LOCAL NEWS.

FROM WEDNESDAY'S DAILY, JULY 14

Jubilee.—To-day the Sunday schools of Manti, Ephraim and Spring City, Sanpete County, unite in a Sunday school jubilee. A good programme of speeches, songs, recitations and other exercises has been prepared for the occasion, which will no doubt be profitable and interesting to all who attend.

Interesting Articles.—The Woman's Exponent for July 1, contains some very interesting articles. "R. W. S." describes Princess Street, Edinburgh, probably the finest thoroughfare in the world; Helen Mar Whitney continues her account of "Scenes and Incidents in Winter Quarters"; "E. S. S." has an interesting letter from Hamburg; and the remaining contents, comprising editorial articles, correspondence, etc., are of interest to the readers of the Exponent.

No Sunstroke.—That a genuine case of sunstroke ever occurred in or near this city is denied by high local medical authority. Dr. Benedict says he has never seen a case at all like those of frequent occurrence in New York City, where he had a wide experience in sunstroke cases. The cases that occur here may have, as the cause of death, the great heat, but the symptoms are usually entirely different from those of genuine sunstroke. In the latter the skin is pungently hot, and there is almost invariably active delirium. In Bellevue Hospital, New York, in many cases, the first thing done with a sunstroke patient is to put him in a straight jacket. The next thing is to start perspiration, which invariably ceases just before the attack.

Another Returned Missionary.—This morning Elder L. John Nuttall Jr., called at this office and gave some account of his mission to England, from which he has just returned. He was absent two years and two months, and labored all the time in the Liverpool Conference, as Traveling Elder until August last, since which time he presided over the conference. He enjoyed his labors and prizes the experience they afforded him. He states that there is great apathy among the people in that conference concerning the Gospel, though in other parts of England the Elders are meeting with considerable success. Elder Nuttall left Liverpool on the Nevada with the company of Saints, and continued with the latter until Chicago was reached. At that point he left the main company in charge of a small one of about 38 persons who were destined for points south of this city, via the A. T. & S. F. and D. & K. G. railroads. He reached Provo yesterday afternoon, and parting from the company of which he had been in charge, he came to this city.

How to Prevent Sunstroke.—Wm. Willes, Esq., of this city, sends the following communication, which seems to contain some useful suggestions:

"Being grieved to hear of the two cases of fatal sunstroke in this locality, induces me to sound a note of warning to the people who are exposed to the excessive rays of the sun at the present time.

During my sojourn of several years in India and Burmah, during which I was frequently under the necessity of traveling exposed to the sun's rays, I was always very careful to furnish myself with appropriate head-gear, except on one occasion, when I was out for about half an hour with a black hat on, in Calcutta, which was followed by very serious consequences, but was providentially relieved by the profuse application of cold water.

The most suitable and safe covering for the head is that worn by the soldiers, who are provided with what is known as the "Havelock cap," which is covered with white cotton cloth, and having a curtain behind to protect the neck, as it was found by the humane general whose name they bear that, sun-stroke was caused by the exposure of the spine at the junction of the head and shoulders.

I have invariably placed some green leaves in the crown of my hat, and follow the practice here, taking care to sprinkle them with water.

Black hats are extremely objectionable to wear during the hot weather, especially if not provided with means for being ventilated.

"The proper study of mankind is MAN."

FROM THURSDAY'S DAILY, JULY 15

Weston.—This town in Cache Valley is very unfortunate this year. Grasshoppers are devouring the crops rapidly. One farmer has had a field of rye almost ripe enough to cut, completely eaten up by them. The scourge has devoured all the leaves on the wheat stalks in his field and is now consuming the nearly ripe heads. Heretofore, much hay has been cut on the lands lying near the settlement, but the drought has completely destroyed the grass this year, so that little or no hay will be cut in the place.

The Approaching Election.—An official announcement by the People's Central Committee, of a convention to be held on the 21st of July, to nominate candidates for the general election to take place on the 2d of August, appears in this issue. The first matters to be considered and acted upon in connection with this subject, are the primaries, for the election of delegates to the convention. They will be held in all the precincts of the county, at the usual places for holding elections, on Monday next, (July 19th,) at 8 o'clock p. m. All members of the People's Party should attend.

A Shocking Casualty.—On Tuesday evening last, a little four-year-old boy, son of W. T. Fletcher, living in the Eighth Ward, put a piece of glass, believed to be a set out of a cheap ring, in his ear. On the same evening the child was taken to Dr. Anderson's office. It was too dark to do anything at that time, but yesterday the child was kept under the influence of chloroform about four hours, while Drs. W. F. and Belle Anderson worked to remove the obstruction. Their efforts were unavailing, however, and this morning the child was again put under the influence of chloroform, and for two hours the same doctors labored to remove the glass, still without success.

The child's father is absent from home, but has been sent for. On his return a consultation of surgeons will be held to determine whether to cut into the structures of the head around the ear, in order to remove the piece of glass, or let it remain where it is. The child does not seem to suffer much pain, and yesterday afternoon was around at play.

Gone to the Bad.—During the greater part of the time for nearly a year past, the firm of D. J. Williams & Co., of Price, Emery County, have had in their employment a man named C. Halvorsen, a native of Denmark, who, however has lived in different places in this Territory for many years. He was a man of more than average intelligence, and was quite prominent and very generally respected in the community in which he resided. Since he removed to Price he has been in straightened, almost destitute circumstances, and Williams & Company have given him employment, more out of sympathy and respect than because he was really a valuable hand.

Recently the firm reluctantly began to suspect him of stealing goods and money from the store, and yesterday had a search warrant issued, resulting, as we learn by private advices, in the recovery of several hundred dollars worth of goods which he had stolen. He was held in $2,000 bonds to await the action of the grand jury on a charge of grand larceny.

The fall of Halvorsen from the standing of an honest man, respected by his neighbors and fellow citizens, to the low level of a thief and robber of his friends and benefactors, has produced a profound sensation throughout Emery County.

Laid to Rest.—The obsequies of the late Elder E. T. Mumford were held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Beattie, in the Twelfth Ward, at four o'clock yesterday afternoon, (July 14th.) A large number of the relatives and friends of the family were present. The services were conducted by Bishop O. F. Whitney, who also offered the opening prayer. Appropriate discourses were delivered by Elder John Nicholson and Bishop Whitney, and the benediction was pronounced by Elder Robert Campbell. The singing exercises were rendered by a select choir, led by Brother Geo. D. Pyper.

Deceased was born June 27th, 1808, in Luois County, N. Y.

He removed from there in 1818 to Chautauqua County, in the same State. He resided with his parents till he was of age, and at the age of 23 years married Hannah C. Crosby, the issue of said marriage being two daughters and one son.

He embraced the Gospel about the year 1836 and journeyed to Nauvoo in 1840, and came to Utah in 1849. In May, 1856 he was one of a number called to settle at Fort Supply, near Fort Bridger, and remained there a year and a half, returning to Salt Lake valley on the approach of Johnson's army. In 1868 he went to the Missouri river as captain of a company to bring the immigrating Saints to Utah. He resided in this city until two years ago, since which time he lived in Pleasant Grove, Utah County, where he died. He leaves a wife, living in Pleasant Grove, a daughter, Mrs. M. T. Beattie, of this city, and numerous grandchildren.

College Circular.—We are in receipt of the circular which ushers in the ninth collegiate year of the Brigham Young College of Logan. The circular gives the courses of study, rates of tuition, board, etc. The curriculum is extensive and the charges for tuition and board are very moderate.

The present collegiate year is divided into three terms of twelve weeks each. The Fall Term commences September 15th, the Winter Term on December 6th, the Spring Term on the 7th of March. There will be a vacation from December 24th to January 3rd.

The Brigham Young College should for very many reasons, be generously patronized by the Latter-day Saints. It is one of the very few educational institutions in existence in which the true science of theology is taught, and this fact alone should fill it with pupils, the children of the Saints, to its utmost capacity. The college buildings are commodious, the grounds and surroundings are beautiful, retired and attractive; the instructors competent, faithful, diligent and affectionate towards their pupils; the dormitories home-like in their comfort, and the influences which surround the pupils are of the best and most wholesome character. We heartily and earnestly wish the College success. Full information may be obtained by addressing J. E. Price, secretary, at Logan.

Examination of the Lynchers.—We went to press yesterday afternoon while the examination of nine men, charged with participating in the lynching of Joseph Fisher at Eureka, July 6, was in progress, and while A. G. Sutherland, the attorney of Provo, was on the stand.

This witness was in Eureka on the day of the lynching. Was in the saloon where O'Connor's body lay. Mrs. O'Connor was frantic, and asked what they were going to do with the man who had killed her son. Heard old man O'Connor say he ought to be killed. Heard many men in the crowd talk about lynching, but could not identify them. Went to the jail as Fisher's counsel. He was wounded in the breast, and a bruise was over his eye. I was afraid of violence towards Fisher. A number of men were sent to help guard the jail. About dark a crowd of men marched to the jail; did not recognize any of them; I went up to the jail; some one threw a rope which dropped at my feet; old man O'Connor told me to go; said his boy had been killed and it was now a life for a life. A crowd of men surrounded the jail; pistol shots were fired and some men rushed up the hill. I heard yells for some one to give up the keys; I was afraid they had shot Stanley; everything then became more quiet.

Here witness was excused. Mr. Dickson stated to the court that he had to go to Ogden, and asked to have the examination continued until Saturday, which was ordered, 11 a. m. being the hour fixed. A number of witnesses who had been summoned from a distance and were without means to pay their expenses, would have been placed in a dilemma, but attachments were served upon them so that the Marshal could legally become responsible for their board, and they were taken to the Valley House.

AN OPPRESSIVE PROCEEDING.

THE SUIT AGAINST S. S. JONES UNJUST AND TYRANNICAL.

To-day a representative of the News had a conversation with S. S. Jones, Esq., of Provo, who has been sued by the government for $48,000 for alleged violations of the timber laws.

The complaint alleges that he has consumed a certain number of cords of firewood, which is valued at $6 per cord. This wood is nearly all dead pinon pine, and has been used by Mr. Jones in burning charcoal in Spanish Fork Canyon, for mining purposes. The price put on it by the government is double what haulers will deliver it for at the kilns. The wood item figures up to about $37,000.

Cedar posts are rated in the complaint at 15 cents each, lumber at its full value, viz., $18 per thousand feet, and railroad ties at their full value. The government depends for its knowledge concerning the quantities of all of these, that Mr. Jones has cut or manufactured, upon information furnished the Interior Department by agents who have compiled reports upon evidence, the character of which is known only to the agents. It is said that the nature of these reports can be, and in the past has been, very materially affected by the judicious use of money, and that, had Mr. Jones so preferred, he could have escaped being sued.

Concerning the main item, which is for firewood, Mr. Jones is confident of making a successful defense, as it was used in the manufacture of charcoal for mining purposes. He proposes to make a strong fight, and has engaged several attorneys of Provo to conduct the defense.

OUR OGDEN LETTER.

OGDEN CITY, Utah.

July 15th, 1886.

Editor Deseret News:

At 10 o'clock this morning the FIRST DISTRICT COURT was opened in the usual manner. The court room was crowded with spectators. Judge Zane, Prosecuting Attorney Dickson and others from Salt Lake were in attendance. The bar was well represented by legal luminaries. The reading of the minutes of the previous proceedings occupied considerable time, and were signed by his honor O. W. Powers. He then made an order that Hon. C. S. Zane, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Utah, preside. His honor then called the case of the PEOPLE VS A. C. GREENWELL.

Mr. Kimball, of counsel for the defense, stated that defendant was sick. He was too ill to be in attendance this morning. Dr. O. B. Adams was sworn and testified that Mr. Greenwell was too indisposed to be present to-day. Counsel also stated that Dr. A. S. Condou would corroborate the statement of Dr. Adams. The consideration of this case was then postponed until next Tuesday morning, at 10 o'clock. The witnesses were excused till that day.

This was a great disappointment to the large audience who had assembled in anticipation of a sensational feast. The disease with which defendant is afflicted is superinduced by too freely imbibing intoxicants. His counsel, I am informed, cautioned their client specially to abstain from drinking, and to be sober on this occasion. After the above announcement the court adjourned till 2 p. m.

Nothing of importance or of interest was done in the court after the postponement of the Greenwell case, except the issuing of an order for an open venire for thirty persons from whom to select a petit jury on Tuesday next. The officers were also to inform the persons summoned that if, after they are summoned, they talk about this case and it comes to the knowledge of the court, they will be punished for contempt.

This evening the regular monthly meeting of the

of the Weber Stake was held in the Second Ward meeting house. There was a good attendance on the occasion. The proceedings were called to order by Supt. K. Ballantyne. The Second Ward school furnished the choir music. The exercises were opened by singing—

Our Mountain Home so Dear.

Prayer was offered by Elder R. Dye, which was followed by singing—

"Around the throne of God."

Superintendent Tillotson delivered an address in which he gave an

of the Sunday Schools in Utah. He referred to the very small beginning of this excellent and important institution, and traced the progress from that time until it has reached its present mammoth proportions, and spoke at some length of the influence that it now wields for the good and elevating of the youth of this community. From a few members, in an isolated place it has extended to all the wards and settlements in these valleys, and its numerical strength is about 48,000 pupils and 8,000 teachers and officers, making about 56,000 in all, and which number is as time rolls on, notwithstanding the exertions of our enemies to prevent its growth.

The sketch was followed by songs and appropriate addresses by Supts. A. C. Brown and R. Ballantyne, and closed by the choir singing:

"When shall we Meet Thee."

Supt. Peter Later pronounced the benediction.

It is both pleasing, and cause for much gratitude to witness the growth of the Sunday Schools among this people, and the care and solicitude with which they are fostered by the Stake and Ward authorities, who show an ever ready willingness to sustain and strengthen the hands of those who have charge of these home institutions.

THE HOME MISSIONARIES,

also, take much pleasure in visiting these schools wherever their appointments may be on the Sabbath day, and speaking a word of encouragement to the teachers and pupils, and to assist by such suggestions as they may be led to offer, in impressing on the minds of the children the importance of acquiring a knowledge of the Word and Work of God, that as they increase in years they may become well grounded in the truths of the scriptures, obedience to which will make them "wise unto salvation."

God bless our Sunday Schools.
