

FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

We are pleased to learn that Elder Knutson's health is improving.

Now that Wagner is dead, symptoms of apprehension of his compositions are becoming strong.

The case of Belle Harris, implicated in the Penitentiary for refusing to answer a dual question put by the grand jury, will come before the Supreme Court on habeas corpus this week.

Brother James H. Wallis looked unusually happy this morning. The reason is obvious. Mrs. W. presented him with a fine daughter yesterday. Mother and child are doing well.

We are of opinion that in course of time Mr. Louis Adams, of the Barrett company, will have a high reputation second to few professionals on the American stage. He possesses many of the elements of a great actor.

A roll of manuscript containing the play "The Hurricane" was lost in the 20th Ward in front of the residence of Mr. James Sharp on Saturday afternoon. The finder will offer a great favor by leaving the same at the News office.

The engagement of Mr. Lawrence Barrett and his company, which concluded on Saturday night, was one of the most successful ever played here. It showed that the people of Utah know how to appreciate the legitimate drama.

In the two-mile race between Oswald and Hodges on Saturday afternoon, the former was the winner—time 12:14 minutes. As the runners were rather unequally matched the race was not as interesting as it would otherwise have been.

On Saturday night, after the conclusion of the concert performance at the Lyceum, Theodore Thomas, Miss Emma Thurston, Miss Belle Cole and others of the distinguished musical company were hospitably entertained at the residence of May-Jennings.

This afternoon we received a pleasant call from F. C. Nimmo, Esq., General Passenger Agent of the D. & R. G.; also from E. A. Mudgett, Ticket Agent for this city of the same line. The latter gentleman will, we understand, succeed Mr. Lamborn, who has tendered his resignation, as he intends returning to his home in Pennsylvania.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Sunday School Concert.—A concert will be given in the Sixth Ward Assembly Hall, on Wednesday evening next, to raise funds for the purchase of books for the Sunday School.

Personal.—We had a pleasant call on Saturday evening, from Mr. V. M. Cline, of Denver, Colorado. He is a live business man and has opened up commercial interest in this Territory that will, we have no doubt, be of benefit both to Utah and Colorado.

Seventies' General Meeting.—Notice is hereby given that the Seventies will meet at the Council House on Wednesday, the 20th inst., at 7:30 o'clock.

Robert Campbell, Clerk of First Council of Seventies, Salt Lake City, June 19th, 1893.

Case of Belle Harris.—In the Supreme Court of the Territory, which met today, Mr. S. A. Kenner made application for a writ of habeas corpus in the case of Belle Harris. The writ was granted and the hearing set for 12 o'clock on Friday next.

The Hopt Murder Case.—This afternoon, in the Supreme Court, the arguments on the motion for a new trial, in the case of Fred Hopt, on appeal from the District Court, were in progress. Mr. Lee Sharp appearing for the defense and District Attorney Van Zile for the people.

Well Under an Opera House.—The Labor Opera House, in Denver, is going to have its own waterworks. An artesian well has been bored under the building and water, which flows out of the opening, was struck at 315 feet. Bore holes are being taken to bore a similar well under the Court House of that city.

Bishop Harrington's Condition.—We received the following special to the News this afternoon from American Fork:

The condition of Bishop L. E. Harrington at present is very low. He had a relapse on Thursday, from which he has not quite recovered as yet. But we have the best hopes for his recovery. The indications are in his favor.

Gone South.—Yesterday morning President John Taylor and George Q. Cannon, Elder F. M. Lyman, of the Quorum of the Twelve, and Elder George Reynolds left for the south. After holding meeting at Nephri and Beaver and Iron Counties, and meeting with the people at a number of the settlements.

Tourists from Illinois.—This morning we had the pleasure of a call from the following party of tourists, from Bloomington, Illinois:

Thos. Slade, Prof. Albert Stetson and wife, Prof. Thos. Metcalf, Dr. Suddath, Miss H. E. Dunn, Mrs. A. Guthrie, Miss Ella Dodge, Geo. W. Price and wife, Geo. W. Lichen, Mr. Rice, Chas. Overman and wife, John Bowers and wife, Gen. I. J. Bloomfield, A. W. Locke, A. W. Oils, David Smith, E. R. Brown and wife, E. R. Evans, E. R. Peabody, R. W. London, and Dr. G. F. Nevins.

A Delightful Entertainment.—On the evening of June 22, at the Salt Lake Theatre, we are promised an exceedingly attractive entertainment by local performers. It will consist of the beautiful Operetta "Lalla," to be rendered by children trained for the occasion. There will also be a mixed programme, consisting of recitations, songs and dances. The costumes and scenery will all be of the most artistic description. The entertainment will be under the direction of Miss Julia Thomas and Miss Kelly. Reserved seats 50 cents and 25 cents.

AN INTERESTING TRIP.
THE LAMANTHS IMPROVING RELIEF SOCIETY NEWS—SILK INDUSTRY.

By courtesy of Sister E. R. Snow Smith we are enabled to present the following details of a late trip by that estimable lady through a portion of Northern Utah:

"On the morning of the 14th of May I took train and went to Brigham City for an 'out,' and for an indefinite time. On the 15th inst. in company of my brother, Lorenzo Snow, and his son Alphonso, recently returned from a Southern mission, I went by carriage to Washington, known as 'The Indian Farm,' in Box Elder County, about 40 miles from Brigham City, and arrived at Bishop Zundel's before night.

On our way we called, and were very cordially received and hospitably entertained, at the residence of Bro. and Sister Standing, the parents of the brave young missionary who was brutally murdered in Georgia.

The next day being Sunday, at 10 o'clock, we all went to Sunday school, which was conducted by Elder Moroni Ward. A few white children were in attendance, but the school consisted mostly of, not only red children of small growth, but full grown men and women, all seeming in earnest to learn as fast as possible. I listened to each class separately, and while I was deeply struck with surprise with the progress of the scholars, I felt no less admiration for the untiring patience and perseverance of the teachers. By special address the school for a short time, Bishop Zundel interpreting to those that did not fully understand.

After the service we attended meeting. After the sacrament was administered my brother preached a short and interesting discourse, after which Bishop Zundel presided. He called attention to Sister Elizabeth J. Zundel, President, Sisters Melissa Hunsaker and John (Lamanite) counselors, Sister Harriet Chandler, secretary, and Almira Hall treasurer.

This time would not admit of visiting in the members of the day, but I have received a report from the secretary saying that at the next Sunday meeting 41 members were received, 35 of whom are Lamanites; several of whom expressed their gratitude in being thus organized and their desire to learn to keep house and to make clothing as their white sisters do.

One interesting feature of the services we attended, must not be overlooked, i.e., the singing, which was all performed by Lamanite choir of six males and six females. With many variations in their tunes, which are very peculiar, the perfection of their time is truly astonishing.

After the meeting was dismissed, the children were called together, and I organized a Primary Association, with the following officers: Philena H. Zundel, president; Eliza Ward and Almira Hall, counselors; Phoebe Zundel, secretary, and Hadden Ward, treasurer.

On Monday returned to Brigham City, stopping to noon in Honeyville at Bishop Hunsaker's, where a number of the brethren came in for a few minutes' sociable, and where I had the pleasure of meeting the widow of the much esteemed Brother David Grant. She is daughter of Bishop H. and is now President of the Primary Association of that Ward. I need not say that we dined sumptuously—the Bishop's hospitality is proverbial.

On the 22nd accompanied President Hunsaker and Sister Melba Jensen, in a light spring wagon, a span of horses, and a young lady driver, to Mantua; not the place where Virgil the poet was born, but where we met a live Relief Society, had a good time and returned. On the 24th, went to Willard City with the same wagon and driver, attended two meetings of Primary Conference. The children's exercises occupied most of the time—their recitations were excellent and splendidly rendered. The Bishop and other brethren were present.

On the 25th Brother M. Dudley came from Willard City, where he had been visiting. He had a very interesting story to tell of his visit to the Relief Society, and of the good time he had there. He had also a letter from the Relief Society of Willard City, which he read to the conference. The children's exercises occupied most of the time—their recitations were excellent and splendidly rendered. The Bishop and other brethren were present.
