PAYETTE IMPROVEMENTS. Connection Made With the New O. S L. Feeder in Idaho.

The 80 men employed by the Oregon Short Line in laying side-tracks in the Payette railroad yards is rapidly bring-ing that work to completion. A mile and a quarter of new tracks is being put in and this week all the grading will be done and probably all the rails spiked, with the exception of the spur for the connection with the Payette Valley railroad, and a change which will be made in the spur extending to the cannery. With the new tracks the switching room in the yard will be more than doubled. One of the new tracks extends a quarter of a mile or more on the east side of the depot, widening the yard considerably. There are also shorter sidetracks on that side of the The remaining trackage is depot. being built on the west side

COMMITTEE MEETING.

Call Expected for Republicans This Afternoon to Select Chairman.

A call for a meeting of the Republican state committee is scheduled for this afternoon, though details of the same were not obtainable up to press time. When hot obtainable up to press time, when the committee meets, one of the principal matters to receive attention will be the selection of a new state chairman to suc-ceed William Spry, who will tender his resignation on that occasion. Who will be chosen is a subject of much conjecture. Hon, James T. Hammond, and Hon. Stephen H. Love are two of the men most talked of for the chairmanship.

TROUBLES OF DURRAND.

Another Petition for Writ of Prohibition Against Murray Justice.

Another petition for a writ of prohibition against Justice of the Peace C. F. Durand of Murray, was filed in the district court today. The peti-tioners are E. W. Taylor and wife and they allege that Francis G. Luke filed suft against them in Durand's court to recover money alleged to be due A. W. Hodgert. They objected to the jurisdiction of the court and moved to dismiss the case. The objection and motion motion were denied by the court. I is now asked that Justice Durand b prohibited from taking any further proceedings in the case for the reason that he has no jurisdiction over the parties to the action, none of whom were or are now residents of Murray precinct, nor has he jurisdiction of the subject matter of the action,

Jessie D. Stephens Files Action to Recover Sum of $1,000.

The Pacific Mutual Life Insurance ompany was made defendant in a suit filed in the district court today by Jessie D, Stephens to recover the sum of $1,000 on an insurance policy held in said company by her husband, William F. Stephens, who died on July 7, 1906. Mr. Stephens was a conductor and brakeman in the employ of the San Pedro and at the time he applied for insurance he gave his occupation cor-rectly and the company issued the policy and accepted the premiums paid by him. After his death, however, it is alleged that the company refused to pay the policy for the reason that Stephens was engaged in a prohibited occupation. Plaintiff claims that the company, by accepting the application for insurance and accepting the pre miums paid by Stephens, and well knowing his occupation, is now estopped from setting up the claim that Stephens was engaged in a prohibited occupation and hence the pany is not liable for the policy. Judg-ment is therefore asked for the $1,000 with interest from July 7, 1906.

RUSSIAN ELECTION.

Intention of Government to Participate In Electoral Campaign.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 11 .- Another inlication of the determination of the administration to participate in the electoral campaign is furnished by an order of the minister of the interior to the police throughout the empire to make reports as speedily as possible on all the political parties in their dis-tricts, their strength, organization, membership, activity and press organs. Count Heydon today contributes to the controversy over the failure of imself and his friends to enter the ministry, an open letter declaring that they insisted on being given at least five places in the cabinet in order to have a prependerance, but that they were obliged to refuse the two places finally offered as this would have made them a negligible quality.

Action Filed Against the National Homeseckers' Association.

I. Lederer filed an action in the district court today against the National Homeseekers' association and Harold N. Fletcher asking that a receiver be appointed to take charge of the proper-ty of defendants. It is claimed that the association is unable to meet its debts and that a receiver has already been appointed of its property in Colorado. Plaintiff alleges that he holds a contract in said association upon which he and his assignor have paid $160.88, with the understanding that the association would, upon the performance of certain conditions, place him in possession of either a farm or residence of the value of $1.000. The defendants, it is alleged, however, are unable to meet their obligations, and hence judgment is asked for the amount paid in by plaintiff and also that a receiver be appointed. - A receiver was appointed in the person of Wind Broke Glass-The wind that sprung up at noon today, did con-siderable damage in office buildings by slamming doors and shattering the glass panels therein. The door of the "See America First" offices is among the wrecks, with its large glass panel whereon were painted the names of the directors and heart to heart invitation to see America first and then die before going to Europe.

White Will Preside-J. G. White former secretary of the University of California, will be educational director of the Y. M. C. A. for the coming 10 months, as Prof. R. C. French was obliged, in accordance with a previous contract, to return to the presidency of the Oregon Stata Normal school After the completion of this contract, Prof. French will resume his former position as educational director with the Y. M. C. A. in this city.

Building Completed-The large three story Wilfley building on Pier-pont street, has been completed, and part of it is now occupied. It is the first business structure of any size in the city to be constructed of artificial and will always be of special stone interest in construction circles on that account. It is a good looking building. Architects are now urging re-inforced concrete construction for walls and front elevations of build-ings instead of stone and brick. They claim it is a great deal stronger than stone, and can be made to look just as well

Complained of Trees-The first complaints issued for violation of the hor-ifcultural laws of the county were is-Such by Asst. County Atty. Hanson to-day at the request of County Horti-cultural Inspector John P. Sorenson. The complaints are against Mrs. Agnes McEwan, 812 east First South, and Mrs. Hannah Lyndberg, 656 east First South. It is alleged that the defend-south are maintaining a south. ants are maintaining a public nuisance by having on their premises diseased by having on their premises diseased fruit irees and refusing to either spray them as required by law or remove them. The trees complained of are being killed by the codling moth and woolly aphis and Inspector Sorenson has notified the owners of them a number of times to remove the dead and discard trees but they have fail. and diseased trees, but they have fail-ed to pay any attention to the notice hence it was decided to prosecute them. The complaints were filed in
