WALKER'S STORE.

A SILK SALE.

And the Dress Goods Continuation with Additions.

$1.75 Silks, 75 Cents.

ON MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY.

A Silk Sacrifice in word and in deed. Silks of unsurpassed quality and all the kinds now wanted, in choice of patterns, for waists, petticoats, linings, etc. This should make a friend for us of every purchaser—and that's just the secret of our price cutting, making friends for the Store—it is in this instance, certainly, there's no other reason, they'll sell at the price put upon them for these days very much later in the season. There are a few which sold for $1.25 the yard, but mostly they are the regular $1.75 qualities. A choice MONDAY, TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY at

DRESS GOODS SALE

As we told you last week, includes the whole stock, without reserve, black and colors, and as we also told you, it is a sale without precedent so early in the season, never inaugurated heretofore until after the holiday buying time. If you haven't yet filled all Dress Goods wants, it will be to this second call; the goods being thus ruthlessly cleared are of the world's best, but Dress Goods man wants them to be gone while usefulness is still left to them, and kinds for selection are plentiful, which will not be an existent state of affairs later. Suggestions follow of the mercenary way the price reduction seasons have cut into such and every yard:

WELL TO RESPOND QUICKLY
