

SOCIAL CHAT

THE even, quiet tenor continues in social circles, though the past week has lived a little in comparison with previous ones of the season. The largest functions were the University club ball on Tuesday, and the dancing parties given respectively by the college women of the University of Utah and the alumni of the High school, while the reception given on Wednesday at Fort Douglas to Gov. Wells and staff, while unannounced, was among the most important and delightful events of the week. Besides these have been a number of home affairs that aided in the pleasant record.

The members of the University club were the hosts at the pleasant reception and dance given on Tuesday night in the club building. The guests were received in the library, and the reception room and diningroom were thrown open for dancing, while refreshments were served throughout the evening in the ladies' dining room. Palms brightened the rooms, and a string orchestra furnished delightful music. About 100 guests were present.

A distinct society event was the entertainment given on Tuesday night at the Grand theater for the benefit of the Free kindergarten. The musical program and clear one-act play rendered by Mrs. C. E. Richards, Mrs. L. M. Bailey and J. D. Spencer being thoroughly enjoyed. The attendance was generous beyond expectation, and a neat sum was netted for the charitable cause. Among the box parties present were those given by Mrs. W. S. M. Corrick, Mrs. Kearns, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Farnsworth, Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Ewing, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Walker and others.

The usual number of informal luncheons were given at the Country club on Wednesday.

The hop at the post on Wednesday night was the most elaborate of the present season. Supper was served in the officers' quarters, and the guests were received by Capt. and Mrs. Brunt, B. Wells, Capt. Madden and his mother, Mrs. Madden, and Maj. and Mrs. Smith.

The first symphony concert since the permanent organization of the orchestra under its new body of officers will take place next Monday night at the Salt Lake theater, and will be an elaborate society as well as musical event.

Mrs. Albert Walker entertained informally at dinner on Thursday night, and afterward at a box party at the theater. The affair was given in honor of Bruce Fordham, and the other guests were Miss Stella Salisbury, Miss Laura Sherman, Miss Ruth Kirkpatrick, Miss Dorothy Kinney, Lieut. Allen, Louis McCornick, John S. Critchley and George N. Lawrence.

Capt. and Mrs. J. E. Woodward gave a delightful dinner at the post preceding the hop on Wednesday night, covers being laid for 10.

A number of the alumni of the University of Utah gave an elaborate banquet last night at the Alta club in honor of the University football team, which has recently won laurels for its alma mater. The decorations were in keeping with the spirit of the occasion, and the affair in every way enjoyable.

On Monday evening last Mr. and Mrs. John Vincent, of 15 north Sixth West, entertained informally in honor of their niece and nephew. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Walters, of California, whilst and High Five were played during the first part of the evening, after which dainty refreshments were served among those present were Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Francis, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Walters, Mr. and Mrs. George Francis, Mrs. Charles Jones, Misses Margaret Francis and Carrie Smith, Messrs. Walter and Arthur Francis.

Mrs. Abner Latham has issued invitations for a reception in honor of Mrs. C. D. Clark and Miss Clark of Wyoming to be given next Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. W. W. Armstrong entertained at a card party on Thursday afternoon, euchre being the amusement. The rooms were prettily decorated with curtains and roses, and the tables were hand-painted pictures of dancing girls. Prizes were won by Mrs. F. A. Hale, Mrs. Peter McPherson and Mrs. Hal W. Brown.

One of the elaborate events of the week was the card party given at the Knutsford yesterday by Miss Kirkpatrick in honor of her sister, Mrs. Ackland-Hood of Australia, and Miss Kenyon of Texas, who are visiting Mrs. John Marshall. The rooms were beautifully decorated, and the game was "good."

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bacon will entertain the Finch club at their home tonight.

Mrs. Gideon Snyder entertained at luncheon on Monday complimentary to Mrs. Greely Snyder of Kimberly.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brink entertained the East Side Euchre club on Thursday.

Mrs. Thomas Kearns was pleasantly surprised on Wednesday, when about a dozen friends gathered at her mother's home on 33 street to celebrate her birthday anniversary, which occurred on that day. Mrs. Wilson planned the surprise, inviting them to a luncheon, and the event was in every way enjoyable, and most successfully carried out. American Beauties were the decorations, and Mrs. Kearns was presented with a beautiful cut glass perfume bottle.

On Thursday Dr. and Mrs. McEnery entertained at a most delightful dinner at the Knutsford, the table being laid in the private dining room, and decorated with American Beauty roses. Afterward the party went to the Theater to see "The Adventure of Lady Ursula." Dr. and Mrs. McEnery's guests were Dr. and Mrs. Francis S. Bascom, Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Allison, Dr. and Mrs. Alexander C. Ewing, Judge and Mrs. William C. Hall, Mrs. C. D. Clark of Wyoming, Mrs. Thomas Kearns, Mrs. R. S. Miller, Maj. Harry C. Hill, Dr. John R. Critchley and Hon. E. L. White of Boston.
