Loss of the "Golden City" and sufferings of the passengers.

SAN FRANCISCO.—The steamer Colorado brings intelligence of the total loss of the steamer Golden City, Feb. 22nd, near Point St. Lozano. The passengers, crew, baggage and treasure were all saved and brought back by the Colorado. The ship was a total wreck, having broken in two just forward of the smoke stack. The suffering of the passengers of the Golden City, on the march from the scene of the disaster to Santa Maria Bay, to take the Colorado, is described as terrible. They had no water to drink and but little hard bread to eat. Old men, women and children walked over the rocky mountains under the burning sun and arrived at their destination, entirely prostrated. Accounts differ as to the number of passengers missing. Some say nine, others fifteen; the latter is considered the nearest correct.

The number of the Golden City cabin and most of her steerage passengers took passage by the Colorado. The steamer Fidelity will be dispatched tomorrow to the wreck of the Golden City to bring away her treasure.

ALBANY.—The New York Central, a year ago, issued a scrip dividend of eighty per cent. on its capital stock, and having failed to make returns to the revenue officer, the company was to-day assessed, by the U. S. Assessor, five per cent. on the dividend; the tax amounts to one million one hundred and fifty-two thousand dollars.

The World's Havana correspondent writes that the Cubans have begun to retaliate in kind on the Spaniards. Gen. Quesada, before he was superseded by Gen. Jordan, ordered all the prisoners within his immediate command to be shot; 135 Spaniards were quickly sent to their last homes. When Jordan took the command he shot three hundred prisoners and the black flag was flying on both sides, and now a war of extermination has set in.

A Havana letter gives the details of the arrest and execution by the Spaniards, of the alleged Cuban Junta at Santiago. The arrests numbered from forty to fifty. Eighteen were executed, including two Americans. The victims, when arraigned before the commission that condemned them, admitted the existence of the association to which they belonged, but denied it being a political junta, saying it was only a Masonic lodge; that they met as Masons for Masonic purposes. This defense appears to have angered instead of satisfied the Spaniards. A Catalonian priest, who had been noted for his loyalty and violent denunciations of the Cubans, pronounced Free Masons no better than insurgents and said that the rising at Yara was plotted and planned in a Masonic lodge; that Cespedes was a Mason, and that wherever Masons congregate, there Spanish loyalty disappears.

The American Consul Phillips, ably seconded by Ramaden the British Consul, endeavored hard to save the lives of his two countrymen, but they were unsuccessful, the volunteers insisting upon their life blood being shed as well as that of their Cuban associates, and they thwarted all appeals to the government to spare them. Consul Phillips reports that the remaining prisoners are to be executed soon, but statements from other sources are to the effect that the Lieutenant Governor is opposed to any more executions and has written for instructions. The volunteers, headed by Col. Boet, were furious at the delay and clamored loudly for the execution of all the arrested parties, and it may have already happened that the Lieut. Governor has had to succumb to their demands. The writer of the letter says I am assured that several Americans are also included in the lot. Phillips has asked the American government for a man-of-war, and the British Consul has also written to his government that a war vessel should be kept constantly at his disposal.

On the twelfth a British subject, named Frederick Jordan, was murdered by a Spanish volunteer; the murderer was arrested, he said his act had been done from other motives than political.
