Another Train Robbery.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 16.—Picayune special from Grenada, Miss.: Passenger train No. 2 on the Illinois Central was robbed last night one mile north of Buck Hill at 10:15. When the train stopped at that point two men boarded the engine and commanded the engineer to pull out fast, at the same time covering him with revolvers. One mile north they compelled him to stop. The engineer and fireman were marched to the express car. One of the robbers knocked on the door, which was opened by the messenger. The robbers entered and took $3000,

ALL THERE WAS

in the car, from Messenger Hill. Firing off their pistols before they entered the car attracted the attention of Conductor Wilkinson, who rushed out and was immediately fired upon. He returned to the train. Mr. Charles Hughes, of Jackson, Tenn., then ran out with a Winchester rifle. As he stepped to the ground from the smoking car he was fired upon; one shot struck him in the left arm, another through his stomach, inflicting fatal wounds. The death of this young man is very sad, as he is the only support of a widowed mother. Nine shots were fired afterward by Conductor Williamson and Travelling Passenger Agent Cochran and four or five by the robbers. The latter succeeded in MAKING THEIR ESCAPE.

The passengers were greatly alarmed, fearing for the safety of their valuables and lives. It is believed that neither of the men was hit by the shots fired at them. The place of the robbery was an open low marsh about 50 yards from the woods. Both the robbers ran eastward into a swamp. A posse is being organized to join in the chase and bloodhounds are secured to aid in trailing them.

A Demonine Deed.

CAMP POPLAR RIVER, Montana, Dec. 16.—At Fort Peck Indian agency yesterday "Pretty Boy," a Yanktown Sioux, while intoxicated, made a murderous attack on his squaw. He felled her to the ground with a club from a club, and then jumped on her body and attempted to SCALP HER.

Several Indian policemen tried to seize him but he broke away and ran to a tepee and securing a Winchester opened fire, instantly killing two and wounding a third. He then proceeded to where the squaw was lying and shot the top of her head off. This done, the mad buck tried to escape, firing repeatedly at the Indians who were pursuing him. Finding escape impossible, he stopped finally and shot himself through the head. The affair has created a great deal of excitement, and had it not been for the presence of two companies of the Twentieth Infantry, who interfered, a would have occurred. An investigation is in progress to ascertain who supplied the Indian with liquor, and if the party be located, he will be dealt with severely.

The Opium Conspiracy.

ST. PAUL, Dec. 16.—There is every reason to believe that the smuggling conspiracy which the United States officials here have discovered by the information of one of the band arrested at Denver and the subsequent seizure of 800 pounds of opium at St. Vincent, is more far-reaching and vastly greater in proportions than was first supposed. It is certain that the operations of the smugglers were not confined to opium, but large quantities of silks and other costly fabrics from China have been landed in British Columbia and brought to various points on the Canadian Pacific Railway consigned to smugglers. It is known that the government officers have recently seized several small lots of silks that are said to be disposed of to St. Paul and Minneapolis merchants. The officials are preserving the utmost secrecy in the hope of catching some smugglers.

Congressional Programme.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—In the Senate the tariff bill still holds the right of way over other measures and will be considered from day to day immediately after the routine morning hour business.

IN THE HOUSE

tomorrow, motions in behalf of committees to pass measures under a suspension of the rules will be in order, but the pending motion made by Dorn for the passage of the Nicaraguan Canal bill will have the right of way.

It is doubtful whether Chairman Blanchard, of the river and harbor committee, will make any effort to call up the bill of which he is the champion on suspension day, but a strenuous attempt will be made to secure its consideration and if possible its passage during the course of the week. Vigorous opposition to this measure will be made by some who believe the committee has not had sufficient time to formulate a proper bill and that the present methods of making appropriations for such purposes is wrong. A substitute for the measure will probably be offered, appropriating a bulk sum (larger than the total carried by the bill), to be expended by chief engineers under the direction of the Secretary of War upon improvements of a national character.

Stanley and Emin.

SUAKIM, Dec. 25.—Khalifa writes a letter to Osman Digna stating that the steamer expedition to the equator commanded by Osman Saleh, landed at Larhead, where Emin Pasha and a white traveler were delivered to them in chains by Emin's officers and troops. Osman Selah, in a letter to Kalifa, stated that he reached Lado on October 11 and that the Khedive had sent the white traveler named Stanley with a letter telling Emin to go with Stanley and offering the remainder of his force option about going to Cairo. Permission was granted to enter the Turkish service and they were gladly received by Osman Selah. He heard that another traveler visited Emin but had gone and he was searching for him.

A Brush With the Arabs.

SUAKIM, Dec. 16.—A reconnoissance was made on the left and rear of the rebels' position today. The party was headed by Gen. Greenefield and advanced under a heavy fire from the forts. The Arabs opened fire but did no damage.

The Deputies Denounced.

PARIS, Dec. 16.—Boulangist conservative journals violently denounce the rejection of the Panama Canal bill. Camille Dreloos writes: "The deputies' abandonment of 850,000 shareholders is a crime for which the policy of defamation pursued for the past sixteen months is responsible. For fear of suspicion the deputies permitted citizens to be ruined when they did not risk a sou to save them."

PARIS, Dec. 16.—When De Lesseps heard of the rejection of his Panama Canal bill, his face blanched and his hands became cold. He soon recovered his usual calmness, however, and spoke sadly of the wreck of the fearful disaster to himself and the nation.

Don't Believe It.

LONDON, Dec. 16.—A Suakim dispatch to the Times says the natives do not believe the equatorial provinces have submitted to the Mahdi. If they had, natives say, a proclamation to the people of Emin's territory and other official acts of the Mahdi would have been made public and the surrender of Suakim would have been demanded. A coast guard steamer which just arrived from the south heard nothing of the alleged capture.

ANOTHER OPINION.

BERLIN, Dec. 16.—Herr Merensky, chief of the African missions, thinks that Emin has been captured, but not Stanley. It is more than likely, he said, that the white traveler referred to by Daman Digna is Captain Casak, the Italian explorer. Lieutenant Wissman has received no counter order as yet with regard to the relief expedition.

General Harrison.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 16.—The inclement weather resulted in a rather poor attendance at the churches this morning. Gen. Harrison passed the day quietly at home.

Hon. J. C. New has received a letter from Senator Quay, stating that he would leave Washington on Monday night for Indianapolis.

Two or three correspondents for eastern parties are said to be engaged tonight in adding a new name to President-elect Harrison's Cabinet, in the person of Gov. J. B. Foraker, to whom they have assigned the Attorney-Generalship.

A SOD CABIN

built by citizens of Loup City, Sherman County, Nebraska, as a gift for General Harrison, arrived in this city this morning. It occupies an entire flat car. It is 18 feet long and 9 feet high. The balance of the car is fenced in as a door yard. What they propose to do with the house is a puzzle, since it seemingly cannot be removed from the car without falling to pieces. It is probable it will be side-tracked and taken to Washington for the inaugural parade.

Complicated Case.

CHICAGO, Dec. 15.—After the Circuit Court today decided it had no jurisdiction over the County Court in the Lindauer case, the scene of action was transferred to Judge Prendergast's courtroom. Once more Attorney Newman, against whom the contempt proceedings were on, succeeded in extricating himself from the scrape, and immediately another sensation was sprung. Attorney Mayer, who secured readiness, asked leave to file information against all the members of the Lindauer firm and all their attorneys, against the preferred creditors and their attorneys, against the sheriff and against the receiver for contempt and defiance of court in attempting to illegally interfere with the ends of justice. This information was based on begun in another court with a view to thwart those in the county court. It was afterwards withdrawn for amendment.

Another exciting event occurred at the afternoon session of the court when Bernard Kuppenheimer, the receiver appointed in the counter proceedings by Judge Horton, appeared and on his counsel's advice flatly refused to give up the books and papers of the insolvent firm which are locked in his vault. Judge Prendergast held as the property was properly in the custody of the court consigned to him by him before the counter proceedings were begun, the sheriff had acted without authority in transferring the books and papers to Kuppenheimer.

After arguing some time with Kuppenheimer without avail, Judge Prendergast ordered Kuppenheimer committed to jail for three days unless he complies with the order of the court.

Attorney Mayer then asked that a custodian be appointed of the vault containing the books. At this point a recess was taken in the proceedings until evening.

Later—Kuppenheimer was brought before Judge Horton on a writ of habeas corpus and released on bail. The result is, therefore, notwithstanding Judge Tuley's decision early in the day, a direct conflict between two magistrates and a deadlock in the courts, hanging up a half million dollar case indefinitely.

Morrison and Morton.

After the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Morton this morning, the balance of the day was quiet and uneventful at the Harrison household. About the usual number of city callers dropped in during the afternoon, but there were no distinguished out-of-town visitors. General Harrison walked down town about noon and returned home about 1 p. m. He spent an hour or two of the afternoon in the library. Mrs. Harrison, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. McKee, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Halford, Mrs. Bergen and Miss McKee, attended an entertainment this evening, given by Bill Nye and James Whitcomb Riley, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A.) at the Grand Opera House. The house was crowded with the elite of the town.

GENERAL HARRISON

received two more canes by express today from admiring friends, making nearly 100 canes presented to him since his nomination. Notwithstanding he has a variety of elegant and costly walking sticks, when he goes out walking he almost invariably carries his old ivory handled cane which has done him so many years' service.

Early in the week Hon. Alfred Dickey, of Jamestown, Dakota, was among those who visited General Harrison and had a private conference with him. Mr. Dickey carefully guarded the object of his visit while here, but it transpired today that he came in his own interest as a candidate for the governorship of the Territory of Dakota. From general conversation and from circumstance, it is learned that Dickey is strongly endorsed by his home people for appointment as governor to succeed Governor Church. He is a native of Indiana, having lived many years at Crawfordville, and enjoyed General Harrison's acquaintance. It is said his talk with General Harrison was very satisfactory.

A Bloody Affair.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 16.—A Grand Coteau special says: As near as can be ascertained the shooting affair of yesterday was the result of a feud which had existed between members of the Higginbotham family for the last three or four years. The parties were attending a horse race when the difficulty arose. It is said thirty or more shots were fired. A young man named Beard, who acted as peacemaker, was shot and instantly killed. Two of Monroe Higginbotham's sons were shot; one died during the night and the other is seriously wounded. Two other persons were wounded, one of them the mother of young Beard. Her wound is not serious.

AN ADDRESS

By Charles F. Adams on Railroading.

BOSTON, Dec. 15.—Mr. Charles Francis Adams, president of the Union Pacific Railroad Company, addressed the Commercial Club this evening on the subject of the present condition and tendencies of railroading in this country. He had been asked particularly to express his views of the Interstate Commerce act and its special workings. He

SAID IN PART:

"Since the Interstate Commerce act went into effect two years ago there has been what might be called a craze for railroad construction. It was impossible to pool, and the long haul regulated the short haul. Dishonest methods of rate cutting and other means of influence that were accepted as authentic. But, fortunately, in spite of its semi-official character, and the strong feeling it displays, the article has not produced much effect either on the Bourse or on the public mind, although it is seen, from the fact that it is semi-official, that the writer again threatens to publish the Austro-Russian treaties of 1876 and 1877, and says that political relations with Russia will be strained.

The North German Gazette, referring to the article, expresses the hope that the Russo-German newspaper war will not be renewed, and intimates that, if it is, the Russian Pan-Slavist press will be left to stew its own juice; while the Tageblatt advises the public at the journalistic war, but wait until the Reichsanzeiger publishes the treaties.

Friday's debate in the Reichstag was memorable as the occasion of Count Herbert Bismarck's maiden speech. The greatest interest was shown, and more deputies were present than on any other day during the session. It was especially remarked that Count Herbert's seat was occupied several thirty minutes. It was the event of the day. Count Herbert's voice, enunciation, gesture and abrupt delivery vividly reminded the audience of his father. At the beginning of his speech, which, though delivered in a moderate tone of voice, could scarcely be followed. Afterward he became calmer and fluent, gaining confidence as he won the sympathy of his audience. Storms of applause greeted the patriotic peroration. Count Herbert could exactly be said to have the gift of eloquence, but it is admitted on all sides that he acquitted himself of the task well and handsomely.

EMPEROR WILLIAM

continues to work hard. He receives Generals Von Waldersee and Von Wittich daily. It is reported that the latter is engaged in explaining in minute detail the possibility of Germany sustaining war against France and Russia simultaneously.

PREPARING TO SAIL TO AFRICA.

It is stated the authorities at Kiel and Wilmshaven are preparing to sail to Africa at the shortest notice. Corps of volunteers are armed with repeaters and rifled cannons. Foreigners will be admitted to the corps only on condition of being able to withstand the climate. Some of the radical papers having asserted that Russia had supplied the Soudanese with arms and munitions, the Russian ambassador has assured Count Herbert Bismarck that such assertions are

TOTALLY UNFOUNDED.

The Hamburg correspondent states that Professor Gefficken's counsel have applied to the imperial tribunal for their client's release, giving the whole of his property as bail. The application was refused, it being held that the amount of bail offered would not prevent Gefficken from taking flight. His trial is expected to take place at Leipsic in January.

The anti-slavery crusade has been successfully commenced in Austria. At the instigation of Cardinal Lavigerie, a meeting on the subject has been held at Vienna under the auspices of the most influential Catholic societies. The Papal Nuncio was identified with the meeting, which was presided over by Prince Von Windischgraetz. Two clerical speakers declared that Austria should join with other nations in the anti-slavery movement.

Calamities.

READING, Pa., Dec. 15.—In Upper Bern township in this county, this forenoon, Mrs. Albert Kaufman and her daughter Alma lifted a large and hot vessel of tallow to pour into a vessel which contained a small quantity of water. An explosion followed and the hot tallow flew over their faces and they were horribly burned, rendering the condition of both critical.

WHEELING, W. Va., Dec. 15.—This morning engine No. 8, pulling the Bellaire and Martin's Ferry accommodation train on the Cleveland, Lorraine & Wheeling Railway, jumped the track on a trestle over Morgan's Run, and plunged to the ground below thirty feet. In its descent the engine turned over twice and landed with the top in the earth. There was but one passenger coach attached, the coupling of which broke, leaving the coach with its twenty-five passengers safely on the track. The prompt action of Conductor Fowler in applying the automatic air brake saved the coach and passengers. Engineer Samuel Showalter was seriously injured and died this evening. The fireman escaped unhurt.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 15.—A disastrous fire occurred tonight in a building on Pine Street, between Third and Fourth streets, occupied by several printing and publishing concerns. The loss aggregates $230,000, with ample insurance.

The Democrats.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—The executive committee of the national association of democratic clubs is in private session.

The gentlemen present thought the recent national defeat which they sustained will have the effect of stimulating all clubs to take more active measures in the campaign of 1892. It was voted to have a meeting of the general committee comprising five members from each state, at an early date, when the date of the next national convention of clubs will be fixed.

BERLIN LETTER.

The East African Debate.—William Working Hard, Etc.

BERLIN, Dec. 15.—The debate in the Reichstag on Dr. Windthorst's motion relative to the suppression of the East African slave trade has dispelled many errors which were current among those who believed Germany would never stir a foot nor spend a penny directly nor indirectly to assist East Africa over its straits. Though the suppression of slavery was ostensibly the object of the motion, its real aim was simply to elicit the sense of the nation concerning the commercial and political future of the East Africa Company, and to provide a basis for further government action. It is an open secret that was reluctant to embark in a spirited colonial policy until the nation should have clearly expressed its will in the matter. This has now been done in a manner so decided as to render the chancellor's future course clear. The debate marks an important development in the colonial policy. The Reichstag has declared in favor of progressive action and completely dispelled the illusion that Germany's action to recover lost ground and to safeguard her imperial position in Zanzibar would be confined to blockading operations on sea. The preliminary step having been unanimous, the Reichstag will, on reassembling after Christmas, be presented with a bill framed in accordance with the views of the leaders of friendly groups, which will probably enable the East Africa Company to recruit a naval force of natives for the purpose of recovering and garrisoning lost ground and establishing an anti-slavery blockade on land as well as on sea. Count Herbert Bismarck has apparently drawn a distinction between the

of the local force of this kind, and the other forces which are intended for expeditions into the interior. But it is doubtful whether Arab mind will realize the difference.

The attitude of the Russian and German press does not improve. The Hamburg correspondent's articles of Thursday may be accepted as authentic. But, fortunately, in spite of its semi-official character, and the strong feeling it displays, the article has not produced much effect either on the Bourse or on the public mind, although it is seen, from the fact that it is semi-official, that the writer again threatens to publish the Austro-Russian treaties of 1876 and 1877, and says that political relations with Russia will be strained.
