COUNTY BOARD PASSES
THREE NEW LAWS

County Ordinances Against Drunkenness and Littering.

(Special Correspondence.)

OGDEN, Nov. 30.—At the session of the county board yesterday, three important ordinances were adopted. The new laws are for the regulation and licensing of the hawkers and peddlers in the county, fixing the liquor license and penalizing drunkenness and fixing the punishment for the violation of the same.

The ordinance on the liquor license sets the annual license at $12.00, payable in advance each quarter. Hawkers and peddlers traveling through the county must obtain a license, which costs $25 per year.

The violation of either of the above laws is punishable by a fine of not to exceed $100 or six months imprisonment in the county jail.

The ordinance against drunkenness sets punishment by a fine not to exceed $50 or 30 days imprisonment in the county jail, or both.

The ordinance was passed as the result of the cases that the county has to deal with during the summer months when the canyon resorts are in operation and during which time cases of drunkenness are frequent. To be less, it is stated, will regulate the liquor traffic in the canyon to a great extent.

The law licensing peddlers in the county was passed at the instigation of the merchants of Ogden.

Fry is charged with permitting gambling.

Abstracts of all water rights owned by the city were submitted and ordered filed.

A large crowd of spectators at the hearing of this case last Monday, the court dismissed the action through error in the papers and another complaint was filed. A great deal of evidence was introduced by both sides at the hearing yesterday, and the court took the matter under advisement till Tuesday morning, before passing judgment.

B. Owen was arraigned on the charge of vagrancy and dismissed. John Jones was charged with resisting an officer and stealing several pairs of shoes. He was charged with selling tobacco to minors, did not appear and his bond of $25 was declared forfeited. Charles Crumpton, charged with conducting a gambling house was represented in court by legal counsel. His trial was set for Friday morning, Dec. 3.

COUNCIL COMPLETES ORDNANCE REVISION

Effort Will be Made to Repeal Prohibition Ordinance—City Is Redistricted.

(Special Correspondence.)

PROVO, Nov. 30.—The city council at its meeting last evening finished the revision of the city ordinances, and made provisions for their publication. The vote on the passage of the ordinances stood 8 to 2. Councilmen Hebe and Crater voting in the affirmative. It was that the prohibition ordinance, which goes into effect Jan. 1, is a part of the revised ordinances. It was explained, however, that even if the revised ordinance should not pass, the liquor ordinance would remain just as it was before revision, as would all the other ordinances. It is possible that an ordinance to repeal the liquor ordinance will be brought in. Councilman Miller said he was in favor of such action; he was strongly in favor of prohibition, he said, but under the present conditions he thought it would be a favor if it will not be possible, however, for the opponents of the ordinance to repeal it.

The drugists' license was materially reduced, owing to the fact that liquor selling privileges are not granted. The license are from $20 to $25 a year up to a capital stock of $5,000, and $5 additional for each $1,000 in excess of $5,000.

CITY REDISTRICTED.

In the revision of the ordinances the city's municipal wards have been redistricted. From the first ward has been taken the tier of blocks south of Center street to Fifth South, and between Academy avenue and First East street and added to the Second ward. From the Fifth ward has been taken the tier of blocks between Academy avenue and First East street, from Center street to Fifth North street and added to the Fourth ward. From the Third ward has been taken the tier of blocks between Fifth and

"When my little boy was two and a half months old he broke out on both cheeks with eczema. It was the itchy, watery kind and we had to keep his little hands wrapped up all the time, and if he would happen to get them uncovered he would claw his face till the blood streamed down on his clothing. We called in a physician at once, but he gave an ointment which was so severe that my babe would scream when it was put on. We called in another doctor and he gave us a different ointment, but we had spent fifty dollars or more and baby was getting worse. I was so worn out watching and caring for him night and day that I almost felt sure the disease was incurable. But finally reading of the good results of Cuticura Remedies, I determined to try them. I can truly say I was more than surprised, for I bought only a dollar and a half's worth of the Cuticura Remedies (Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills), and they did more good than all my doctors' medicines I had tried, and in fact entirely cured him. I will send you a photograph taken when he was fifteen months old and you can see his face is perfectly clear of the least spot or scar of anything. If I ever have this trouble again I will never think of doctoring but will send for the Cuticura Remedies at once. As it is, I would never think of using any other than Cuticura Soap for my babe. You are at liberty to publish this, it may help some distressed mother as I was helped. Mrs. W. M. Comer, Burnett, Pa., Sept. 15, 1908."
