MRS. CHADWICK'S SECURITIES NO GOOD

Her Creditors May Receive One And a Half Mills on the Dollar

HER RELATION TO CARNECIE.

She Claimed to be lilegitimate Daughter--Remains in Tombs, Being Unable to Get Ball.

Cleveland, Dec. 11 .- According to the most accurate estimate of the estate of Mrs. Chadwick that is possible before the receiver has investigated her assets and reported his finding, to the court, her creditors as a whole will receive about one and one-half mills on the dollar

What lends additional interest to this showing from the creditors' standpoint is that one man, Ira Reynolds, will receive the whole of the assets visible at the present time. There may be funds in reserve somewhere, as there muy be additional creditors who have not yet announced that Mrs. Chadwick is in-debted to them, but it is not expected by bankers and attorneys of this city who have the greatest knowledge of her affairs, that any more large loans will be developed. The extent of her operations is now belleved to be approximately as fol-

Secured from Citizens' National bank secured from Chizens National Solution of Oberlin and various sources in and about Lorain county, O., $560,000; bor-rowed from business men in Pittsburg, $500,000; borrowed from Herbert D. Newton, $190,000, Total, $1,190,000, Against this stands security of known value on one note amounting to $1,800.

Against this stands security of known value on one note amounting to $1,800, which is held by Ira Heynolds. The amount of money received by Mrs. Chadwick in Flitsburg may run as high as $500,000, but it is believed that a portion of this sum is a bonus promised by her for an original loan of at least $500,000. Her creditor there figures that she is indebted to him for the larger amount, while she has adthe larger amount, while she has ad-mitted that she owes $500,000. If her debt in this direction is $500,000, the probabilities in sight for the creditors are about one and one-fifth mills on the dollar.

It is not believed by any of the attorneys in the case that Carnegie se-curities will be of any account what-ever. If they do at any time reveal value other than that of so many cents per pound of white paper, the delight of the lawyers will be comparable only to their amazement, and just now they are anticipating neither pleasure nor astonishment

The case of Mrs. Chadwick will tomorrow morning be brought before the grand jury of Cuyahoga county. The investigation will extend only to the alleged forgeries of the Carnegle notes alleged forgeries of the Carnegie notes and a report from the jury is expected not later than Tuesday. bank declared tonight that his implicit belief in the statements made to him by Mrs. Chadwick, in which she de-been told that the matter will be settled amicably. I have no doubt that my appointment as receiver will stand. Dr. Charles A. Eaton, pastor of the Euclid Baptist church, whose name has been mentioned in the Chadwick ase, and through whose good offices the woman managed to receive a hearing from Herbert Newton of Boston, occupied his pulpit as usual today. Dr. Eaton made no reference, although it had been rumored that he might do so, to the Chadwick affair. He feels keenthe publicity given his connection with the matter and heretofore has refused to make any comment. Eaton said tonight he could best ex-plain his connection with the matter by quoting from an interview with Banker Newton, from whom Mrs. Chad-wick secured a large sum. In that statement Banker Newton told how he became financially involved, refer-ring to the Eatons as follows: I believe that both Eatons acted in perfect good faith in the introduction, and that their confidences were abused, is were the confidences of many other persons

The introduction of Mrs. Chadwick to Mr. Newton referred to resulted from a letter from Dr. Eaton to his brother, John E. Eaton, who presented the woman at Newton's bank. Secy. Ira Reynolds of the Wade-Park ball. This procedure could be carried out as long as the government officials thought they had charges. Again there might come a conflict in authority. Mrs. Chadwick will remain quietly in the Tombs for the present. Her exam-ination is set for next Saturday before United States. Commissioner Shields. If further conferences should not be asked for, the commissioner will listen to the evidence with a view of deter-mining whether or not Mrs. Chadwick should be held for the federal grand jury.

It is not believed that a decision will he reached that day. In case Mrs. Chadwick is held for the federal grand jury it is not at all unlikely that one of the greatest legal battles fought in New York will follow.

It has been runnored that Dr. Leroy Chippen Chadwick was either in Paris, Berlin or Brussels, but an investigation In those places failed to reveal his presence, although many letters are awaiting the physician at the Hotel Metropole, Brussels, where he is a regllar patron

Philip Carpenter, Mrs. Chadwick's attorney, was asked tonight concerning the whereabouts of the husband of his client, but he declined to say. A awyer who has been connected with the recent figancial difficulties today, in answer to the report that steps might be eventually taken to compelthe return of Dr. Chadwick to this ountry, said: Any person who says that Dr. Chadwick can be brought back to the Unit-of States against his will because he "ive Herbert D. Newton checks which were returned marked 'without knows nothing of the law, Had the doctor bought a coat and given a worthless check he could have been wild for obtaining money under fals pretenses, but in this case there was no value received. He is said to have given two checks aggregating $50,000 as a part payment of his wife's in-debteaness. The checks were valueless, but no crime was committed, for Dr. Chadwick received nothing. New-ton received nothing. In other words, there was no value received and there-fore no crime committed. "It has been said that Mrs. Chad-wick sattled $2,500,000 of the money she borrowed on her husband three years ago. That will be a difficult thing to prove. It must first be shown that she borrowed that money and then that it was borrowed fraudulent-ly. It will seem reasonable that if the man could borrow such a large sum of money she must have had some exellent securities.

"It must be borne in mind that the first Carnegie note, which plays the most important role in this tragedy of finance, is much less than four years old, while it was three years ago that $2,500,000 were said to have been set-tled on Dr. Chadwick. It would have been impossible in so short a time to peroficie such a barry been include negotiate such a large loan on the strength of that note and it is highly probable that if she did give her husband that money she had bona fide se-charge of forgery cannot be made hold in connection with these notes. They declare that it is not an act of forgery for one person to write the name of another, but that the offense lies in the attempt to negotiate such a signature for a specified value.

This, they say, there is so far no evidence that Mrs. Chadwick has done. She has not sold nor attempted to sell the notes for each. She has not said that she would be glad to obtain money in exchange for them. She has obtained money from various sources on th statement of Ira Reynolds that she, to the best of her knowledge and bellef. held securities of a certain value, and whether he proves correct or otherwise in his value of the notes, there can be no doubt that Mr. Reynolds belleved what he said.

There has been, according to the at-torneys, no evidence so far obtained showing that Mrs. Chadwick obtained money on these notes in any other manner than through the attestation of Ira Reynolds that he had seen the notes and considered them go and considered them good. If any man lent money to Mrs. Chad-wick according to the strength of his helief in the ability of Mr. Reynolds to judge accurately of the value of securi-ties, then the affair, according to the attorneys who hold this view of the case, is one that rests only between that man and his own bard luck. Other charges may be brought home to her, they declare, but in their opin-ion it will be somewhat difficult to pun-

This, apparently, is the opinion of the Lorain county grand jury, which failed to return an indictment against her.

MRS. CHADWICK IN THE TOMBS.
