EDITORIAL NOTES.

Engineers of the Northern Pacific Railroad commenced, on the 22nd ult., the survey for a road from New Tacoma, to Walla Walla.

New York has two lepers. The sufferers are both men, and are placed in a hospital on Blackwell's Island.

The wife of Judge Thompson, of Lawrenceburg, Indiana, died suddenly, on the 13th inst., after eating some ice cream prepared in a copper vessel. Take warning.

Arsenic eating is becoming prevalent in the United States. Ladies think it improves their complexion. Instead of that it makes a watery deposit under the skin that bleeds and gives a corpse like whiteness to the body and has an injurious effect upon the brain.

General Crook, in answer to questions from the Omaha Herald, representative, as to the cause of the Bannack war, replied very earnestly, Hunger, nothing but hunger. He further said, "The proof is incontestable that there are cases where Indians have actually starved to death on the reservations," and added, "he must be a very contemptible being who would not fight for his life."

This is the way the "Liberals" have "saved" Tooele County. Four years ago, or when they took possession by force of fraud, county scrip was worth 95 cents on the dollar. Today it is refused at 30 cents on the dollar, and has ranged from 30 to 50 per cent, the latter being the "Liberals' maximum. Query: How much would "Liberals" if the county should be cheated into four years more of such salvation? We should think sensible "Liberals" would hesitate to vote their own ticket.

In England they are adopting a horse-shoe made of cowhide, and known as the Yates shoe. It is composed of three thicknesses of cowhide compressed into a steel mould, and then subjected to a chemical preparation. It is claimed for it that it lasts longer and weighs only one-fourth as much as the common iron shoe; that it will never cause the hoof to split, nor have the least injurious influence on the foot. It requires no calks; even on asphalt the horse never slips. The shoeless horse that the horse's step is light and sure. It adheres so closely to the foot that neither dust nor water can penetrate between the shoe and hoof.

A BIG CHARGE FROM A SMALL POP-GUN.

The New York Evening Post says: "It would not be a bad thing in the way of business for the government to investigate the charge brought by Mr. Daniel Alexander, an official representative of the government in Utah, against the Mormon priesthood, Mr. Alexander charges, upon the authority of a deputy United States marshal and other persons, that the Indians, even when they are engaged in war with the government, procure arms and ammunition through the Mormon priesthood; that the Indians are initiated into the mysteries of Mormonism and are incited to hostility by the priests, whose purpose is to prevent the settlement of the country within 500 miles of Salt Lake, in order that the Mormons may themselves fill and control that Territory as their number increases. This is a serious charge, and whether true or not it offers the government an excellent opportunity to discover what the truth is in a very important matter. Somebody furnishes the Indians with abundant materials of war, and it would be money in the nation's pocket to find out who it is."

The person referred to in the above extract as "an official representative of the government in Utah" is a very insignificant individual, and his position is simply that of "commissioner" under the Poland Bill, which is a sort of a local Justice of the smallest jurisdiction, having no authority to try a case, inflict a penalty or pronounce a decision, but simply to commit, if sufficient cause is proven, to a court having some actual power.

The only act in which this small dignity was ever known to distinguish himself, was in relation to two petitions signed by a number of ladies in Utah. One was a memorial to Congress in behalf of woman suffrage, sent from the East to Utah for signature. The other was a petition from the ladies of Utah, asking Congress not to legislate against polygamy. Both were circulated in this Territory, and were numerous signed. But the first named was signed and dispatched to the East before the second was drawn up. And the former was signed by both "Mormon" and "Gentile" ladies, while the latter was only presented to "Mormon" ladies for signature.

The person referred to above, anxious to make a point against the people among whom he had recently settled, conceived the idea of injuring the pro-polygamy party by getting up a statement that signatures had been obtained to it by misrepresentation. He explained to certain "Gentile" ladies of Ogden City who had signed the petition for the suffrage, that the "Mormon" women had deceived them, and obtained their names to the petition in favor of polygamy. By this means he induced them to sign an affidavit in his presence as a notary public, setting forth that they had been fraudulently induced to sign the petition then before Congress. The sworn statement was sent, and the chief conspirator and cunning inventor was particularly tickled with his own cunning. But let and behold! when the names of the ladies who were fraudulently deceived into signing the affidavit were sought for on the pro-polygamy petition, they were not to be found! These ladies were thus placed in the position of perjurers through the machinations of this very smart Aleck.

The fraud, if any, was his. The memorial that was signed by the "Gentile" ladies went to Congress before the other was arranged, and the Gentile ladies were not even asked to sign a petition which it was known would be contrary to their views. Instead of clothing himself with glory he was covered with contempt, and all classes of the community joined in reprobation of the small malice and despicable falsehood which prompted the plot to injure the "Mormon" ladies, with its recoil on the heads of others who, excepting himself, were innocent of evil design.

And this is the "official representative of the Government in Utah" who, according to the Post, has been making charges against the "Mormons" equally false with his affidavit scheme, about their stirring up Indians to hostility. The influence of the latter-day Saints upon the savage mind is and has been always in favor of peace. Our local laws as well as the spirit of our religion are opposed to any such conduct as the Post assumes us to be guilty of, on the statement of such an infinitesimal dignity with such immense mendacity. Wherever the "Mormon" priesthood have obtained any ascendancy over the minds of the red men, the effect has been to quell the blood-thirsty instincts which impel them upon the war path, and to lead them to industry and subordination to law. If any man claiming to be a "Mormon" has done sought to aid an Indian in hostility to the whites, he has done it in violation of the policy and precepts of the "Mormon" leaders and the "Mormon" people.

Investigation we court. It is misrepresentation that we deprecate. And the New York Evening Post and every other newspaper in the land should, in justice to a people who are continually maligned by unscrupulous enemies, avoid endorsing or giving weight to the unsupported statements of adventurers without reputation, and must not officials who, while wielding less power than a common constable, attempt to magnify their importance and spread themselves on strength derived from corruption. The charges are entirely, and the author of them utterly unreliable.

BY TELEGRAPH.

EASTERN.

The Butler-Kearney Affair.

New York, 2.—The Times' Boston special has the following relation of the Butler-Kearney affair: Butler called on Kearney at his mother's house, in Brighton, on Tuesday evening last, and was with his private secretary, who was cloistered for half an hour. No one else was admitted, and what was said remained a profound secret, the private secretaries being as dumb as stones.

Butler publishes the following card: I see it published, as a telegram from California, that Kearney came to Massachusetts at my suggestion and in my interest. In justice to Kearney, as this is one of the lies from San Francisco to injure him, allow me to say that it is false in every particular. I had no communication with Kearney, directly or indirectly, or with any friend of his, upon any subject whatever, until days after he came to this city, and then, at my request, I called upon him, as I would do upon any other gentleman of prominence who visits Boston whom I believe his visits would be agreeable.

Death of General C. General.

Special dispatches announce the death of Count De Rodisco, the Russian consul general at New York, which occurred at White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia, yesterday.

The Exploring Party.

The Times' Bismarck special says: A party of explorers, with a party of soldiers, and headed by Gen. Romer, chief engineer of the Northern Pacific Railroad, left this morning for Fort Kough. Their object is to ascertain the value of the Northern Pacific Railroad and the Yellowstone river. Dr. D. M. Morrison of Minneapolis, accompanying the party, will report on his return, to certain New York capitalists, who, this morning, are buying the Northern Pacific Bill, which is a sort of a lopany 5,000,000 acres of land as their consideration.

The California Pioneer's Banquet to General Fremont.

The reception given to General John C. Fremont, was attended, last night, at the Sturtevant House, by nearly all the members of the California Pioneer Association. In the absence of the General, Suiter, president of the society, General H. Gates Gibson presided. On his right, General Fremont, and his two sons Frank and John C. The latter is a master in the law. The dining hall of the Sturtevant House was well filled. On the tables were several grand pieces representing the early days of the colony on land, in the path of the great Pathfinder.

After returning thanks to God for his bounties, the company sat down to one of Leinard's suppers. After the cloth had been removed, General Gibson welcomed Fremont in a very feeling speech, which was warmly applauded.

Ex-Governor Price, in a few remarks, gave a reminiscence of the entry of Captain Fremont into California, and his conflict with Jose Castro, the military governor of California in 1846.

General Fremont, feelingly replied to the remarks of Price, after which Col. Thorpe, of Mexican war fame made a brief speech highly complimentary to Fremont and wife.

Col. E. C. Kimble, an old newspaper man of California, then gave a description of the celebrated march from Monterey to Santa Barbara, and wished Fremont God speed in his new field of labor.

Reminiscences of the early days of California were given by pioneers, and at a late hour the company adjourned.

The New Political Party—John Kelly Intervened.

The Graphic's correspondent had an interview with Comptroller John Kelly, to-day, on the subject of the new political party. When the subject of Dennis Kearney's eastern trip was broached, Kelly expressed the belief that its effects would be temporary, but because of the difference in the issues raised in the two sections and because of Kearney's ignorance of the political situation and needs here and the methods to use. He said: "You will see that such methods as are in use in San Francisco would be ineffective in New York. His success has been almost solely due to the Chicago ladies, and he has had every opportunity to work on the prejudices against the Chinese, which are so ripe there. No such issue exists here, and it is doubtful if he is familiar with the issues which he will really have to meet. He will be cordially received and will have immense audiences of the people, but he will not reach. Of that I have no doubt, but that it will have any permanent result I do not believe. On the political side he has no chance, and on the organizational side, here he has nothing of the kind, and he will probably find that none of the parties are thoroughly in sympathy with his views."

From what followed, Kelly evidently regarded many of Kearney's ideas as largely chimerical, and anticipated little trouble to either party in the city from any justly earned success, though he gave Kearney full credit for honesty of opinion and for something of careful thought upon the subject to which he had been called. He certainly did not show any uneasiness over the matter. He has no fear either of Butler or Kearney, or that any "Gentile" can raise will be effective in actually influencing the democracy of New York.

A Defiant Disappearance.

Isaac Rhoman, secretary and treasurer of the New York Optical Co., has disappeared, and it is asserted that he has taken a large amount of money belonging to the firm.

Foster Nominated.

The Times special says: In the eighth congressional district, the republicans in Ohio nominated Foster. The latter made a speech declaring that the President had alienated most of the republican voters and the great mass of republicans. This is remarkable coming from a well-known supporter of Hayes.

Deadwood, D. T., 2.—James Anderson, a milkman, who lives on a ranch about ten miles north of Deadwood, started for town early this morning on his regular trip; when two miles from the ranch he was stopped by five masked men, who, armed with revolvers and shotguns, robbed him and left him in the edge of the woods. The robbers took about $20 in money and a span of horses from his wagon. They then proceeded to the ranch, where they appropriated the cash and three saddles to their own use, telling the man who was in charge of the ranch to go and liberate Anderson.

The Walker Monument Unveiled.

CHICAGO, 2.—A dispatch from Muskegon, Michigan, states that the monument erected to Captain Jonathan Walker, by Rev. Photius Flak, of Greece, was unveiled at that place, yesterday, with imposing ceremonies. Captain Walker was known as "The man with a branded hand," a cognomen derived from the fact that the palm of his right hand was branded S. B. (slave trader), on account of his having assisted in running fugitives over into Canada, on his vessel. Ex-congressman Williams, "Richards" and other orators made addresses.

ELECTRIC TORNADO.

CINCINNATI, 2.—A cyclone from southeastern Indiana state that a tornado swept through that section of country yesterday, damaging property, trees, and buildings quite seriously.

At Liberty, the Methodist church was badly damaged, and the residence of J. M. D. Arco partially burned.

At Eaton, Ohio, the corn was flattened out over a large area, and pears covered the ground in the vicinity of Orchard.

Reports of the same tenor is also received from Greenville, Ohio, West Alexandria, Ohio; Rushville and Connersville, Ind.

$50,000 FIRE.

A fire at Parkersburg, West Va., yesterday, destroyed V. Rathbone's old factory, and Black &amp; Co. The loss is about $30,000; partially insured.

WESTERN.

No Chinese to be Employed.

SAN FRANCISCO, 2.—A Victoria dispatch has the following: A resolution has passed Parliament, unanimously, "That the House of the opinion that Chinese should not be employed upon the public works of the province, and that a selection should be inserted in the specifications of all contracts awarded, to the effect that contractors will not be permitted to employ Chinese labor upon the work, and that in the event of their doing so, government will not be responsible for the payment of the contract."

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Lord Hartington's Resignation.

LONDON, 2.—The Morning Post says: An attempt will be made to get the debate in the House of Commons, on Lord Hartington's resignation, postponed until the 6th inst., but this does not find favor with the leaders of either side, and a division is expected about two o'clock on Saturday morning. Considerable paucity is expected. It is also stated that every effort is making to end the session of Parliament on the 17th of this month.

Tudor's Refusal.

Regarding the rumor telegraphed from Vienna, that General Tudor, commander of the Russian forces, refuses to withdraw a main body from the vicinity of Constantinople before the withdrawal of the British fleet, a dispatch from Berlin says: Prince Gortchakoff made a solemn promise at Berlin that the Russian forces should be withdrawn upon the evacuation of Varna and Shumla.

Lord Dufferin.

It is reported that Lord Dufferin will go to Asia Minor as British commissioner.

Orders for Supplies.

A Bucharest dispatch says: Orders have been received by officers in Bulgaria and Roumania to prepare supplies for part of the Russian army which will shortly return home.

The Arch-Bishop of Canterbury's Recommendation.

Arch-Bishop of Canterbury, the primate, has issued to the clergy of his diocese a recommendation that they who, during the past few weeks, have prayed for peace, should now, through general thanksgiving, return thanks to God that their prayers have been thus far answered.

A Swimming Test.

Captain Webb has commenced the test of swimming 35 hours continuously, without rest, in the Thames. He dived off the Parade at Woolwich at six o'clock this morning, and is now swimming towards Chertsey, on the Surrey bank, which place he will turn with the tide and come back to Woolwich, expecting to reach there at six o'clock this evening, when he will again turn with the tide and repeat the trip.

The Dull Times.

The Echo states that owing to the prostrate condition of the cotton trade, Hornby &amp; Son, of Brookhouse, the largest mill owners in Blackburn district, have given a fortnight's notice to their operatives that they will close the mill.

Bullion Withdrawn.

The amount of bullion withdrawn from the Bank of England on balance, to-day, is £50,000.

Stocks.

Consols 94 1/2; Londs 41's 107 1/2; 6's 107 1/2; Erie 124.

ITALY.

Cardinal Franchi's Funeral.

ROME, 2.—The funeral of the late Cardinal Franchi will be celebrated on Monday next; in the meantime audiences at the Vatican will be suspended.

AUSTRIA.

Extraordinary Precautions.

TRIESTE, 2.—It is reported that the men belonging to the Austrian navy, on leave, will shortly be ordered to return to their posts. The police are being placed at Trieste and other points on the Dalmatian coast, and extraordinary precautions have been taken in the waters of Pola and the roadstead of the sea.

CENTRAL AMERICA.

Unpleasant Relations.

PANAMA, 2.—The relations of the State Government with that of the nation are not pleasant. The officer who took charge of the navy a few days ago in the name of the nation, found that 198 arms out of 1,000 purchased by the General Government during the revolution of 1875, and seven of the remaining arms and a large quantity of cartridges, were in the hands of the State Government. A demand was made upon the President; but he refused to give them up, and said that 500 men are now on the way here. The missing arms have been distributed among the adherents of the state government, and they are expected to give a warm reception to the national troops should they come with hostile intentions.
