Jaasi Nagamatsu, a young man from Yokohama, Japan, is registered in the university. For four years he attended the university of the emperor of Japan at Tokio, where he mastered the Chinese and Japanese languages. He says these languages are much easier to learn than English.

The Sophomores will give a ball in the assembly room Oct. 24.

Early last week the Sophomores issued a challenge to the Freshmen for a match game of football. On Thursday the Freshmen accepted the challenge and appointed Messrs. Snow and Long to select their men for their line.

The fourth year normals met on Monday and considered class plans and the election of class historian. They also decided to give a character ball next Halloween evening Oct. 31.

The junior officers recently elected were: C. Dix, president; Zabriskie, secretary; J. E. Smith, treasurer; and class historian, J. E. Smith. Also elected were: J. E. Smith, John Condie, and J. E. Smith, executive committee.

On Thursday the college women held a little meeting in their hall. Today they attended the Varsity-High school football game, wearing their caps and colors.

The 44 normals elected their class officers on Thursday. Fred D. Walton is president, Jennie Hill is vice president, Anna Nordvall is secretary and treasurer, and Geo. Larson, Jennie Nordvall, J. M. Carlson, and Lottie Nordvall constitute the executive committee.

The schools of this city have been visited in large numbers this week by the teaching force in all sections of the state. From all sources of information it is learned that the practical work seen in our excellent system has been a great inspiration and will be most helpful in their future work.

The Ladies' club gave the teachers of the Twelfth school, and also the visiting teachers a fine luncheon on Wednesday.

Outlines for teaching United States history in the Salt Lake City schools have been prepared by Principals William Bradford, A. S. Martin and D. M. Quailrough.

Supt. Elliott gave an appreciative talk to some teachers at the Washington school on Wednesday. Her courtesy was most cordially received.

J. A. Watt and Mr. Melville of the Oahu schools were visitors at the Twelfth school on Wednesday.

A. Wootton of Midway, formerly superintendent of the Wasatch schools, visited the schools of the city this week.

The Quilts gave delicate luncheons to visiting teachers on Wednesday and Thursday. On Wednesday there were 50 guests, and on Thursday 55.

A gentleman visiting the Summer this week was impressed with the neat and tidy appearance of the rooms, corridors and basement of that building.

The Wasatch school by reason of losing its sessions last week has had, with the exception of Friday, full sessions the present week.

Prest, J. H. Paul invited Dr. Hughes, Supt. Christensen and the corps of Supt. H. M. Aird of Wasatch county looked in upon the work this week.

WEST SIDE HIGH SCHOOL.

The first month's examinations disclose very satisfactory work.

The good results accruing from the military organization are manifest in better discipline throughout the school.

The mid-year English class has been making a study of "How to Use the Dictionary."

Miss Herron of Wasatch academy, Mt. Pleasant, spent Wednesday in the English classes.

Miss Tietzen of the Neigh schools paid, the German classes a visit on Thursday.

Mr. Travis lectured before the civics classes on Friday, upon "British Government."

The U. S. history classes are studying the era of discovery and exploration, and the class in Greek history is studying oriental history as introductory to Greek history proper.

BRANCH NORMAL.

Order City, Utah, Oct. 9.—The Art association met last week and elected William Reed president. Later the singing class was completed, and singing is now being made to do regular field work.

The chemistry class has proved a popular subject, 50 students having registered for it. Mr. Ward finds the laboratory problem a hard one to solve, but arrangements have been made to accommodate all.

The Students' society is to give a musical program next Friday night. The brass band, the choral society, and the glee club of the Normal will furnish most of the numbers.

The library recently received half a dozen mail sacks full of books from the department of the interior. They include many reports, valuable particularly in the scientific work.

During students' chapel last Friday, Willard Jones gave an address on "Growth," and Mabel Knell sang a solo. Instructor Lewis is chaplain this week.

L. D. S. UNIVERSITY.

Many conference visitors attended various departments of the school this week.

The students held a mass meeting on Thursday at noon, and voted to hold the weekly entertainments on Fridays, from 4 to 8 p. m.

It is understood that the Friday entertainment is to be wholly under the direction of the student's society, which represents the entire school.

Next Wednesday morning Miss Judith Anderson, one of the students, will sing; and the various student organizations will report to the school the outline for their work for the ensuing season.

Next Monday at 4 p. m., the students will meet in Barratt hall, and will determine upon temporary officers for the general student's society, and the Beta Beta Pi and the Columbian will take steps to perfect these organizations.

There will probably be a date set for about one month hence, for the election of permanent officers for the student's society. For the present last year's president, Horace Clark, will preside. It is probable, too, that a campaign for the election of the new president will be inaugurated, by friends of the contestants.

Nothing finer could have been arranged for the benefit of the students than the engagement by the President of Dr. Jas. L. Hughes, the eminent educator from Canada, to speak at the general meeting on Wednesday last. The famous doctor was in the best of spirits and spoke for over an hour to an appreciative audience, comprising practically all the regular students. No synopsis that could be seen here would convey an adequate idea of the effect produced by the inspiring address of this strong man. But he urged the students to have confidence in their own powers, to make use of their imaginations in the formation of good ideals, and noble purposes, and to make use of the powers they already have, in order to get a grant from God of more power or further talents. Miss Enid Edmonds, a student of last year, sang several fine selections.

BRIGHAM YOUNG ACADEMY.

Provo, October 9.—A large number of new students enrolled Monday and the attendance is now between nine and ten hundred.

V. L. Halliday visited the school Monday and gave the students some good advice.

The annual "hand-shake" of the students and teachers of the academy will be held in the gymnasium Friday night.

The opening ball of the academy last Friday night was a great success financially, but was a little too crowded to be very enjoyable.

A new class in short hand has been organized with Miss Sayde Preston as teacher.

The high school has challenged the other departments of the school to contest in field sports on Founder's day. A baseball game between the Commercial and Collegiate will take place at the same time.

President Smith of the San Luis State of Colorado, and President Rogers of the Sevier State of Utah were visitors Thursday. They met with the students of their respective States and gave them valuable advice in regard to the State organizations.

Professor Hughes of Toronto, Canada, lectured to the school for an hour Thursday morning. The students are enthusiastic in their praise of the Canadian and his inspiring remarks. They claim that he enthused new thoughts and ideals into their minds; that he caused them to have a broader and better view of life; and that he produced in them a determination to search for knowledge, to develop themselves morally, intellectually, and physically, and to be ambitious to do something for humanity.

Prof. F. Brendamour and G. J. Nichol of Denver, who are students of nature and biology, spent several hours in the academy Wednesday. These gentlemen are traveling over the country on horse back and have already been through Wyoming, Montana, Idaho, and Colorado. They will go from here through southern Utah to the Grand canyon of the Colorado in Arizona, where some time will be spent in scientific research. From there a tour will be made through Arizona and California to San Francisco, where they will probably take steamer for the Atlantic countries.

Mr. Brendamour paid the young people of Utah a high tribute. He said that they are better physically than the young people of any state he has visited yet.

BEAVER BRANCH B. Y. A.

Beaver, Oct. 8.—One hundred and sixty-six students are now registered with a number more on the grounds sufficient to swell the enrollment to 175 or 180.

A new addition to the faculty was made this week through the arrival of Mark Cram from Provo who will assist as instructor in the preparatory department.

The missionary course has been arranged and the few who are here now are busying themselves in their new field; a number more are expected to join the class within the next week or two.

The first regular students' ball was held last Friday night and was attended by most of the students and numerous friends from Beaver and elsewhere.

Mrs. Durham has been spending the week in Salt Lake City.

The recent visit of President Smith and party was an epoch in the lives of the students long to be remembered.

New supplies for base and basketball are expected right away and the students look for effective work with Instructor Woodward as manager of the former and Mr. Cram of the latter, both of whom are experienced in these lines of work.

About 55 students are now enrolled in the different branches of the music department which includes class work, vocal and private instruction in vocal, piano and organ.

The members of the class of 1904 are arranging to entertain the school next Friday night.

A number of students arrived today from Escalante being the first to come from that locality this year.

feet up room 32 of the normal building for headquarters for the fourth year normals.

On Wednesday the university faculty and the state teachers who were visiting the training school, were given a luncheon from the domestic science department by the pupils of the eighth grade. The tables were spread in the ladies' room of the normal building. Macaroni, sandwiches, preserved fruit, cakes and cocoa were served, all prepared by the pupils themselves. Among the visitors were: Miss E. J. McKivvers, Principal N. T. Porter of the Branch Normal, Principal Fred N. Poulson of Sandy, Principal S. P. Egerton of Provo. In all there were 50 persons served.

The student body held a spirited football meeting in the assembly room on Wednesday. Instructor Best led them in singing "The Star Spangled Banner." Speeches were made by G. C. Case, president of the student body, President Kingsbury, Dr. Merrill, Principal X. T. Porter, Professors Marshall and Cummings, Coach Hines, James Wade, Barge Young, J. Fred Anderson and Parker Pratt, S. W. Wallace led the students in college yell.

The first year normal and preparatory students met on Monday and organized. Their officers are, president, Laure Van Dam; vice president, Lidora Carson; secretary, Cyrus Morgan; assistant secretary, J. E. Madison; treasurer, J. M. Smith; executive committee, J. E. Madison, L. G. Kelley, and Fern Smith; sergeant-at-arms, Mr. Ward.

The Chronicle staff gave a ball Thursday night in the assembly room in the normal building. A large number of city graduates who are members of the state teachers' association were in attendance. Of the faculty and instructors there were present, President and Mrs. Kingsbury, Professor and Mrs. D. B. Allen, Professor and Mrs. J. M. Smith, Professor and Mrs. J. M. Smith, Professor and Mrs. J. M. Smith, Professor and Mrs. J. M. Smith.

The mechanical laboratory now has a cement floor. The engines are all connected up and in running order. A new contingent of apparatus has just arrived from the east for this department. It consists of constant current transformers, modern alternating current lamps, and a modern X-ray apparatus.

Dr. Talmage has recently been investigating some peculiar consecutive eruptions occurring in Spanish Fork canyon. Each concretion is egg shaped, ranging in size from that of a pea, to that of a duck's egg. When broken open, each is found to be hollow and to contain a quantity of mineral oil.

Miss Florence Bitter, a third-year student, died at her home in the city on Thursday evening.

Among the many visitors at the university this week were a large number of university graduates who are teaching in the public schools of the state.

SALT LAKE CITY SCHOOLS.

The teachers of Salt Lake City as well as all friends of education in Utah were very glad to see the presidency of the Utah State Teachers' association principals to be his guests at Saltair on Thursday afternoon.

Miss Florence Groesbeck has been added to the corps at the Emerson.

Mrs. Godbe, a former patron of the Emerson, leaves for Los Angeles soon. This school has had the good fortune to receive from Mrs. Godbe 15 volumes of choice juvenile literature, a gift greatly appreciated.

State Supt. Nelson was a visitor at the Summer Wednesday.

T. P. Howells, principal of the Centerville, Davis county schools, was an Ogilvie visitor on Thursday.

Miss Cordelia Green, who was formerly connected with the schools, is conducting very successfully a private school in this city.

The teachers and patrons of the Whittier school gave a sumptuous luncheon to visiting teachers on Wednesday.

The full teaching corps of Provo, numbering 32, have been attending the State Teachers' association, and have embraced the opportunity of visiting the Salt Lake schools.

Luther Garrison, a pupil in the Uintah school, is doing some fine landscape work in drawing.

Miss Lucy A. Coker, formerly connected with the Salt Lake schools, and a graduate of Stanford university, is now a teacher of history and English literature in the high school at Mendocino, Cal.

The growth in attendance and in the number in the teaching corps in the schools of this city may be seen in the fact that the number of pupils enrolled at the close of the last month last year was 10,269, and at the close of the first month this year is 12,250.

The number of teachers and supervisors last year were 322; the number this year is 344.

Mr. Parratt, principal of the Uintah school, shows some excellent work in drawing by the pupils in his room. Miss Pratt of the same school is doing some exceptional individual work in singing.

Mary Corbett, Alice Hunter, Carrie Feltz and Walter Doty, pupils of Miss Scholes at the Grant, excel in drawing.

BRYANT HIGH SCHOOL.

The uniforms for the cadets are to be ready by Nov. 5.

E. H. Eastmond, supervisor of fine arts and manual training in the schools of Utah county, was a visitor on Thursday.

J. M. Jensen, principal of the Parker school, Provo, called on Thursday.

Principal G. A. Eaton of the West Side high school was a visitor on Thursday.

Miss Bain had charge of the grammar section at Friday afternoon session of the State Teachers' association. U. S. history was the subject under consideration.

Supt. G. B. Thompson of Cache county was a visitor this week.

Domestic arts under the direction of Miss Corbett is very popular with the girls in this school.
