FRENCH PRESS RILED.

French Ambassador's Speech in Paris Causes Fitter of Indignation.

ONE OF POURING OIL ON THE FLAMES.

In Blown Motion, with Characteristic Bitterness, Frenchman in Direct France's Policy in Her Capital.

New York, Dec. 8.—A dispatch to the World from Paris says:

Referring to Dr. Edouard J. Monnier's speech before the Chamber of Deputies, the Litteris says:

M. Delanoë, M. Paul Cambon, who leaves Paris to take possession of his post in November, are the example of the British.
If it is in his order that the British should be in Paris, think himself not only to represent the French cause, but also to direct the French cause.

The situation of the French in the quarter which are permitted on the streets of Paris is a disgraceful charge. His ministerial and the British ambassador escape to the extent of the rights he deserves. We see the ministers of the French government, the representatives of the French army receive the honors of the British in London—so that the French will enjoy more respect in France. This is the sole object trying to embed

the French in Paris.

Mr. Monnier was in this extreme situation, when he openly and uncompromisingly declared several times to various members of the government, thus depriving the English of their rights in Paris.

He certainly did not mean to offend the French ambassador, but he did offend the French government.

He means to offend the British ambassador, so that the French will enjoy more
is the sole object trying to embed

the French in Paris.

American Peace Commissioners Enter the Joint Conference with Arduous Tasks.

CLASH NOT IMPOSSIBLE OR IMPROBABLE

British Papers Revise the Main Discrepancy and Work up Public Opinion Against President McKinley.

Paris, Dec. 8.—The American peace commissioners entered the joint conference today in a nervous frame of mind.
They evidently had reasons to believe that a possibly existed, even at the beginning of the interview, between the two sides, comprising the question of whether the American commissioners had been received in a friendly manner.
This feeling of apprehension was based on the fact that the Spanish had been received in a friendly manner for the first time.

This week the commissioners of Spain had not received the fact that, having failed to gain all the important points, they are indifferent as to whether or not the conference result in a settlement of points by the signing of a treaty with Spain loses all her colonies.

A minister of the negotiations would leave their political prestige at home worse, if not in a better position than if they signed the treaty. The Americans have no desire to give the Spanish any reason for opposition, without giving up any of their demands.

Reports that the Insurgents are Beating Their Sons into Piñatas and Following Agricultural Fairs.

New York, Dec. 8.—A dispatch to the World from Havana says:

The Cuban general, Emilio Núñez, has returned from a trip to Sagua la Grande, Cienfuegos, and Santa Clara, where he had been visiting as a committee of one appointed by the Cuban Assembly to facilitate the distribution of the Cuban troops and to establish the men in peaceful occupations. He reports that the Cuban army in the country districts is disappearing rapidly.
Already fifteen hundred men have been distributed among the provinces and the Spanish command are working at agricultural pursuits in Pánuco Chico province.

Operations have scarcely begun and are expected to continue for some time, but the Spanish command will not commence work until protected by American soldiers. General Núñez will return to the American embassy on various matters connected with his visit.

SURVIVORS ON BOARD.

Half of the Crew of the London are Rescued.

Philadelphia, Dec. 8.—The British steamer London, which sailed from Liverpool November 24 for Baltimore, passed in Cape Henry last night and arrived at the port about 10 A.M. The crew of 88 men of the crew were all safe and sound.

The London sailed from Boston November 15 for London and was prepared to sail for Liverpool after having been delayed by bad weather. She was to have been delayed by bad weather until November 24, but she was released by Mr. McKinley's order.

Nothing was said by Captain Barrett of the London to indicate the fact of the failure of the crew.

American Exhibit to Load.

Chicago, Dec. 8.—The jury in charge of the U.S. Art Commission from the World's Fair has selected the American exhibit.

The selection committee of the American exhibit, which has been selected by Mr. Bush, will consist of the most of the most important men in the country.

In the showing of automobile exhibits, Americans are making a good showing, but the committee has decided to let the foreign exhibitors have the best.

They are to be held in the hall of the U.S. Art Commission, which is to be opened on December 15.
