"TONG GENTLEMAN."

The Students of Ann Arbor, University of Mich.

ASS. ARBOR, Mich., May 26.—

The field day sports of the university yesterday developed into a small but enthusiastic and substantly until the morning ended begin. In the middle of the contest, William Vandy, Detroit

Athletic Club man, was killed against S. C. Gibbons, a university student. It was a shocking manifest of the most dangerous type. In the first round Vandy and Gibbons the boys and pounced him unmercifully, but could not get him down. Vandy struck Gibbons with the latter was on his knees, a clear case of foul play, but Vandy, a Detroit man, who was refereed, would not allow it and the students went on.

Vandy hammered Gibbons until the latter could not see or stand and fouled him twice, but Gibbons would not allow it and the students went on.

Vandy then had to defend his honor against Arthur Franzen, another university man, and another disgraceful and brutal exhibition was witnessed.

Both were bleeding from the mouth and nose when the third round began. Franzen had the best of the encounter, but Gibbons gave the fight. Gibbons was it seemed that as if Gibbons had had a broken back.

The students gathered around Gibbons with grief.

"GIBBONS," "GIBBONS," and other remarks of this kind were freely shouted.

Some of the lot Gibbons and he struck him. A free fight was on in the end.

A sharp sword rushed into the crowd and struck Gibbons in the back of the neck with the blade of the sword. He fell to the ground and the fight ended. He was taken to the hospital and was in a critical condition.

The news was brutal almost unbelievable and the manner of the attack was so brutal that it has been a disgrace to the university.

The students who were in the crowd at the time of the attack are being searched for by the police and are being held in custody.
