

Special Business Notices.

We will endeavor to satisfy you.

If all the Charter Oaks now in use are as good as the one we have used for nearly twenty years, you can recommend them with entire confidence, and we will endeavor all you say; having thoroughly tested their many excellent qualities, we are pleased to say that it is absolutely without a fault or imperfection, and a marvel of economy and neatness.

If anybody is driving cattle to Utah County within a week or two, will he please call at this office?

STOVES! STOVES! STOVES!—If you want your old stoves made new, take them to Tuckfield & Sons.

Mr. JAMES M. WARD and Miss Winnetta Montague make their last appearance in the Theatre this evening, in the drama of "The Winning Hand." Mr. Ward in four characters, Miss Montague in two. See the advt.

GREAT AUCTION SALE TO-DAY, at 12 M., 4 P.M. and also this EVENING, opposite the Herald Office. Be all on hand.

THE RAPID popularity gained in this Territory by the OLIVER CHILLED PLOW during the short time it has been introduced here is something marvelous. This splendid plow has distanced all competition, and now stands at the head of the list, unequalled by any implement of the kind ever brought to Utah. With the Oliver Plow FALL PLOWING can be done QUICKLY and EASILY and WITHOUT IRRIGATING, no matter how hard and dry the soil. It is offered on the most favorable terms by Howard Seebie, at the Bain Wagon Depot, one-half block south of Theatre.

DAN JONES' SADDLE TREES, with LOU HOOK to rig them, then we think we can give a better saddle for less money than anybody.

ABSENSES and Sore of long standing, which have resisted the operation of ointments and washes, may be cleansed and healed by frequent and persistent washing with Glenn's Sulphur Soap.

Is opening a store for the sale of home manufactures in the building lately occupied by the Woman's Centennial Territorial Fair, known as the Old Constitution Building, opposite Z. C. M. I. store.

We are now ready to receive home-made useful and ornamental articles of all kinds, which we will sell on commission. Many of our citizens have felt the want of a place devoted exclusively to Utah productions, and now that we are, in accordance with the wishes of President Young, uniting our humble efforts in this direction, we confidently trust that we shall not only have the support of all branches of the Relief Society throughout the valleys of the mountains, but also of our brethren and all others who feel an interest in the future welfare and prosperity of Utah.

Commencing as we do without capital, we wish it distinctly understood that at present we can only sell on commission. ELIZA R. SNOW, President. PRISCILLA M. STAINES, Vice President. ELIZABETH DAVIS, Secretary.

Appointment.—Elder Wm. Paxman, Travelling Elder in the London Conference, is appointed President of that Conference.—Millennial Star, Sept. 18.

Lost.—A pair of silver mounted spectacles in a case, somewhere between Mr. T. W. Ellerbeck's house, 17th Ward, and President Wells' house. Any one finding the same, and leaving them at this office, will confer a favor on the owner.

High Council.—The members of the High Council are requested to meet at the Council House on Monday evening next, at half past six o'clock. A full attendance is wished.

GEO. F. GIBBS, Clerk.

Seventies' Meeting.—The 15th and 22nd Quorums of Seventies will meet at the 7th Ward School-house, directly after the close of the afternoon services in the Tabernacle, on Sunday, Oct. 8th. A full attendance of the members is desired.

Sunday School Movement.—A general meeting of the Sunday school superintendents and teachers of the Territory was held at the Fourteenth Ward Assembly Rooms last evening. Of the Twelve Apostles were present Elders John Taylor, Wilford Woodruff, F. D. Richards, and George Q. Cannon. There were representatives from nearly all of the counties and the time was occupied mostly by hearing from the superintendents, the reports of the progress of the movement being very encouraging, and indicated that the Bishops and other leading men were taking a more lively interest in it than heretofore.

We look upon this movement as one of the most important that can be considered by the community. Its interests are at the foundation of the superstructure of the future greatness and prosperity of the Saints.

Murder Case.—Some time since John B. Tasker, a young fellow named Macfarlane, and the latter's wife, associates of the aforesaid notorious Tasker, were indicted by the grand jury for the murder of Robert Lund, who had suddenly and mysteriously disappeared, suspicion pointing to Tasker et al. as having dealt foully with Lund, there having been a dispute between him and Tasker. A rumor had got about that Lund had been murdered by Tasker and companions, and put down a dry well near the mouth of Bingham Canon, about seventeen miles from this city. Efforts were made by the officers of the law to discover the whereabouts of the absent horse thief, but none were successful until the day before yesterday, when the body was found in the well before alluded to, which is ninety feet deep. The body was covered with several feet of soil, different from that of the well, and a pile of rocks. The remains were brought to the County Court House yesterday afternoon, and in the evening an inquest was held by Coroner Taylor and a jury, which was resumed and concluded this morning, the evidence as to the remains being those of Robert Lund being conclusive, and the verdict of the jury, Joseph W. Johnson, Joseph Horn and Wm. B. Wilkinson, being to that effect accordingly.

Painful Accident.—Mr. Oliver Belknap, son of Bishop G. Belknap, of Hooper, has been engaged hauling ties near Soda Springs. About eleven days since, while riding on his wagon, his left leg was caught between a stump on the roadside and his wagon brake, breaking one of the bones of his leg, and dislocating the ankle. The fracture was reduced by Drs. Murphy and Condon to-day.

The wound, though painful, is not considered dangerous, and he is entertained that the patient will soon recover from the effects of the accident.—Ogden Junction, Oct. 6.

A Woman's Convention.—On Wednesday, Oct. 4th, at 2 o'clock p.m., the officers and members of the Relief Society from all the different wards of the city and vicinity convened at the Council House by previous appointment. Pres. E. B. Snow acted as president and explained to the sisters that President B. Young would not be present, as had been anticipated, but would send his private Secretary with a communication. She then nominated Mrs. M. I. Horne to preside over the meeting, and Mrs. E. B. Wells to act as Secretary, which motions were unanimously carried.

After the opening exercises, the assemblage being too large to be accommodated in the Council House, the meeting adjourned to the Old Tabernacle. Elder George Reynolds, having arrived, read President Young's communication, arose and addressed the sisters on the object of the meeting and read the following letter from President Young:

"SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 4th, 1876.

"To the President, and Members of the Relief Society, in meeting assembled at the Council House this afternoon:

"Dear Sisters:—It would be very gratifying to us if you could form an association to start business in the capacity of disposing of home-made articles, such as are manufactured among ourselves, for the benefit of the Latter-day Saints; also to make a selection from among the sisters, members of this association, to take charge and carry on this business on commission or by purchase, and to transact all the business pertaining to this institution. If you cannot be satisfied with the selection of sisters from among yourselves to take charge, we will render you assistance by furnishing a competent and reliable transaction of the financial matters of this establishment.

"Your brother in the Gospel,"

"BRIAN YOUNG."

After reading this letter, Brother Reynolds made some very suggestive and appropriate remarks on home industries and the great desire President Young felt to have the people push forward in the development of home-manufacture.

An organization was formed by electing the following persons as officers of the association:—Miss E. R. Snow, President; Mrs. Priscilla Staines, Vice-President; Mrs. Elizabeth Davis, Secretary; Mrs. Bathsheba Smith, Treasurer; Mrs. Sarah M. Kimball, Mrs. Lydia Ann Wells, Mrs. Phoebe Woodruff, Mrs. Presindia Kimball, Directors. Many excellent remarks were made by the officers and such suggestions by Miss E. R. Snow and others were adapted to the occasion and organization of the association. After all the business had been transacted which seemed requisite at the time, the officers of the board were requested to meet at the Old Constitution building at 6 o'clock the same evening, and after singing and prayer the Convention adjourned sine die.

Conference.—The general authorities of the Church were presented and sustained in Conference this afternoon, with the following changes from last Conference:—John W. Young, as First Counselor to President B. Young, instead of Assistant Counselor. William McLaughlin and Geo. Whitaker, counselors to the President of the Priests' Quorum. Wm. H. Folsom, Assistant to Truman O. Angell, Architect of the Church.

After the presentation of the authorities, the Conference was addressed by Elder Joseph F. Smith.

Nearly an Accident.—Some excitement was caused on East Temple Street this afternoon by a horse attached to a light wagon throwing out his heels furiously, breaking the dashboard in pieces, endangering the lives of three small children, who were in the vehicle. The horse started to run away, but was promptly caught by an active young man, who happened to be near.

Theatre.—Mr. J. M. Ward and Miss Winnetta Montague presented the sensational drama of "Through by Daylight" again at the Theatre last night. The piece, being full of striking situations and attractive scenes, and being spiritedly played, went off well, and met with considerable applause. Miss Montague's singing manifestly pleased the house, and the singing and dancing of Mr. Ward was vigorously and vociferously encored. The two were creditably supported by the home company. The first and the last act of the play have some stirring scenic effects.

This evening Mr. Ward and Miss Montague make their last appearance, when they will present the original, sensational, and emotional four-act drama of "The Winning Hand," or the Lone House on the Hook," which they played for 200 consecutive nights at Wood's Theatre, New York. Mr. Ward appears as "Harold Thornton," "Dan O'Rafferty," "Farmer Sam," and "Broken Down Sport," with songs, and Miss Montague as "Grace Dashwood" and "Liverpool Mary," with song. Mr. Lindsey appears in a dual character, Mr. Graham as "FitzCarlyle," Mr. Williams as "Dashwood," Mr. Harris as "Cluffy," Mr. Foster as "Redway," Mr. Clarke as a detective.

Curtain rises at eight o'clock.

The Indian Campaign in Canada—A Contrast.

Our Manitoba friends congratulate themselves that the result of their Summer's work in pacifying Indians is vastly more fruitful of advantages to them than are our military campaigns to the people this side the line. The Winnipeg Star, recapturing the national military marches and suffering of our troops, the bloody disasters in the field and the enormous expense of the nation's treasury, and then complacently remarks:—

"The Indian campaign in Canada has been of a different nature. The Governor and half a dozen officials have been away in the northwest Territory during the past six weeks, hunting up our Indians, armed with treaties and presents, and so far as heard from their success has been remarkable. They have met the Indians in large numbers at different points in the Territory, and we hear that on every occasion they have come off victorious, carrying away with them, as the result of each encounter, treaties signed by the chiefs of tribes, ceding their rights over immense districts of territory, and leaving behind them nothing worse than cartloads of presents for the Indians, and the memory of a visit pleasant and profitable to both sides. It is thus we hope to fight and win all our Indian campaigns. To the United States we will leave the exclusive employment on such occasions of force, foot and artillery. We shall be content with a contract, reduced to writing, and signed by both parties. Conflicts kept and justice observed, has ever been and will ever be, we trust, the bond of union between Canada and her children. Well would it have been for our neighbors had they faithfully observed their treaty obligations with their Indians. Had they done so it would have saved them thousands of lives and millions of treasure, and preserved them from the condemnation of their own people and the rest of the world."

The above is pretty severe, but not very well understood. Our dealings with Indians have been a shame and a disgrace to the country from the earliest period of its settlement, and unless there is a radical change we shall continue to blunder and stumble along a wearying pathway of blood until the race of the Indian is extinct.
