The Railroad War—Bad Management.

CHICAGO, 26.—A Madison, Wis., special, says the railroad commissioners have received a letter from Hammond station, complaining that a west Wisconsin railroad conductor having been arrested for taking illegal passenger rates, the railroad company, to take revenge upon the place, which is a village of some 1,500 people, shipping and receiving a large amount of freight, have got up a new time-table and run by it without stopping, and threaten to do worse. The reply was made by the railroad commissioners that they had no power in the premises, but refer them to the Governor and Attorney General, who would undoubtedly take the proper measures in the case, if the facts were verified and the violation of the law was persisted in.

The application of the Chicago and North-Western railroad bondholders to the U. S. court for an injunction against the Attorney General in prosecuting suits against the company under the State law has been postponed until next week, owing to the detention of Judge Drummond at Springfield.

The Toronto Globe publishes a cable dispatch from its London correspondent, which says the Great Western investigation committee report, just published, condemns the present management. It enumerates cases of careless administration, lavish and reckless expenditure, etc. The past has been one of serious error in the policy of uncontrolled expenditure and extravagance, without check or limitation. The road is described as well nigh financially ruined, and as a chaos of departmental confusion, laxity and waste. The committee recommends the complete reorganization of the board.

Repudiation.

NEW YORK, 26.—A Havana letter, dated June 20, says the prospects are that a general repudiation of the bills of the Spanish Bank will take effect next week. Several manufacturers have notified their customers that after next week they will not receive paper money, but will demand gold and silver. If this should really take place and become general, there would be many failures.

More about Tilton and Beecher—What the Press says—Beecher won't Speak.

Shearman, clerk of Beecher's church, calls attention to the fact that in Tilton's renewed scandal publication there is no definite charge of any kind, but only insinuations and inferences. Tilton had been told repeatedly that if he would make a direct charge it would be investigated, whether made against the pastor or any member of Plymouth Church. Shearman says, in nearly all the allegations of Tilton there is more or less untruth. This is the case in the passages referring to him, and in one or two instances of which he was cognizant of those referring to Beecher, the falsehood is so ingeniously interwoven with the truth as to render it difficult to separate them, except by an explanation of all the circumstances connected with the incident. The effect was, however, in each case to distort and warp the truth to suit Tilton's purpose. He and other officers of the church had received an explanation in part of the matters at issue and they were fully satisfied that Mr. Beecher was innocent. Their faith in him was not in the least degree shaken.

The Tribune editorially says, if Beecher should simply deny the truth of Tilton's somewhat vague allegation and explain the document to which his name is attached, he would find the community among whom he has labored with such distinguished success disposed to side with him against all assailants. Tilton has much to say of the reticence he has hetherto observed. We shall be greatly surprised if he does not soon regret that he did not observe it longer.

The World says the members of the church seem to have reached the conclusion that the charges in the letters are old, supported by facts which have been long known to those acquainted with the whole subject and fully capable of an explanation exonerating Beecher.

Shearman denied that the extract which appears in the letter in the former part of the confession was in Beecher's handwriting.

Associate Pastor Halliday says there is nothing in Tilton's letter to shake his confidence in Beecher, nor did he think the church would consider it necessary to take any action in the matter. Tilton had an opportunity to prefer charges and had not done so. It would take a good many letters like this to shake the confidence which people had in their pastor. Halliday expressed himself as very glad the letter had been published. The worst had been said now, and all suspense was at an end.

The World editorially says of Tilton's letter, "We are sure no high spirited and honorable man can have risen from the perusal of it without feelings of unlimited contempt for its author. That is a matter of small consequence. We fear that not a few may have risen from the perusal with feelings akin to scorn for the pretensions of the religion of which its author represents simply as a disciple."

Again, "Tilton now revives, without proving, all the imputations upon the character in the first place of his own wife, and in the second place of Beecher, which were originally made public on his authority, by the infamous woman whose biography he wrote and which, with an inconsistency simply amazing, he even now renounces as a wicked and baseless slander. To give these imputations, deprived by himself of all color of reason, some shadow of probability, he garbles not a letter, but an alleged extract from a letter, written by Beecher to himself more than three years ago! Even such an extract, nothing whatever can be fairly inferred for or against the writer, but becomes in the case as Tilton's so infer-ential, suppose the case were published, could not exculpate in such a condition from a fellow gentleman written with the fairest feelings."

Chadwick has published a card in which he says: "Among what I have said to Tilton, I have never said to him that I would pursue, in view of the present statement by Tilton, says, "he will not break the silence he has hitherto observed."

Beecher Has no Time, but will Speak if Pushed.

Mr. Beecher was present at the weekly prayer meeting in Plymouth church this evening. The proceedings were as usual of a devotional character. No reference whatever was made to the Tilton letter. After meeting Beecher, in conversation with a reporter, said he had at present no intention of saying anything in reply to the recent statement. He had a large pastorate under his charge and had no time for personal controversies. If, however, the examiners of the Plymouth church should decide it would be well for him to speak out in regard to the recent letter, he would do so without hesitation.

Fire—Attempt to Poison.

Edward Smith & Co's varnish works at Hunter's Point were burned this afternoon; loss $40,000, insurance slight.

Sarah Jane Reeves, a colored girl, ten years old, employed in the family of Mr. Miller Crawford, of New Jersey, yesterday attempted to poison the whole family by putting creosote in the coffee. She was arrested and confined in Elizabeth jail. She says the deed was prompted by the harsh treatment of her employer and expresses no contrition.

J. B. Underwood, formerly Mayor of Waverly, shot himself yesterday, to avoid arrest for forgery, on indictments made in the U. S. court last fall.

BOSTON, 26.—Governor Talbot today vetoed the license law recently passed by the legislature.

Shooting Affray.

MEMPHIS, 26.—A shooting affray between Burke, editor of the World, and Caoety, editor of the Independent, Helena, Ark., occurred this morning. Half a dozen shots were exchanged without damage. The affair resulted from libellous articles in those papers.

Blown to Atoms.

TITUSVILLE, Pa., 26.—John Tosborn was blown to atoms this morning, near Parker City, by the explosion of a hundred pounds of nitro-glycerine he was transporting in a wagon.

Reclaiming Mississippi Bottom—The Postmaster Generalship.

WASHINGTON, 26.—The board to report a plan for the permanent reclamation of the alluvial basin of the Mississippi river will probably consist of Generals Warren and H. L. Abbott, Major Benguard, U. S. engineers. The civil engineers are ex-Governor Herbert, of Louisiana, and Gen. Sickles, of Arkansas. The exigencies of the service may change the army engineers, but the civil engineers are fixed.

Cresswell is making arrangements to retire from office next week. Hale has not yet signified to the President his acceptance of the Postmaster Generalship. Cresswell, in conversation with friends to-day, said the report of his prospective appointment to the Austrian mission was groundless.

Declined Office.

It is reported to-night that Cattell and Blow declined appointments to be commissioners for this district.

Postage between U. S. and France—McCook Sworn in.

The charge for letters from France to the United States will be ten cents for a third of an ounce; from the U. S. to France, nine cents per half ounce. Unpaid letters pay the above rates with five cents additional. Postage on books, newspapers, samples, &c., to be hereafter separately arranged by each country.

Gen. McCook to-day, received his commission and was sworn in as Governor of Colorado. He will reach Denver the first of July and enter upon his duties.

Won't Run.

WORCESTER.—Mr. George F. Hoar has determined not to run for Congress or any other office next fall.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Vendome Column—Italy and Germany.

LONDON, 26.—A special correspondent at Paris reports that Courbet's property has been sequestrated, but the proceeds cannot be sufficient to defray the expenses of the re-erection of the Vendome column.

The Times Paris letter affirms that Italy's toleration of the Ultramontaine party will impair her relations with Germany.

Reform in Egypt—Public Worship Bill—Howard Staunton Dead—The Brazilian Cable.

In the House of Commons today Captain Bailey Cochrane moved a resolution favoring the interference of the government for judicial reform in Egypt, because England was deeply interested in the unimpeded navigation of the Suez Canal.

Bourke, under foreign secretary, stated that the chief obstacle of such reform was France, who hesitated to abandon her position acquired in Egypt. If she persisted in her refusal to conform with the views of other powers, the only course which remained for them would be to act without her.

The opponents of the public worship regulation bill, which passed the House of Lords last night, declare that it is useless and dangerous, that it affects questions of doctrine unfavorably, attacks ritualists unfairly, and jeopardizes the union of church and State. The Marquis of Salisbury, secretary for India, and other Tories opposed the measure, and it is understood that they will appeal to the House of Commons to reject it. The bill compels the present compromise ecclesiastical courts so as to enable them to take speedy cognizance of new ceremonies.

Howard Staunton, the well known chessplayer and Shakespearian editor, died today, aged 64.

Queen Victoria and the Emperor of Brazil exchanged congratulatory messages upon the successful laying of the Brazilian Cable.

FRANCE.

Indemnity to War Sufferers—Vendome Column—Imperialists and Bonapartists Visited—Increase of Tax Rejected.

PARIS, 26.—At the sitting of the committee of thirty to-day Tallon, of the Right Centre, proposed an extension of President MacMahon's term of office to ten years and the appointment of a Vice-President. Dufaure opposed the project. No vote taken.

The Assembly to-day passed a bill granting twenty-six millions of francs indemnity to the sufferers by the late war.

M. Courbet, an artist has been condemned to pay the cost of the reconstruction of the Vendome column.

Domiciliary visits have been made by the police to the offices of imperialist journals and to the residences of prominent Bonapartists. Important documents have been seized.

The budget committee have rejected the bill submitted by Mayne, minister of finance, providing for an increase of direct taxation, and have declared in favor of reducing the payment of the Bank of France.

ITALY.

The Pope and the Romans.

ROME.—The Pope to-day, on receiving a deputation from the Roman nobility, said, the demonstration of Sunday last was a spontaneous and magnificent act of the people. The counter demonstration of Wednesday was the impious and miserable work of the sons of darkness. The Pope added he had received letters urging him to quit Rome because his person was not safe, but he declared that he would remain as long as God permitted.

WEST INDIES.

A Five per Cent. Tax.

HAVANA.—An address, signed by business men, has been issued and presented to Captain General Concha, asking a remedy for financial difficulties by the imposition of a five per cent. landed property tax, payable quarterly for two years.
