Press Club Show Postponed-Another Chapter in the Eviction Case of Mrs. Wertz-News Briefs.

Ogden, May 6 .- According to the figures prepared by County Assessor Edwin Dix, Ogden is richer by a half million dollars more this year than last. The report which has been made to the board of county commissioners shows an increase in property valuations of $528,528.

The county districts suffer a slight decrease, owing to the fact that the sheep which have heretofore been assessed in this county were assessed in Boxelder county. The loss by sheep reaches about $90,000, but this is cut down by the increase of $60,000 on other

DISTRESSING EVICTION.

Emma Wertz.

Emma Wertz. The case of George Terry against Mrs. Emma Wertz had a new chapter added to it yesterday when the sher-iff went to the rooming house which Mrs. Wertz rents from Terry and selzed a lot of furniture and locked it in two rooms. Before the sheriff would execute the order Terry had to put up a bond as required by the stat-utes which permits a plaintiff to take such action. The property in litiga-tion was the furniture of 14 rooms and constituted the sole support ex-istance for Mrs. Wertz and children. The first act in this drama was play-ed about two weeks ago when Terry brought suit in the police court against Mrs. Wertz making some sensational charges against her as to the nature of the lodging house she kept, but these charges fell flat as the case bore the earmarks of a wish on the part of the owner to evict the tenant. The testimony showed that Mrs. Wertz had a year's lease upon the property. City Attorney Devine asted for a diemin

The action to oust Mrs Wertz is still pending in the district court and will not come to trial for some weeks yet, but in the meantime Mrs. Wertz is left to eke out an existence in a lodg-ing house with 14 rooms which are

'MRS. ROBINSON INJURED. Mrs. Richard Robinson of Panguiten is under a doctor's care at the Southern hotel, in a very precarious condition. She left her home a few days ago bound for Salt Lake City. The stage on which she was traveling reached Marys-vale about 2 o'clock in the morning. Just before entering the town the venicle was completely overturned through some unaccountable cause, and all of the occu-pants thrown violently to the ground. None of the passengers, however, ap-peared to be seriously hurt, and in the morning Mrs. Rotinson continued her journey by train. Thon reaching Tich-field the lady had become so seriously fill that she could proceed no further, and was taken to the hote!. It has been raining nearly all day and some snow has fallen in the moun-tains. It is very cold and more frost is feared.
