

DESERET EVENING NEWS.

TRUTH AND LIBERTY.

VOL. II. SALT LAKE CITY, MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 12, 1899. No. 120

BREVITIES.

New Yorkers smoke fifty millions of cigars a year.

The "best illustrated paper out"—A greenback.

Napoleon is paid $8,000,000 a year, and owes $616,000,000.

A new fashioned neck-tie for ladies is called the velocipede.

The new Boston postoffice is to cost $1,872,000.

During the Fortieth Congress 3,180 bills were introduced.

There are said to be 12,000 groggeries in the United States.

Green peas are selling in the San Francisco market for twenty-five cents per pound.

A negro boy is reported to have been adopted by a wealthy widow lady on Madison Square, New York.

A New Albany couple met, for the first time, on Saturday, and were married on the Monday following.

A harbinger of spring in the form of a man wearing a white linen coat, appeared in Montgomery, Ala., Sunday.

A second-hand set of false teeth was sold at auction in Montgomery, Ala., Monday, for seventy cents.

An Austrian author asserts that Napoleon the First had twenty-one illegitimate children, of whom five are still living.

Selections from La Belle Helene were performed by the organists of the up-town churches of New York last Sunday.

Formal wedding receptions are going out of fashion, the festivities taking the form of a dejeuner or English dinner for relatives and intimate friends.

The daughter of a Stuttgart pastry-cook, who recently married Blumark's nephew, brought him a dowry of $100,000.

A minister of Mitchell county, Ga., says that the "forbidden fruit" that Eve partook of and gave to Adam was tobacco.

Olive Logan responded to the toast, "The Gentlemen," of the Press and Sorosis banquet, in New York, Saturday evening. Olive said she didn't know anything about them.

The rite of confirmation was administered in St. Lazarus church, Memphis, on Tuesday, to Miss Fannie B. Price, the talented actress, and Miss Viola Plunkett, of the new Memphis dramatic company, among a number of others.

Grant is an advocate of "Woman's Rights" evidently. He has already appointed four women to important post-offices—at Richmond, Va.; Ravenna, Ohio; Sterling, Ill.; and West Tisbury, Mass.

The cause which has brought Mrs. Stowe's Florida plantation into the market is said to be the insecure tenure by which that lady holds it. It was confiscated during the war, bought for a song, and now the heirs of the original owners are demanding their property in the courts.

It is said, on good authority, that the new fashioned spring bonnets will be "very small, very elaborately trimmed with flowers and lace, and, as a matter of course, very expensive," which latter adjective does not carry out our idea that Dame Fashion is becoming sensible.

This is the appropriate season for transplanting trees. Nothing so much tends to adorn and beautify even ordinary looking premises as an abundance of shade trees. We hope the spring may not be allowed to pass without all the citizens of our town improving the opportunity to plant about their houses an ample supply of young and thrifty trees. It is a labor that will benefit them and their posterity. The work and expense are but little, and will be repaid a hundred fold by their beauty and fragrance.

The question of priestly celibacy has come up once more in Naples, and the right of priests to marry is now res adjudicata in Italy, outside the States of the Church. The Tribunal of Salerno forbade a young priest to take a wife, whereupon he appealed to the Neapolitan courts, and the result was in his favor. A similar decision was rendered two years ago in Genoa. It seems strange enough that just at the moment that some Anglican extremists are meditating the solitary vow, the priesthood of the older Romanist countries are throwing it overboard.

Mrs. Parlington says, "Isaac, when you enter the state of alimony I want you should choose a well informed and very voracious young person; then your posterity will be certain, and your love will be infernal."

"Well, Granny, 'peraps you won't live to see it."

"Isaac, I don't want to live much longer after the head has left my body, and when I get through with the world I shall not enjoy any more trouble."

The Washington correspondent of the Alta, February 4th, writes: "The amount of mutilated fractional currency and United States notes now being received by the Redemption Bureau of the Treasury Department for exchange, is greater than ever before, and requires the large employment of that Bureau to be at work at a much later hour than usual. Since the 29th of last month the daily amount received for redemption from all quarters has been very heavy, and seems to be increasing daily. Several hundred thousand dollars were received yesterday, and a large amount the day before. The large sums returned for redemption indicate that the original issues of United States currency are worn to an extent that interferes with its circulation."
