Correspondents writing for publication are requested to write on one side of the paper only. No notice can be taken of anonymous communications. Correspondents' names must in every instance accompany their communications, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of reliability.

THEATRICAL.—Last night the Theatre was crowded with a fashionable audience on the occasion of Mr. McKenzie's Benefit. It was a substantial compliment to him, which could not be mistaken. The first piece, "Wandering Stevie," was played very slow at times, but Mr. McKenzie's excellent playing in the title role, and Mr. Margret's admirable endeavors as Guy of the Gap, carried through the piece with success, much applause greeting the efforts of the former, and unbounded laughter being elicited by the unctuous perturbation of the latter.

Mr. Orem's act with the clubs showed him to be a powerful athlete, and he was loudly applauded.

The comedy, "Sweethearts and Wives," was a complete success, all the parts being well sustained, and Mr. Graham making a decided hit as Lackaday.

To-morrow evening the touching drama of "The Road of Life," and the fine high-comedy farce, "A Roland for an Oliver," are the attractions, and will make a most excellent entertainment. Both pieces are in good hands, and will well repay the expense and time of going to see them.

EARTHQUAKE AT SAN FRANCISCO.—By a Dispatch received, shortly before going to press, we learn that a severe earthquake occurred at San Francisco and adjoining cities this morning about 8 o'clock, extending as far east as Virginia, Nev. Several persons are reported killed and many houses badly shattered, some being completely demolished.

Another slight shock was felt at Virginia at half past 1 p.m.

PROFESSOR BOSCO.—This gentleman will give an exhibition of magic, in the Theatre, on Friday night. Many of his tricks are perfectly new, and all are performed with a finish which proves him not only a "professor," but well qualified to practice. In the dress rehearsal on Monday afternoon, he performed some tricks that excited the utmost admiration. We bespeak for him a crowded house, and have no hesitation in assuring the public that he is able to present them an entertainment worth patronizing.

MURDEROUS.—Cheyenne seems to be infected with a class of men who are a curse to any community where they are found. The Leader of the 13th says:

"This community was again startled this morning by the report of another murder. A man is found with a bullet hole through his head, and no one knows how or why he met his death. These affairs are again becoming painfully common in this community. It is no longer thought to be an affair of any importance to take the life of a fellow being. Pistols are almost as numerous as men, and they are whipped out and used upon the slightest occasion."

Another paragraph in the same paper gives the murdered man's name as Martin Murnane, one of the proprietors of a saloon and dance house. The evidence on the inquest revealed that he was a bad man, and had probably deserved his fate.

Two days previously two men—Thos. Hand and E. F. Cheney—partners, had a violent altercation, and both drew pistols, Cheney shot Hand in the region of the heart. Hand died immediately. These things speak bad of the "magic city."

GOY HOME.—We had the pleasure of meeting General H. B. G. Clawson last night, just in by stage from the East, where he had been transacting business and forwarding the last of this season's immigration. He is in good health and spirits. He speaks in warm terms of Dr. Durant's energy, and that of the gentlemen associated with him, in pushing forward the U. P. R. R. The track was laid, when he passed, to Granger's, at Ham's Fork, and it was expected that it would reach the Muddy in a few days. From the rate of progress, there is little doubt but the locomotive will be snorting on the banks of Bear River in a very short time.

SHOT HIM.—At the election in Benton, on the 13th, a man named Bell, an employee of the railway company, offered to poll his vote, when another man, named Tom McGraw, challenged the vote and he was obliged to swear it in. McGraw, it seems, not being satisfied, drew and began flourishing his revolver in a menacing manner, when Bell gave him the contents of a derringer, which took effect in his head. He was not expected to live. So says the Cheyenne Leader.

LIVELY ANTELOPE.—One of the objects of interest to travelers on the continental railroad, will be occasional glimpses at herds of buffalo, should they cross the track, herds of elk, antelope, and other game, which at times abound in places along the line of railroad. Late in the train from Green River east, encountered a large band of elk, a few miles west of Benton, which for two miles or more followed the cars. Out of the whole band but one was shot. Shooting was commenced and continued for the whole distance.

MADAME SCHELLER.—This lady took her complimentary and farewell benefit on last Thursday night, in Helena, presenting "The Life of An Actress." Speaking of her, with regard to this benefit, the Post says:

"For many weeks she has by her correct and artistic delineations, her rare representation and proved indeed a charm in our daily life. She has won the admiration of our citizens, and while we regret her early departure we cannot fail to testify that appreciation and respect by a testimonial that will cause Madame Scheller to be remembered in future years to look back upon her short visit to Helena with kindly feelings and cherished recollections."

From the Gazette we learn that a grand concert was to be given at the new Methodist Church, on Broadway, Helena, on last Monday evening, for which Madame Scheller had kindly volunteered her services, the proceeds being for a public purpose. The lady was to start Salt Lake-wards after the concert.

OBITUARY.

On Wednesday the 14th inst., Bro. Henry Erickson was thrown from a wagon, while descending a little hill near his residence, in Mill Creek ward, the loaded wagon passing over his body; he lived only about two hours and a half after the injury.

Decided was born in Stavanger, Norway, June 17th, 1822; he emigrated to Illinois in 1850, embraced the gospel December 25th, 1852; came to this valley in the fall of 1859.

The summation of death, though painful to his family and friends, and sudden and unexpected to all, yet he was prepared to meet it. He was always to be found in the line of his duty, and ever maintained that dignity of character that becomes a saint. He died respected and beloved by all who knew him.

In behalf of family and friends.

Alexander Ott died of pneumonia, at his residence in this city, October 15th, at 39 minutes to 9 a.m.

He was born July 1835, in Prussia. His father held a high office in the Prussian government. He embraced the gospel in Hamburg, Germany, about 14 years ago, and emigrated to this country in 1850, in company with his mother, who died on the plains of cholera, and was buried by his own hands. He has traveled and preached the gospel, and being able to speak several languages and translate others, having had a classical education, he was found a very efficient laborer in disseminating the principles of the gospel abroad. He had been sent on two missions, one to France and Jersey, and the other to the States, and assisted Elder John Taylor on the Mormon, published in New York. Only able to give very little attention to his avocation as school and private teacher, which profession he followed in this city, he died a saint, beloved by those around him, and is now at rest from his labors.—Orem.
