

THE EVENING NEWS.

MATERIALS. JULY 10, 1861.

PRICE OF GOLD.

Price of Gold by D. L. RICHARDSON, NATIONAL BANK, SALT LAKE CITY, July 10, 1861.

Gold $13.00. Silver 50c. Gold 50c.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

DRUG STORE. — Remember that Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder has been before the public for years — it is the only Powder that has won the entire world over to its market place articles, and do not pretend to compete with the adulterated, inferior, and not infrequently forged upon the people. They claim that Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder and Special Pantry are the cheapest, because they are the purest; and their standard for strength and purity will be maintained.

The Chicago Tribune, in an exhaustive discussion of the woman suffrage question, arrives at some bold and important conclusions: "The difference of sex is after all, an insurmountable difference. The abolition of the distinction in clothes does not begin to make it."

PAPER ROLLING at this office.

Mr. CROOKER of "Pat McNealy's,"

The means man on record is a Yankee, who refuses to pay his first wife the money he borrows from her to bribe a Chicago Judge in a divorce trial in which she was defendant, and to cover the expense of his bridal tour with her successor.

The person who found a Plate with Sheet Metal, the afternoon or evening in this city, still remains unknown. Joseph Brown, 12th Ward, was rewarded $200 for "it."

MISS ADAMS' "Melanie Haversack" to-night.

The most thoroughly ventilated man in Oswego," says a Kanawha paper, "the boys followed around for a while. He has nineteen buckshot holes in his left breast and twenty-one in his left arm."

READ City Ordinance about license.

TOWNSHIP Bonds for sale at this office.

What effort of man, or the defense against evil, has ever reached its final triumph, since the world began? — The combined effort of Civilization, the arts, separation, is, doubtless, the great instrument of progress. Civilization would collapse into barbarism without it.

SUMMERS, Servants at $50 per month, at Utah Lamb's.

J. J. THAYER.

See advt. ofistry cow in 1st Ward.

The mangle, a beautiful green which abounds about San Diego in immense quantities, grows to the size of a tree.

ADDRESS of CHURCH ENTHUSIASM.

— My wife & I, St. Louis, Mo., New York City.

A New York paper says those men who place a $10 bill on the desk of a Government clerk as they go to get their pay, have their questions answered with promptness and dispatch, and go out feeling that the stories of red tape are malicious slander and slanders.

READ advertisement of horse and mule stray from Clarkton.

The prevailing feminine weakness for gigantic dresses caused a Boston girl to lay violent hands on her mother's bluer plates, which she covered and wore on her dress in Commencement Day. Her envious school-fellows have been unable to discover where she bought them.

LEADS for sale at this office.

See entry under Salt Lake, Utah and Kansas.

This is the Nelle Giant bathing suit which has become so fashionable in all the summer resorts. Gentleman's waist, white or dark, a short belt, and a skirt tied to the waist by a belt and tassels; hemps shoes and chip hat tied down with a broad band of ribbon. Ash gray, bound with scarlet, and blue, which are the favorite combinations.

Mr. VARNER as "Haversack" and "Major Puffenbacher" to-night.

ALL KINDS of Order, Receipt and Certificate Books printed and bound at this office.

A Cincinnati policeman was seen eating green apples the other day, and the Times congratulates the public on art and taste. The police force, and suggests that the hucksters bring in more green apples.

Mrs. CROSSING as "Mary Morrison" and "Nancy" to-night.

MANUFACTURERS and SHOE BUS.

printed the Office.

A Long Branch correspondent says: "At first sight the stranger cannot but be impressed with the idea that American ladies know better how to dress — and that the hucksters bring in more green apples."

Quite CLARK DANCE for sale at this office.

MRS. WADDELL as "Dora" to-night.

It is very doubtful if there is a single person in the country who did not have cold water ad libitum. Oh, how babies often suffer for cold water!

It is now a common practice for the lips to be dried and moistened, and the little tongue so parched it can scarcely move, and yet it can drink but milk to assuage its craving thirst.

When you have a fever, we are sure that ever after, when your darling is dying with thirst, the teats of your mother of solid water will be in company.

Dance is milk and give a plenty of cold water, and it has a chance of steady recovery.

THREE COUCHES for sale at this office.

After surviving for ninety-seven years and going through two falls, John Harris, of Georgia, fell over a wheelbarrow the other day and was killed.

Last night of the engagement of the WaddeLLS, Mrs. WaddeLL, was shot dead at Canton, Mississippi, on the 3d, by a spring gun in a smoke-house belonging to J. C. Troutman. The master had a window pulled across the room, and the gun went off, killing the thief that broke in the house that Troutman built.

Mr. WADDELL as "Farmer Allen,"

The United States is not the only country which has been compelled to criticize the acts of the confederacy to the Vienna Exposition. Baron Schwarzenbom, of Austria, who has been charged with the inhibition, has got himself into trouble also, through his lavish expenditure of the funds of his government. The latter, becoming alarmed, recently appointed a committee to investigate the acts of the confederacy. This, the Baron submitted an account, which he accepted, and which was accepted at last account.

The mom character of Mr. De Wolf's novel was made of diamonds, and the author died. One of the colored clerks he did not know is now a general writer in all manner of literature, and is known to have written the greatest story in the city of New York.

General C. G. Schuyler, formerly of the 1st Regt. N.Y. Inf., has been appointed to the command of the 1st Regt. N.Y. Inf., and is to be present at the inauguration of the new president.

John De Wolf, the author of "Paul De Wolf," died in London, in January, after a long illness, and was buried in the cemetery of the British Church.

He was not able to continue the year.

John De Wolf, the author of "Paul De Wolf," died in London,

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

TEMPERATURE 50 degrees F. in shade, at 1 p.m. today. Some clouds.

MEETINGS IN THE TABERNACLE at ten and two o'clock, to-morrow, and in the various Ward meeting rooms, and in the evening.

FARMINGTON — PALESTINE. — President George A. Smith will deliver an address on his late tour of Palestine, Saturday morning, at the meeting house in Farmington. Meeting at the usual hour.

PEIRCE AND SIXTH WARD. — Elder Henry Lamp of Cedar City, is expected to preach at Peirce and Sixth and Eighth meeting houses to-morrow evening.

A WARM PLACE. — Those who are abroad the winter now, must be in a rather warm place, for notwithstanding the clouds, the mercury ranged about 50° for a while this afternoon.

JUDICIAL SERVICE. — The New York Graphic, commenting upon the case of an ex-United States Judge for Utah, a stout fellow, who has a good deal of money, and is a man of some influence, says there is a moral in the story of a reformer.

THE FIGURE. — The main compartment of the First National Bank now building is being laid with beautiful colored marbles.

NOTICE. — The members of the Board and Lander Company No. 1 are requested to meet at the Firemen's Hall, on Monday evening, July 21st, at six o'clock p.m., for Company drill. — By order, Wm. L. BENDIX,

PEIRCE. — A disengaged female from Salt Lake, who is now here, says: "The Mormons are greatly disturbed."

Has anybody in town seen anything of that disturbance? It strikes us that the mormon has run too high of late for people to indulge largely in the excitement of a general disturbance.

PEIRCE. — Two granite pedestals, one square and one round, are being placed by the sidewalk in front of the City Hall. They are to be used as bases for two lamps.

SANPETE AND SISTER. — Wm. Morrison, writing from Richfield, Sevier Co., July 10, says that Eldred W. Young and C. M. Morrissey, of the Tabernacle congregations at Moroni on the 7th, Wards 1, 2, 3, and 4, and on the 8th, Ward 5, and 6, and Gambier on the 10th.

PHENOMENON. — The members of the Pioneer and Alert Halls Companies are requested to meet at the Engine House on Monday, evening, July 21st, at 8 o'clock p.m.

EXCUSE. — We are requested to state that residents of the 20th Ward intend to accompany the Sunday School excursion to the Tabernacle, on the 21st inst., must obtain their tickets before Monday evening, July 21st, either at the Ward stores or at Savage's Art Gallery.

BOOKS AND STATIONERY. — Mr. George Farworth, of Mount Pleasant, Salt Lake, has opened a book, stationery, and variety store at that place. He will keep on hand a stock of the Church publications, with which will be prepared to supply the wants of the Tabernacle congregation.

ELIAS SMITH. — Elias Smith was appointed chairman of the Salt Lake Tabernacle for the purpose of nominating four members to the Legislative Council; for the above assemblies, and each officer for Salt Lake, who are necessary to elect the 1st of August next.

JOHN M. LEWIS. — John M. Lewis presented his credentials as delegate from Summit Co., and Messrs. James Woods and Geo. W. Bryan, from Iron County, were also present.

The following committee of nine for the purpose of nominating was appointed: Geo. A. Smith, J. A. Young, Jas. F. Smoot, John L. Caine, D. W. Evans, D. W. Evans, D. L. Richards.

The committee retired, and E. S. Smith, was called on to make a report, which was unanimously approved.

To locate University lands, John Van Cott, T. S. Hills and John Rowley.

For members of the Legislative Council, John M. Lewis, and Geo. W. Bryan, from Iron County, and John L. Caine, for Salt Lake.

For Selectmen for S. L. Co., Elijah M. Waller.

For Coroner, Geo. J. Taylor.

Vacancies in several of the precincts of Salt Lake county were mentioned, but on motion it was resolved to leave these nominations to the next session.

A motion for a vote of thanks to the Chairman was moved and seconded, but the gentleman, instead of putting it to the convention, declined going through the formality, and the convention adjourned sine die.

The poet Manzoni left a great mass of notes for a projected history of the French revolution, which he intended to draw in from the course of twenty-seven years, out of two hundred thousand original documents.

The following committee of nine for the purpose of nominating was appointed: Geo. A. Smith, J. A. Young, Jas. F. Smoot, John L. Caine, D. W. Evans, D. W. Evans, D. L. Richards.

The committee retired, and E. S. Smith, was called on to make a report, which was unanimously approved.

TO LOCATE UNIVERSITY LANDS. — John Van Cott, T. S. Hills and John Rowley.

For members of the Legislative Council, John M. Lewis, and Geo. W. Bryan, from Iron County, and John L. Caine, for Salt Lake.

For Selectmen for S. L. Co., Elijah M. Waller.

For Coroner, Geo. J. Taylor.

Vacancies in several of the precincts of Salt Lake county were mentioned, but on motion it was resolved to leave these nominations to the next session.

A motion for a vote of thanks to the Chairman was moved and seconded, but the gentleman, instead of putting it to the convention, declined going through the formality, and the convention adjourned sine die.

The poet Manzoni left a great mass of notes for a projected history of the French revolution, which he intended to draw in from the course of twenty-seven years, out of two hundred thousand original documents.

The following committee of nine for the purpose of nominating was appointed: Geo. A. Smith, J. A. Young, Jas. F. Smoot, John L. Caine, D. W. Evans, D. W. Evans, D. L. Richards.

The committee retired, and E. S. Smith, was called on to make a report, which was unanimously approved.

TO LOCATE UNIVERSITY LANDS. — John Van Cott, T. S. Hills and John Rowley.

For members of the Legislative Council, John M. Lewis, and Geo. W. Bryan, from Iron County, and John L. Caine, for Salt Lake.

For Selectmen for S. L. Co., Elijah M. Waller.

For Coroner, Geo. J. Taylor.

Vacancies in several of the precincts of Salt Lake county were mentioned, but on motion it was resolved to leave these nominations to the next session.

A motion for a vote of thanks to the Chairman was moved and seconded, but the gentleman, instead of putting it to the convention, declined going through the formality, and the convention adjourned sine die.

The poet Manzoni left a great mass of notes for a projected history of the French revolution, which he intended to draw in from the course of twenty-seven years, out of two hundred thousand original documents.

The following committee of nine for the purpose of nominating was appointed: Geo. A. Smith, J. A. Young, Jas. F. Smoot, John L. Caine, D. W. Evans, D. W. Evans, D. L. Richards.

The committee retired, and E. S. Smith, was called on to make a report, which was unanimously approved.

TO LOCATE UNIVERSITY LANDS. — John Van Cott, T. S. Hills and John Rowley.

For members of the Legislative Council, John M. Lewis, and Geo. W. Bryan, from Iron County, and John L. Caine, for Salt Lake.

For Selectmen for S. L. Co., Elijah M. Waller.

For Coroner, Geo. J. Taylor.

Vacancies in several of the precincts of Salt Lake county were mentioned, but on motion it was resolved to leave these nominations to the next session.

A motion for a vote of thanks to the Chairman was moved and seconded, but the gentleman, instead of putting it to the convention, declined going through the formality, and the convention adjourned sine die.

The poet Manzoni left a great mass of notes for a projected history of the French revolution, which he intended to draw in from the course of twenty-seven years, out of two hundred thousand original documents.

The following committee of nine for the purpose of nominating was appointed: Geo. A. Smith, J. A. Young, Jas. F. Smoot, John L. Caine, D. W. Evans, D. W. Evans, D. L. Richards.

The committee retired, and E. S. Smith, was called on to make a report, which was unanimously approved.

TO LOCATE UNIVERSITY LANDS. — John Van Cott, T. S. Hills and John Rowley.

For members of the Legislative Council, John M. Lewis, and Geo. W. Bryan, from Iron County, and John L. Caine, for Salt Lake.

For Selectmen for S. L. Co., Elijah M. Waller.

For Coroner, Geo. J. Taylor.

Vacancies in several of the precincts of Salt Lake county were mentioned, but on motion it was resolved to leave these nominations to the next session.

A motion for a vote of thanks to the Chairman was moved and seconded, but the gentleman, instead of putting it to the convention, declined going through the formality, and the convention adjourned sine die.

The poet Manzoni left a great mass of notes for a projected history of the French revolution, which he intended to draw in from the course of twenty-seven years, out of two hundred thousand original documents.

The following committee of nine for the purpose of nominating was appointed: Geo. A. Smith, J. A. Young, Jas. F. Smoot, John L. Caine, D. W. Evans, D. W. Evans, D. L. Richards.

The committee retired, and E. S. Smith, was called on to make a report, which was unanimously approved.

TO LOCATE UNIVERSITY LANDS. — John Van Cott, T. S. Hills and John Rowley.

For members of the Legislative Council, John M. Lewis, and Geo. W. Bryan, from Iron County, and John L. Caine, for Salt Lake.

For Selectmen for S. L. Co., Elijah M. Waller.

For Coroner, Geo.