It is said that some of the alkalis which entered into the combination of Fellows' Hypophosphites are extracted from trees which attain to a great age, and that this fact suggested to Mr. Fellows the idea of their employment.

Whether the success of the preparation is due to this, we are not prepared to say, but the idea is a good one. dead

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

High Council.—The Members of the High Council are requested to meet in the Council House to-morrow (Thursday) morning at 10 o'clock.

W. W. TAYLOR, Clerk.

Arrival from the North.—Apostle F. D. Richards came down to the city by this morning's train. President W. B. Preston and Counselor M. D. Hammond are also in town, from Cache Valley.

"Pulpit Press and People."—Elder C. W. Stayner had a large audience last evening in the Ninth Ward, to listen to his interesting lecture. To-night he will hold forth in the Third Ward, at 7 o'clock, with the same subject.

Amateur Holiday Theatricals.—A number of our local amateurs are contemplating the production of one or more plays at the Theatre during the holidays. A meeting will be held to-night to discuss the matter. The company will include the talented corps of performers who made such a hit in the "Two Orphans" several months ago.

Logan Chemical Works.—Dutton, Graves & Co., have secured premises suitable for manufacturing soda, soap, "soap powders," blue, baking powders and other articles in the chemical line. These brethren state that it is their intention to utilize the raw material found in this region, and to manufacture without adulteration, although the profits may be less. From an examination of their dry washing or soap powders they appear to be as good, and as cheap as imported articles of the same class.

City Council.—Proceedings at the City Council on Tuesday evening, December 2nd, 1879, Mayor Little presiding.

The regular report of the supervisor of streets for the quarter ending November 30th, 1879, was presented, which showed an expenditure on road and street account during said term, of $4,665.89, Prisoners' labor—172 days at $1 per day, $172. Total, $4,837.89. Referred to the committee on claims.

Alderman Pyper presented the report of the police court for the month ending Nov. 30th, 1879, showing that 83 cases had been tried and $1,323 assessed in fines; $1,306 of which had been paid in cash, and $17 in labor on the public works. Approved and placed on file.

The following bills for the month ending November 30th, 1879, were presented and allowed: City Marshal's expense bills—$397.94; expenses of fire department, $155.18; Salt Lake City Gas Company, for gas to street lamps, city and firemen's hall, and prison, $1,099.19; city jailer, for boarding city prisoners—$17 meals at 11 cents, $55.87; J. A. Wright for guarding water tanks in City Creek Cañon, $30; collecting dog tax $22; C. L. Hyde, janitor City Hall $15; C. M. Evans—43 hours labor in recorder's office at 27c. per hour—$11.56.

The sum of $2,000 was appropriated to pay a corporation note given the Deseret National Bank, due December 5th, 1879.

The sum of $1,000 was appropriated for the payment of current expenses on the Jordan and Salt Lake City Canal.

An appropriation of $1,000 was made to road and street account, to be drawn upon the order of the street supervisor.

An appropriation of $500 was made, contingent for the payment of the salary of the collector of licenses.

A bill for an ordinance in relation to numbering the houses of Salt Lake City was taken up, and after consideration passed the council, and so became law.

Adjourned to next Tuesday evening at usual hour.

His Own Work.—Persons passing down Main Street, will stop and admire the mammoth ornamental cake, displayed in the show window of the Philadelphia Coffee House. Mr. William Hill, the proprietor, is quite an adept at the art of ornamentation, and the work on this cake is elegant and superb. Mr. Hill is prepared to fill orders for wedding, Christmas and New Year's cakes, and all other kinds of pastry and confectionery for the holidays. He is his own workman, and can therefore offer terms that cannot be underbid if equalled. Call on him and see his wares. You will be treated well.

The "Junction" Speaks.—Judge Boreman returned from Salt Lake City a week ago, and appears very much at home among his old friends. We are glad to see His Honor back, ready to dispense justice, which he has always done in this district.—Beaver Watchman.

The Watchman exhibits the same defects in the matter of proof reading that so signally characterized its deficient predecessor, the Chronicle. For instance, in the above extract, it has left out "with" between "dispendance" and "justice." A little more care, "Junction."

Hackstaff's Monthly.—We have just received the prospectus of a new periodical, to make its first appearance on the 15th inst. It is to be called Hackstaff's Monthly, edited and published by Geo. C. Hackstaff & Co., Room 28, Singer Building, St. Louis, and will be "devoted to the advancement of the interests of printing, bookbinding and paper trades, and every other branch of industry connected in the production or dissemination of books or other printed matter." The first number will be sent, post paid, on receipt of 25c.

Accident at Tooele.—On Friday, Nov. 23, 1879, an accident happened in the cañon near Tooele City, by which a young man named Henry Green had his leg broken. In company with several others, he was engaged in hauling wood for the poor and the meeting house, when his wagon tipped over and the load fell upon him. The main bone above the ankle was broken, and the small ones splintered. He was attended by Dr. Todd.

"Junction" Jots.—Kirkham's panorama is exhibiting in Ogden. The Ogden papers justly criticize some of the Salt Lake journals for giving all the credit of Morris' capture to Deputy Marshal Glesner, instead of to Marshal Brown, of Ogden, who arrested Morris and held him in custody until Glesner came. Mr. Brown also expended about $15 in the affair, which, at last accounts, had not been returned to him.

Fast Day.—To-morrow, being the first Thursday in the month, will be observed as Fast Day by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Meetings will be held in the various Wards as usual. Remember the poor and needy.

Freight Lively.—Freight business on our local railroads is "booming" at present. Special freight trains south and north are of almost daily occurrence. The roads are well officered, and everything moves along satisfactorily.

Canal Work.—See the notice of the supervisory committee of the Jordan and Salt Lake City Canal, published elsewhere. Contractors for building said canal should meet the committee, as they request, at the City Hall, Friday, Dec. 5th, at 10 a.m.

From the South.—President John Taylor and Elder Joseph F. Smith returned from their trip south, last evening. Bishop R. T. Burton is expected to-night, and Elder Brigham Young to-morrow night.

"Col. Neels."—Our genial acquaintance, Col. J. N. Neels, of the extensive mercantile firm of Benedict, Hall & Co., New York, is among us once again.

Rain But No News.—It is strange that so wet a day should be so dry for the newspapers. No District Court, no police court, no run-aways, fires, burglaries, bums, —no nothing.

SEVIER STAKE CONFERENCE.

The Quarterly Conference of Sevier Stake was held in Richfield on the 22d and 23d ult., under the Presidency of Elder A. K. Thurber, First Counselor to President Spencer, now absent on a mission to the States, as is his Second Counselor, W. H. Seegmiller, to Canada.

There was a full attendance of the several bishops, many of their counselors and the people at large, and a good feeling and spirit prevailed. After the usual preliminaries of singing and prayer, President Thurber delivered an introductory address. He desired that the Spirit of the Lord might rest upon the elders who speak, and expressed thankfulness for the goodness of God towards us.

The forenoon meeting of Saturday was addressed by Elders Winberg of Salt Lake City, Elder Jens Jensen, Acting Bishop of Salina, and Elder Wm. Morrison, President of the High Priests of the Stake, on the condition of the Saints in foreign lands, literal fulfillment of prophecy, building of Temples, emigration of the poor, and kindred subjects.

After a short address from Elder Mazley, of Monroe, President Thurber addressed himself to the young men personal testimony to themselves; exhorted to diligence, to our own cattle salesman, and how best to dispose of our wool. Treated on the influx of many evils not common to the primitive history of these valleys, and gave much good instruction to all classes.

Elder C. J. Kempe and Bishop John Johnson, of Sedmond then addressed the meeting.

There was a High Priests' evening held on the Saturday evening which was more than usually interesting. The statistical report was read by the Stake clerk, showing as follows: Three Patriarchs, 77 Seventies, 125 High Priests, 588 Elders, 40 Elders, 91 Teachers, 85 Deacons, 1,623 members, 376 children under eight years, making 3,826 souls and 710 families.

The general authorities of the Church and local authorities of the Stake were presented and sustained unanimously. Collected of monthly 50 cent, cash donations to Mantle Temple, $100.70.

Much good instruction was given both in the forenoon and afternoon meetings by President Thurber, Bishop Rust, of Fremont, and others, and conference adjourned with benediction by Patriarch Lewis.

WM. MORRISON, Stake Recorder.

Correspondence.

HARRISVILLE, Weber County, Utah, Dec. 1st, 1879.

Editors Deseret News: The past season here has been one of bountiful blessing. The small grain yield being about 20,000 bushels, making an average of 500 bushels to each family besides a large amount of fruit and other products.

This place being the central point of railroad travel for North Ogden, Stansville and Plain City, a daily mail arrives here per U. & N. R. R. and accumulates at this office for tri-weekly distribution. Mr. F. Ellis, of North Ogden having the government contract to carry the mails from this office to the above named places. Much credit is due Mr. McClellay and Mr. Strohm, of the railroad mail service, as well as our energetic postmaster, R. D. Brown, Jr., for this daily convenience.

The C. P. R. R. Co., seeing the natural facilities surrounding us, have placed a spur on their road, and appointed friend Chase their agent to sell coal by the ton or car load, at which price everyone is known to get their weight. There being two section houses here, quite a sprinkling of money is left each month, making business lively.

We have three stores to supply our wants, one of which is the Co-operative Store, the Ladies Relief Society, and is kept by the amiable wife of our pioneer M. H. Harris, after whom our settlement is named, the services and store room being furnished gratuitously. This lady and family have raised silk from the worm this season to make a handsome dress, and I know none more worthy to wear it.

Improvement being the watchword of the hour, it was deemed necessary to build a new school-house in the western part of our district—48 x 24 feet of brick, 16 inch walls, and 16 feet from floor to ceiling. The carpenters are now working on the roof. The cash estimate of cost is about $2,500.

Our Ward has been visited with some sickness and quite a few casualties, and the last month the fell monster has visited us with that terrible disease diphtheria. Brother Jonathan Smith buried four children within a few days; he has the sympathy of the whole community and Brother Dudley lost two in two days, aged 13 and 10, of the most amiable girls of our settlement and the loss of two so gentle, so kind and so good, was greatly lamented by their schoolmates and associates, and on their death bed they surpassed in beauty all the roses I ever saw grow in the floral kingdom.

Your many subscribers hail with pleasure the arrival of your valuable paper.

Yours respectfully, P. L.

DIED. At Mill Creek, Dec. 2, 1879, of typhoid pneumonia, ALEX. BRUNKER, aged 35 years, 3 months and 23 days.

In the 15th Ward of this city, of pneumonia, Dec. 2, 1879, JOHN W. son of J. E. and Jane E. Wilson, aged 3 months and 15 days.

Funeral on Thursday, Dec. 4, 1879, at 10 a.m. from 15th Ward meeting-house. Friends are invited to attend.
