UTAH PROMISES TO WALLOP THE WEST

Wyoming Easily Defeated by University Team at Outset of The Season.

MONTANA IS NEXT IN LINE.

Maddock's Men Leave Salt Lake Wednesday for Missoula to Win Second Victory of the Year.

A year ago the University of Utah football team came home from its first victorious trip abroad, singing that this "was the first time but not the last time she had Wyoming on the bum-bum-bum. Saturday night she lit the first fires of victory on the hill site of her campus and sang the song over again with the variation that it was neither the first time nor the last time, and Maddock listened with his lucky stick in his hand, and an anxious look on his face for next Saturday's prospects at Montana.

FIRST VICTORY BIG.

Utah began the season with a victory of 81 points to a goose egg. Montana merely furnished meat for the sacrifice, and although the little team was game, and played as few of Utah's opponents have to stop that terrific offense of Utah's back field and line combined, it was a hopeless quest from the start.

Wyoming has only this to be thankful for—that the score was not twice the 81 to nothing, where it finally rested. Utah hit her pace at the kickoff, lost it after the first touchdown, and never regained it until the middle of the second half. Inexperience with new plays, a center and quarter who were making their maiden efforts, and general nervousness connected with the first game of the season accounts for this. Three touchdowns in the last 10 minutes of play indicates the way Utah stood triumphant over her own nervousness, at the end of the game.

OFFENSE WAS STARTLING.

Utah's offensive work was of a startling order, and one which decides evil for the opponent who meets it when in better form. Bennion proved the greatest ground gainer of the day, with "Cuddy" Russell a close second. The way he fought for ground and once went twenty yards to a touchdown with three men clinging to him in ineffectual tackling work indicates the style of play Maddock has put into him. Barton had his day, too. Brought back from the position at guard, he proved good for ten yards at a plunge, and was able to make holes for the back field wherever he was called upon. Wyoming was waiting for Russell. It mussed men in front of his end plays, and twice caught him for eight losses. It also massed readily and quickly for Bennion and Capt. Peterson's efforts, but never did it hold Utah to third down, and only once made a punt advisable. As captain, Peterson fully demonstrated that he will be a great success, as did also Varley and Herbst as center and quarterback. One man who deserves much credit is young Ray, who went in after a week of illness, and played a flawless game.

LIKE A STONE WALL.

Of Utah's defense not so much can be said. When Wyoming tried anything on the left side of center, it struck a stone wall and twice Cuddy Russell succeeded in finding a hole in the attack, and stopped the player for a large loss. But on the other side, Wyoming occasionally made holes, apparently over Curtis, and once got through for the only run of any distance over made through a Maddock line. However, Utah's goal was never in danger, although exceptional luck and Utah's fumbles occasionally gave them the ball within striking distance. Twice they made first down in close proximity to the goal, but were soon held for downs.

Utah lost her pace for half the game. At the kickoff a strong wind carried two attempts out of bounds. Wyoming took the ball in the center of the field, and with the wind hooted it to Utah's goal line. Then began the prettiest series of plays of the day. It was Russell, 5 yards; Peterson, 10; Russell, 5; Bennion, 15; Brown, 20; Russell, 10; Brown, 5; Bennion, 5; Russell, 1; Peterson, 15; Bennion, 4; Russell, 5; a desperate hold on the ten-yard line, with several short gains, and then Bennion over for a touchdown, six minutes after play began and in seventeen downs from the Utah goal line.

HEAVEY'S PENALTIES.

After this play Utah began to get offside, to hold in the line, to fumble, and to do a lot of other things that only Capt. Heavey, U. S. A. umpire and referee, also president of Laramie, on duty at Wyoming University, could see. Penalty after penalty came Utah's way, especially when the ball was going over the goal line. One touchdown was thus converted into a touchback, and Utah had to do a touchdown over again to beat the umpire as well as the team. Nobody took his action hard, as the game was so much of a walk-over, and they were willing to believe that Heavey had an old-fashioned conception of it which made the new formations look funny to him.

For Wyoming, Lohlein played a star game, noticeable for his determined effort to prevent a disastrous score. In the absence of team help, he played everybody's position at once, and finally was retired from mere exhaustion. Ott at tackle and Corthell at quarter were also in the game every minute of it in which they played. The only long run was the fifty yards of Bennion to a touchdown in the second half, while the ball booting on both sides was not effective.

The lineup was as follows:

Utah.		Wyoming.
Pitt	l e r	Jones
Peterson (Capt.)	l t r	Delarlo
Roy	l g r	Tibbitt
Varley	c	Ekerson
Barton	r g l	Nelson
Curtis-Brown	r t l	Ott-Laugheldt
Anderson	r e l	Kennedy
Herbst	q	Corthell
Brown-Harris	r h l	Lohlein-Nelson
Russell	l h r	Gellispie
Bennion	f	Merz

Score: Utah 81; Wyoming, 0.

RACE MEET ENDED SATURDAY

Only One Event Worth Much—That Won By Joe D.

The week's race meet at the state fair track came to a close Saturday afternoon with the poorest races of the week.

The fourth race, the four and half furlongs, was the best event of the day. It was a race for heiten horses and Joe D carried off the honors.

The match race between Light Breeze and Bollman was real funny. It took five heats to settle the matter and Light Breeze won in the wonderful time of 3:16!

Following is the summary of the events:

CHANGE IN AUTOMOBILES.

Not So Much of the Strenuous in These Latter Days.

A few years ago, when automobiling invited only strenuous ones, the pioneers gloried in their hardihood. It is interesting now to note the lapse of these same men into the effete. In 1902, they would have scorned to use a closed vehicle in winter time, but dressed like Esquimaux, they drove their open touring cars through the snow drifts. Now nearly all of them have limousine cars for winter trips and electric broughams for town use. Even the racing contingent have lapsed and the list of owners of closed cars includes Wm. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., E. R. Thomas, W. Gould Brokaw, E. H. R. Green and practically all the speed patrons.

The purchases of closed electric vehicles are now increasing tremendously and the list of the owners of them in New York represents many millions of dollars. According to Frank C. Armstrong, the New York manager of an electric vehicle company, who is known to sell more electrics than any other dealer, the owners of Columbia closed electrics now include August Belmont, Harry Payne Whitney, H. H. Rogers, E. R. Thomas, Charles G. Gates, Andrew Carnegie, Howard Gould, Frank Gould, Edwin Gould, Thomas F. Ryan, E. H. Harriman, and a hundred others of almost equal prominence. With such men leading the way, it is no longer considered an fait to brave all sorts of weather in an open car.

Cincinnati, Oct. 8.—Cincinnati won two games from Pittsburg this afternoon, darkness ending the second contest in the eighth inning. The first game was marked by several extraordinary plays, of which a triple play by the Reds when the bases were full in the seventh aroused the greatest enthusiasm. Cincinnati won the second game through superior hitting. Attendance, 10,000.

Chicago, Oct. 8.—The season closed today with a double-header, the locals winning both games on better work by their pitchers and cleaner fielding. The first game went twelve innings and was won on an error, a sacrifice and Slagel's third hit. A base on balls, a steal and two singles tied up the load St. Louis made in the third inning of the second game on three hits and Slagel's muff. Two passes and Brown's home run scored Chicago's other run. Maloney performed miracles in the second game, making three very sensational catches, each one stopping seemingly long hits. Attendance, 12,000.

Every Angel, with the exception of Eager, hit safely. Brashear getting five, Cravath four and Flood three. In the afternoon the play was closer and the locals had a chance in the eighth, when Nagle weakened and five hits were made against him.

Seattle, Wash. Oct. 8.—Seattle finished the season at home today by taking both games of a double-header from the leaders in the pennant race. Charles Shields, who was recently suspended, was reinstated and pitched the first, a shut out game. Vickers was found early in the second game, but steadied down and the Seattle team won the game in the seventh. Before the second game the agreement was that it should be only for seven innings. Byrnes was put out of the first game by the umpire.

BIG GAME TODAY.

The Giants Will Go After the Phillies in Quakertown Today.

New York, Oct. 9.—New York's champion Giants and their horde of local followers will descend upon Philadelphia today intent upon scoring the first victory in the series for the world's championship at the expense of "Connie" Mack's American league champions, the Athletics.

The Giants go to Philadelphia slight favorites for the series and in the best of shape for a hard struggle.

It is extremely likely that "Christy" Mathewson will be sent into the box to handle the first contest, which the Giants are determined to win.

Few bets were recorded yesterday, mostly small. These were in some cases at even money on the first game and five to four on the Giants on the series.

Last night the Giants were given a benefit at the Majestic theater by members of the theatrical profession.

Championship Games.

Philadelphia, Oct. 8.—Arrangements have been completed for the opening here tomorrow of the series of both games between the New York National League club and the Philadelphia American League club, winners of the 1905 championship of their respective leagues. He announced today that he will stay in America a year if necessary in order to make a new record with the sixteen-pound shot.

Clifford Knocked Out.

Grass Valley, Cal., Oct. 8.—Willie Fitzgerald knocked out Jack Clifford in the eighth round of a twenty-round go here tonight. Clifford made a good showing for four rounds, but from that round on the fight was one-sided. Fitzgerald put him out with a right hook to the jaw, crossing over with the left.
