., vs. Frank Butler, grand larceny; motion for new trial denied. Called for sentence. Judgment after pending appeal. Ordered to give bond in $1,000.

A Crank Beer Escapade.—Everybody, who has tried it, knows what a bottle of crank beer is, and so did the man who took his family into a Main Street lunch house the other day. He knew more about crank beer than the man who made it, and when the latter politely offered to open it for him, begged to be allowed the privilege of doing it himself. What followed will never be entirely known. "Bless me!" was the only coherent thing that reached above the confusion of the next 30 seconds. The woman says it struck her just above the right ear, but we have no reason to think that the children are running yet.

Plasterers and Laborers.—In conversation with the committee, we are assured that for the Tabernacle to be used for public services during any portion of the winter season, there must be no delay in the plastering, and, as many hands make light work, if the plasterers of this stake will take hold with a will, the work will soon be completed, to make room for the carpenters and painters to finish the inside of the building. Plasterers and laborers are requested to report themselves to Supt. Henry Grow, next Monday morning.

Postponed Two Weeks.—On account of Judge Emerson's having to leave the city to-morrow, the trial of Mr. N. V. Jones, late member of the police force, for shooting a tramp who was trying to escape arrest, will be postponed until two weeks from Monday. The case was to have been tried to-day, but as it would have occupied more than one day, it was deemed advisable to defer it until Judge Emerson returns to resume his duties here in the Third District Court.

Special Notice to Bishops.—Everything now being ready for plastering the walls and ceiling of the New Tabernacle, it is very desirable for the first coat, at least, to be put on next week, if possible.

The bishops are respectfully requested to call upon the plasterers living in their respective Wards, who contemplate working on the Tabernacle, to be on hand to commence next Monday morning. A proportionate number of laborers also.

Educational.—The County Educational Association holds its regular semi-monthly meeting in the Thirteenth Ward Assembly Rooms this evening at 7 o'clock. These meetings are growing in interest, and afford opportunities for the expression of thoughts and opinions on the important subject of education, which the friends of intellectual progress should encourage by their presence, sympathy and attention.

A Deal Theft.—An individual, who is said to be a discharged soldier, attempted to steal an overcoat yesterday morning from the Bowling Alley Saloon, but was pursued, overtaken and the article recovered. Some time afterward, he re-appeared in the same place and made away with a hat that was lying near him. He was again followed, and eventually apprehended and taken to the City Hall. This morning he was assigned at the bar of justice, and sentenced to 60 days labor.

Attention Friends!—Special Brigade meeting, Monday evening, at half-past 7.
R. H. HARDY, Secretary.

Just About.—Sunbeams, to-day, are about as rare as smiles on the face of an employee at the District Court. Anybody dead?

Haystack Burnt.—The haystack of William Spackman, of North Ogden, was burned down on Wednesday. Cause, a lighted match with a small boy adjoining.

Why Slumbers Genius?—It snowed for a short time this morning. Where are the heads who were wont to immortalize the beautiful "beautiful?"

Up Hill Work.—United States indictment finders are now going around representing themselves as Free School Commissioners. Their chief difficulty is in making even ignorance believe that they know anything about either schools or good manners.

Barn Burned.—A fire broke out in the barn of Dominick Dignon, Park City, on Thursday night, about 11 o'clock, and consumed the building with its contents, which included a buggy, a sleigh, and a quantity of hay. The cause is supposed to have been the inevitable pipe of the tramp.

Lost Child.—A little German girl about 12 years of age, giving the name of ——— Leeds, was found on 3d South Street this afternoon, and taken to the residence of ———, who was found with two and a half blocks west of the Cliff House, where she will be cared for until claimed.

Agreed At Last.—The trial of James Moray, for the murder of Jacob Smith, at Park City, last Spring, which has engaged the attention of the District Court for three days, closed yesterday afternoon, and the jury, after having been charged, retired to consider upon a verdict. At 11 o'clock they had failed to return, and His Honor concluded to let them remain out all night. At two o'clock this afternoon, they came into court and reported the finding of a verdict of guilty of murder in the second degree, and recommended the prisoner to the mercy of the court. The indictment was for murder in the first degree.

Quickly Done.—This afternoon, two young blacksmiths, named respectively David Hilton, Jr., and W. H. Evans, employed at the Church shops, made a wager; the former that he could nail the 8 shoes on a span of horses within 12 minutes, while the other bet against the performance of the feat. Hilton went to work with a vim, and in exactly 8 minutes, finished the job of putting 8 nails in each shoe and nailing them fast to the horses' hoofs. Experienced smiths pronounced the work well and substantially done, and the wager won with 34 minutes to spare. What enhances the merit of the feat still more, is the fact that Hilton, though having had considerable experience in shoeing, was out of practice at the time he accomplished it.

The Old-Fashioned Girl.

She flourished thirty or forty years ago. She was a little girl until she was fifteen. She used to help her mother wash the dishes and keep the kitchen tidy, and she had an ambition to make pies so nicely that papa could not tell the difference between them and mamma's, and yet she could fry griddle-cakes at 10 years of age, and darn her own stockings before she was twelve, to say nothing of knitting them herself.

She never said "I can't," and "I don't want to," to her mother when asked to leave her play, and run up stairs or down on an errand, because she had not been brought up in that way. Obedience was a cardinal virtue in the old-fashioned little girl.

She rose in the morning when she was called, and went out in the garden and saw the dew on the grass, and if she lived in the country she fed the chickens and hunted up the eggs for breakfast.

We do not suppose that she had her hair in curl-papers or crimping-pins, or had it "banged" over her forehead, and her flounces were no trouble to her.

She learned to sew by making patchwork, and we dare say she could do a "cover-and-over" seam as well as nine-tenths of the grown up women nowaday.

The old-fashioned little girl did not grow into a young lady and talk about beaux before she was in her teens, and she did not read dime novels, and was not fancying a hero in every playboy she meets.

She learned the solid accomplishments as she grew up. She was taught the art of cooking and housekeeping. When she got a husband she knew how to cook him a dinner.

She was not learned in French verbs or Latin declensions, and her near neighbors were spared the agony of hearing her pound out "The Maiden's Prayer," and "Silent Thrush Among the Gold."

It may be a vulgar assertion, and we suppose that we are not exactly up with the times, but we honestly believe, and our own opinion is based on considerable experience, and no small opportunity for observation, that when it comes to keeping a family happy, a good cook and housekeeper is to be greatly preferred above an accomplished scholar. When both sets of qualities are found together, as they sometimes are, then is the household over which such a woman has control, blessed.

The old-fashioned little girl was modest in her demeanor, and she never lashed her tongue, or used words. She did not laugh at old people or make fun of cripples, as we saw some modern little girls doing the other day. She had respect for elders, and she did not above listening to words of counsel from those older than herself.

She did not think she knew as much as mother, and that her judgment was as good as her grandmother's.

She did not go to parties by the time she was ten, and stay till after midnight playing cards and dancing with any chance young man who happened to be present.

She went to bed in season, and doubtless said her prayer before she went to sleep, and she was of innocent, happy and capable of giving happiness.

And if there be an old-fashioned little girl in the world to-day, may heaven bless her, and raise up another like her.—N. Y. Examiner.
