Burglary Last Night.

Last night, between 7 and 9 o'clock, Durgin's auction and commission house on Second South Street was burglarized, and a lot of jewelry stolen. The thieves helped themselves diberally to silverplated spoons, collar and cuff buttons, rings, scarf pins, watch chains, bracelets, leckets, etc., getting away with about $300 worth of

Casualties.

A boy named Petersen, of the Fourth Ward, Logan, returned from the caffon a few days ago with his feet badly frozen. The right foot was the worst, it being so severely bitten that it is probable one half of it will have to be of the house. As soon as possible a amputated. Two toes on the left foot were badly frozen.

Logan, a boy about six years of age, was accidentally shot by a brother sev-eral years his senior. Heber was stand-ing near his brother and watching him inload a 38 caliber revolver. By some unaccountable means the weapon was discharged, the bullet striking the lit-tle fellow between two of his fingers, and passing down entered the thigh at the groin, barely missing the femoral artery; it passed through the thigh and came out four inches below on the opposite side. The boy is under Dr. Ormsby's care and is doing as well as could be expected.

Under the Doctor's Care.

Yesterday morning E. E. Hubbard and A. J. Hubbard were brought down from Pleasant Valley, Idaho The first had his right and the latter his left foot badly frozen. They had been sheveling snow at the point named. They were taken to the U.P. Hospital. It is thought that both will have to undergo amputation upon por-tions of their limbs. A Cold Flood. On Sunday morning about eight o'clock the residents in the vicinity of the Deseret Mills were startled with cries of help. Those who resided near by rushed out to see what the trouble was, when they discovered that the Little Logan had become clogged with ice, which had turned the water out of brated. The speaker desired to improve the process to the process the pro its channel, and that the cries came frem a family that resides opposite J. E. Wilson's, on the Island. ### IN INDIAN TERRITORY. Spirit of Antagonism Mani-

ested to the Preaching of

The following is taken from a letter written by Elder William T. Jack, of this city, who is now on a mission in the Indian Territory. It is dated at Tahlequah, January 6, 1888: "I am pleased to state that we are all well here; returned to this place on December 30, from my first trip. We have been absent nearly seven weeks, and in our travels among the people have made many good friends, some of whom are investigating the doctrines of the Gospel and may in the due time of the Lord embrace the truth. On some occasions we have had the same opposition to encounter that has always stoed in the way of truth, but upon all occasions we have realized the power and goodness of the Lord in our behalf.

On Dec. 16th Elder James T. Smith "I am pleased to state that we are

On Dec. 16th Elder James T. Smith and myself set out for a settlement called Brooken, up the Canadian River, fifteen miles above the "Jew store." We arrived at our destination on the evening of Friday, and intended holding a meeting on the Bunday. On being directed to a Mr. Clay Earnest, who was one of the trustees, also a prominent merchant, and postmaster of the place, we found a very bitter enemy. He told us that we could not get the schoolhouse, and that he would use his influence against us preaching in the neighborhood. We tried to reason with him, telling him that if he, through his influence, kept us from preaching, and thereby prevented others from hearing the plan of salvation, he would be responsible for the souls of all such. He said he would shoulder all the responsibility. The other trustee did not wish to go against Mr. E., so we could not get the house. Believing that there must be some houses hearts in the place, and wishing to let them hear the sound of the Gospel, On Dec. 16th Elder James T. Smith to let them hear the sound of the Gospel, we continued our efforte, and turough the kindness of a friend we received permission to preach in a private house. This made the devil rage and bluster. A. Mr. John Sanders, a ciuzen owning five to six hundred acres of land worked by renters, sent us word that we were not to attempt to preach. If we did, he said, we would be "blackjacked," for he had a crowd already made up. He also told the man that we were stopping with that already made up. He also told the man that we were stopping with that if he kept us around, he (Sanders) would turn him off his land, as he would not rent to anybody who would keep "Mormons." These and many other threats which were made, had the effect of intimidating many of those who would have befriended us. The man in whose house we were to The man in whose house we were to preach, feared that he would injure his trade (he being a blacksmith) by let-ting us speak, so we had to cancel our appointment, and leave our stopping place; but we had the satisfaction of "flooding the settlement with tracts" and conversing with many of the peo-ple on the principles of the Gospel. In our visits we went to the home of have us preach, and his family hear our doctrines, he would shoot both of us. He also said that if we would leave the settlement he would saddle up his horses and take us out that night. We Memorial services were held in the Ward meeting-house at Almy on Sunday last, Jan. 15th, at 2 p.m., in honor of those who lost their lives (13 in all) in the explosion which took place Jan. 12th, 1886, at No. 4 mine, Almy, Wyomisg. The house was draped for the occasion. Bishop James Bowns presided. Services commenced with singing by the choir. Elder R. R. Hodson offered the opening prayer. Elder Andrew Wallwock was the first speaker. He said it was a great loss to us to part with our brethren, and especially so for their families; yet it would be selfish in us if we would detain them, for they have a mission to fulfill, and they will still work for the kingdom of God. He was pleased to be able to say their examples while upon the earth were worthy of imitation. He desired that God would bless the widows and orphans.

He attered words of consolation and advice to all connected with the dead in whose memory these services were being heid. He said the calamity of two years ago made many sad hearts two years ago made many sad hearts in these parts. He was pleased to say the examples of our brethren were evidence of their desires to do good, and should be emulated, for they were worthy of it and of the respect we were trying to show for them today. He would like to have many more speak their feelings, but it would not be wise to continue long, because it was so cold. He invoked the blessing of Good moon all present. of God upon all present.
