

THE TWENTY-FOURTH IN THE SETTLEMENTS.

Brigham.

The Sabbath schools and many citizens from the different parts of Box Elder county, assembled at Brigham City. The schools numbering upwards of 800 scholars met at the southern part of the city, and were escorted to the large bower, recently erected west of the Court House, by the brass and martial bands of this city. At 10 a.m. the services commenced, consisting of singing by the brass and martial bands, music by the bands, speeches by the superintendent of Sabbath schools, Pres. Lorenzo Snow and others.

In the afternoon various games were indulged in by the youth of both sexes, and in the evening they had the choice of either participating in the dance, or witnessing the performance of "Temptation" and "Handy Andy" at the Court House. The day passed off pleasantly, and, as was remarked by some of the speakers, "many felt like shouting for joy" that the day had come when such vast assemblies of the "children of the Saints" would meet together.

We celebrated the 24th with earnestness. At day-break a salute from the minute men, and music from Capt. Osborn's martial band. At sunrise the stars and stripes were raised.

At ten o'clock the people assembled at the schoolhouse. The jubilee commenced about half past ten o'clock by the Sunday school choir, led by James H. Jenkins. The songs were selected from the Jewish Instructor and the Chorus. There were an oration by G. B. Higginson, speeches by Bishop Wm. Price, John Rouse, and Bobt. Price, an address by Master Charles Hanson, with songs, and pieces from some of the teachers and children.

In the afternoon the children enjoyed themselves in the dance. There was also a well attended dance in the evening for adults, the proceeds for the benefit of the Sunday school.

At sunrise this morning silence was broken by a volley of twenty-four guns.

The people assembled at the schoolhouse at nine o'clock a.m. formed a procession, and marched to martial music through the principal streets then back to the schoolhouse in the following manner: twelve fathers of Israel, twelve mothers of Israel, twelve daughters of Zion dressed in white, and twelve sons of Zion, the citizens and Sunday school children following in line.

The services consisted of an oration by James H. Hart, George Osmond read an address in behalf of the daughters of Zion. John Walker spoke in behalf of the fathers of Israel, Christian Madsen in behalf of the sons of Zion, Sister Jarvis in behalf of the mothers of Israel. A number of letters were given.

At two o'clock all were seated at tables, spread with viands, including strawberries, sugar, and cream.

At four o'clock the dance opened for the small children, and in the evening for larger children and parents.

All was joy, peace, and unity. The whole was gotten up under the auspices of the Relief Society.
