S. WYOMING'S FIRST CYCLONE.

Negro Murderer Killed by an Electric Wire—Other News.

James R. Dynan, a lineman employed by the Boise Light and Power company, fell a few feet to the ground, a distance of sixty feet. He received a few bruises about the head and face, but was not seriously injured.

Abner Hicks committed suicide at Fresno, Cal., Monday night, by drinking rat poison. He was found dead at the building. His mother died a short time ago, and it is said that he has been despondent. Monday he made an attempt at suicide, but was unsuccessful, which was taken from him before he had time to draw upon it by preventing it from being in the earth every minute. He was again arrested. He promises not to make another attempt, but whether he does or not remains to be seen.

A. Taylor, Kansas, shipped eight A terrible death occurred near Ashland, Or., Monday, when Mrs. Peter Wilson, wife of a well-known farmer, was burned to death in a fire which destroyed her home. The origin of the fire is unknown. Mrs. Wilson, who was 70 years of age, was entirely alone when the fire broke out. She was not seen after the fire was discovered, and it is supposed that she was overcome by the smoke and perished in the flames. Her body was found in the ruins of the house.

An accident of a fatal nature occurred to Miss Pauline Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Wilson, of Ashland, Or., Monday, when she was thrown from a horse and received injuries from which she died in a few hours. Miss Wilson was riding a horse which was known to be vicious, and when she attempted to mount it the animal reared and threw her to the ground, striking her head upon a rock. She was picked up unconscious and died without regaining consciousness.

A petition is being circulated by the women suffrage enthusiasts asking an appropriation to be used in building a cabin in which to settle down for the winter. Miss Chandler is the mother to return to their home in St. Louis. Miss Chandler was the women suffrage to the bar in Utah about 20 years ago.

The family of William Taylor, one of the Wyoming's, was poisoned at Deer River, Wash., a few days ago. Mr. Taylor, his wife and two children were taken violently ill, and it appears that some one had poisoned the family. Suspicion fell upon a neighbor, and he was arrested, but was released on bail. The case will be investigated by the grand jury, and it appears that there is sufficient evidence against the accused to convict him.

The Wyoming cyclone, which struck Sheridan, Wyo., Tuesday, is the most disastrous one that has ever visited that section of the country. Reports received from the surrounding country show that the storm was very severe in many places, and that much damage was done to property. The storm was accompanied by a heavy rain, which caused the Big Goose creek to overflow its banks, and the water rushed down the valley with great force, doing much damage to property. The storm was the most severe that has been experienced in this section of the country for many years.

A terrible death occurred near Kansas City, Kan., Monday night, when Mrs. Mary Ann Hall, wife of Joseph Hall, was burned to death in a fire which destroyed their home. Mrs. Hall was alone in the house at the time the fire broke out, and was burned to death before assistance could reach her. Her husband was away from home at the time, but on his return found only the ashes of his home and the charred remains of his wife. The fire is supposed to have been caused by a defective flue.

A young German named Simon Bender is a resident of the residence of Mr. Peter Wilson, of Ashland, Or., was burned to death in a fire which destroyed the home of Mr. Wilson, on the night of the 28th inst. Miss Wilson was 19 years of age, was entirely alone when the fire broke out, and it is not known how the fire originated. Miss Wilson was riding a horse which was known to be vicious, and when she attempted to mount it the animal reared and threw her to the ground, striking her head upon a rock. "Cut Down Expenses."

BattleAx PLUG

A woman knows what a bargain really is. She knows better than a man. "BATTLE AX" is selected every time by wives who buy tobacco for their husbands. They select it because it is an honest bargain. It is the biggest in size, the smallest in price, and the best in quality. The 5 cent piece is almost as large as the 10 cent piece of other high grade brands.
