

Missionary Report.

G. S. L. City, July 4, 1859.

EDITOR DESERET NEWS:—

Peace and confidence must be on the increase in this Territory from the fact that no less than six of the "Twelve Apostles," the "big guns," have been sent on a mission to Washington Territory.

Wino.

RELIGIOUS FERVOR QUENCHED.—Not long since there was a great excitement among negroes in the neighborhood of a certain southern city. Numbers were baptized nearly every day. On one occasion the colored preacher was leading a big fellow named Bob into the water to baptize him. Bob was a little in advance and coming to a "stepping off place," down he went, dragging the preacher after him. After considerable floundering and spluttering they both reached the shore, when Bob, very much excited, delivered himself thus:

"Now look hear! some man'll lose a nigger yet by dis dam foolishness!"

The solemnity of the occasion was somewhat disturbed by this outburst, and Bob concluded that hydronathy was not exactly the thing, and marched off.

Married:

In this city, on Monday, June 27, by Elder John Taylor, Mr. CHARLES SHARP and Miss ANN MALLIN, both of this city.

[Millennial Star please copy.]

Died:

At her father's residence, near Santa Cruz, California, May 28, Mrs. ANGELINE HART, daughter of Mr. Moses A. Meder, aged 22 years.

In Spanish Fork city, Utah county, on the 9th of June inst., WALTER LAST, son of Samuel and Hannah Cornaby.

In the following lines, addressed by Mrs. Leah to Mrs. Cornaby, the plural number is used, as also referring to another child of the same parents, died a few months previously:

Peace to thy soul, my sister dear;
The spirit gently whispers now—
Come wipe away the falling tear
And chase the sorrow from thy brow.

I know the pangs that rend thy soul—
The tender offerings now are fled,
To circle round the Savior's throne;
Like stars they'll glitter on thy head.

The gentle buds bestowed on thee
Are fled from this vain world of grief;
Their spirits could no longer stay—
Alas! they found a sweet relief.

With gentle care both day and night,
A tender mother thou hast been;
Thou shalt be crown'd with endless light
With all the graces of a queen.

May gentle peace her wings spread o'er
Thy dwelling, from this very hour,
And give thee strength the race to run,
Upheld by God's almighty power.
