PETTIBONE REMAINS IN JAIL.

Jurors Gilman and Burns Say They Believe Haywood Was Guilty and Explain Vote for Acquittal.

Boise, Ida., July 29.—Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners and co-defendant with William D. Haywood, acquitted yesterday of the murder of former Gov. Steiensen, was ordered released on $25,000 bail today by Judge Wood, who presided at the Haywood trial. The attorneys for the federation expected to have the bond ready for filing tonight, but the arrangements had not been wholly completed at a late hour and Moyer resigned himself to another night in jail. He will probably be released tomorrow and will leave within 24 hours for his home in Denver.

No application for bail was made in the case of George J. Caldwell, the third of the alleged conspirators, but a motion was made for a speedy trial and his case was ordered set down for Tuesday. Counsel intimated today that they might apply for bond for Pettibone later, but it is not believed that the state's attorneys will consent. It has been generally claimed that the state has more incriminating evidence against Pettibone than any of the others, while it has been generally conceded that the case against Moyer is the weakest of the three. The defense in the Haywood case admitted that there were a number of things for Mr. Pettibone to explain as to his association with Haywood and Orchard and the sending of money to him, but they said it would be time enough to deal with these matters when Pettibone himself was placed on trial.

CONGRATULATING HAYWOOD.

Haywood today continued to receive many congratulatory telegrams from all sections of the country. They came from individuals, from local unions of the Western Federation, from all classes of labor unions and from various Socialist organizations and leaders. Aside from the personal congratulations of the senders, the messages have nearly all expressed the sentiment that "the trial has been a triumph for the oppressive measures of capital."

Haywood spent the day at the cottage occupied by his family and received his mail. He expects to leave for Denver on Thursday.

The matter of releasing Moyer on bail and fixing the time of Pettibone's trial came up before Judge Wood at 10 o'clock this morning, but was postponed until 2 p. m. to allow further conferences between counsel for the defense and the state.

Strenuous efforts were made to secure the consent of the state's attorneys to the release of Moyer.

neys to the release of Pettibone, but without avail. The big courtroom, with its empty jury box and benches, appeared far different from the closing days of the trial when hundreds of people were there to witness every session. Moyer and Pettibone were brought into court at 10 o'clock. The latter's wife was present and broke down and cried when the order was made releasing Moyer and holding her husband. It was said tonight that Pettibone may be taken back to the Canyon county jail at Caldwell until the time for his trial arrives. The case and the prisoners were brought to Boise six months ago on a change of venue from Canyon to Ada county.

Atty. Darrow of Chicago made the formal application for Moyer's release and no word of objection was interposed by Senator Borah, representing the state. When it came to fixing the amount, Senator Borah named $25,000. "That is reasonable and suits us," said Mr. Darrow.

Judge Wood said he would personally approve the bond and would make it continuing so Moyer could remain at his home in Colorado until wanted.

As to Pettibone, Mr. Darrow urged that the earliest possible date be fixed for his trial. The next term of court begins Sept. 4 and Judge Wood said he would like to clear the calendar as far as possible before setting the case for trial. Oct. 1 was then set as agreeable to all parties.

BOND WILL BE CASH.

Bond for Moyer is to be given in a unique way, suggested by Atty. Peter Breen of Butte, Mont., who has been associated with the defense. The Butte local of the Western Federation of Miners is the richest in the organization and Mr. Breen said carries a deposit of $100,000 to $140,000 constantly in the bank. Arrangements were made by wire today by Mr. Breen to have the Butte union deposit $25,000 subject to draft by the First National bank of Boise. Some officers of the Boise union will sign the bail bond as surety. A telegram to Mr. Breen tonight said the arrangements at Butte had been completed.

"We were offered personal bond in several times the amount desired here in Boise," said Mr. Breen tonight, "but we preferred not to impose upon any of our friends to that extent when the Butte union has such a large surplus and was anxious for the honor of showing its allegiance and confidence in the president of the federation."

Discussion of the verdict in the Haywood case was widespread today, the consensus of opinion being that the jury had done its duty as well as it could and should not be criticized. Editorial comment of the local papers is to this effect, the Daily Statesman saying:

BOISE PRESS COMMENT.

"The Statesman, in common with the great mass of the people, regrets that the trial of William D. Haywood for the murder of former Gov. Frank Steiensen resulted as it did. The verdict came as a great surprise, as it had not been supposed such a conclusion would be reached, even the defense, according to the best information obtainable, hoping for nothing more than a hung jury."

"But the case has been decided by an Idaho jury under the facts as they found them and the law as laid down by the courts, and it is the duty of all as in all cases fairly and fully submitted to our constituted tribunals of justice, to accept the result in that spirit of loyalty to our courts which is a necessary attitude of mind on the part of citizens of the republic if our rights are to be protected and peace and order and good will are to reign."

The Evening Capital News says: "There was bound to be keen disappointment whatever the verdict may have been. But the jury which tried the case was one whose honesty, integrity, ability and good citizenship no one doubted, and now that they have expressed themselves, it will come with as little grace on the part of those whose minds were made up to the contrary verdict to complain of their decision as it would for those who are now blessed to have denounced the verdict had it been the other way."

"There is but one thing to do, and this is to let the Haywood case die from the public mind as quietly as possible. In the minds of some it will live on as a dream—a terrible nightmare in the body politic of the state. In the minds of others it must remain as a living lie to the arguments and doctrines of the political school which teaches the doctrine of discontent."

"The law of Idaho will always be found supreme, and, though the murder of Frank Steiensen is as yet unavenged, life and property within the boundaries of this state will be found as safe and as sacred as elsewhere on the face of the globe, and the state of Idaho will always be found ready to do its duty in enforcing the laws, our juries will be found willing and able to do with fairness and impartiality, the law-abiding will be amply protected and the violators of law will be suitably punished."

GILMAN THINKS HAYWOOD GUILTY.

The jurors in the case continue publicly to discuss the part they played in arriving at a verdict. Samuel D. Gilman, the last man to vote for acquittal, said:

"There has been published one statement that I want to correct. One of the jurors is quoted as saying that the jury had to spend a long disagreeable and tiresome night in order to convince two jurors that the defendant was not guilty. I want to say that they never did convince us. I believed that he was guilty and I still believe he is guilty, and I want the world to know it. I simply acquiesced in the verdict of acquittal because I felt that I could not do otherwise after I found the entire 11 other jurors so unanimously convinced that it was right. Kindly make the correction for me."

A. P. Burns, juror No. 11, said: "I was firmly convinced, when we left the courtroom, that the first ballot would show a vote for conviction. I still retain the belief that Haywood was guilty, and only changed my vote because it struck me that if the evidence presented left eight men unconvinced of the guilt of the defendant, it would be impossible to get 12 men in another trial and that it would be better to settle the question by acquiescing in their decision."

CONGO GOVERNMENT IS UNRESTRAINED TYRANNY

London, July 29.—"The system of government in the Congo Independent state is one of unrestrained tyranny, enforced by the lash and the bullet, by cruelty and by murder."

These words were spoken by Lord Monkswell, who raised the Congo question in the house of lords today and moved for the papers. The attendance in the house was small.

Continuing, Lord Monkswell said the Congo government was a powerful engine of greed which impudently and insolently violated the limitations and restrictions under which its rights over this territory had been granted. The speaker quoted authorities to support his statements, and added that an especial responsibility attached to Great Britain because, except for her determined action, the king of Portugal, and not the king of the Belgians, would at this moment have been the ruler of the Congo.

The archbishop of Canterbury declared that the Congo was one of the most disheartening and humiliating of contemporary questions. He said it was a ghastly irony to read today the words of the address presented to King Leopold by the city of London in 1884, congratulating his majesty upon his bloodless victory. He declared that the British government should be reminded of the sense of responsibility of all Englishmen in this matter.

A general debate on the Congo question followed, and a number of bishops were among the speakers. The Earl of Mayo advocated another international convention in the matter of the Congo, and, failing that, the appointment of more British consuls in the Upper Congo. Lord Fitzmaurice, under secretary for foreign affairs, speaking for the government, said they were not blind to the fact that this matter was surrounded with grave difficulties. The government has asked the Congo state, he said, to disregard the experiences of previous governments, of other states, and had instanced the early history of British East India. The present system, the speaker said, was certain to have evil consequences. Lord Fitzmaurice admitted that the house of lords had a right to ask what progress had been made, but he said it was an international question, and if the house took any sudden action, it would run the risk of injuring the cause it had at heart.

At the conclusion of Lord Fitzmaurice's address, Lord Monkswell withdrew his motion.

CRAZY SHEEPHERDER DERAILS PASSENGER TRAIN

Butte, Mont., July 29.—A special to the Miner from Great Falls says: "Because he imagined the Almighty ordered him to do so, a crazed sheepherder, whose name cannot be learned, derailed passenger train No. 3 on the Great Northern at Toledo station, seven miles east of Havre, Sunday morning, causing the death of the driver and slightly injuring a number of passengers."

The train was proceeding at a rate of 50 miles an hour when, within 50 yards of the switchstand in front of the Toledo depot, the engineer saw a man throw the switch, the light changing from white to red. He instantly applied the air, but in a moment the engine, mail and baggage cars and animals were a mass of twisted and broken wreckage. The fireman was so terribly scalded that he died about 10 minutes after being released. The engineer, mail clerk and baggage master escaped with but a few bruises.

When the passengers issued from the cars remaining on the track they found a demented sheepherder sitting beside the switchstand, calmly surveying the wreck. He volunteered the information that he had wrecked the train—that "God Almighty told me to do it."

The fellow was about 35 years of age and apparently had been working on a sheep ranch. He was sent back to Havre on the relief train, and is now in jail at that place.

DAVIS SHOE CO.,

S.S.S. CURES CATARRH

Catarrh is not merely a disease of the mucous membranes and inner linings of the body as some of the symptoms would seem to indicate; it is a deep-seated blood disease, in which the entire circulation and the greater part of the system are involved. Like all other blood diseases, Catarrh comes from poisons and impurities accumulating in the circulation which irritate and inflame the tissues and mucous surfaces, and then the unpleasant symptoms of the disease are manifested. There is a ringing noise in the ears, a thin, watery discharge from the nostrils, filthy matter drops back into the throat, the breath has an offensive odor, and many other annoying and unpleasant symptoms are characteristic of the trouble. Sprays, washes, inhalations, etc., cannot reach the blood, and are therefore valuable only for the temporary relief they afford. To cure Catarrh the blood must be purified. Nothing equals S. S. S. for this purpose; it goes down into the circulation, removes the catarrhal matter, purifies the blood and makes a lasting cure. When S. S. S. has removed the cause, the blood being pure and healthy nourishes the membranes and tissues instead of irritating them with noxious matter, and the symptoms all pass away. Book on Catarrh and any medical advice free.
