By Telegraph.

PER WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH LINE.

Last Night's Dispatches.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, S.—Johnston argued that the Senate and House were acting under the joint rules every day. They could not transact business without them. The authority to appoint conference committees came from the joint rules.

Edmunds said there was a general parliamentary rule providing for conference committees.

Sargent said that when the list of committees was reported the other day it was accompanied by resolutions authorizing the committees on library, printing, etc., to act concurrently with the House committees. This showed that the Senate did not recognize the joint rules under which these committees might act.

Davis said he asked Wright when the committees were reported whether there was any change in the usual custom of appointing committees, and Wright assured him that there was none. It seemed now there was one for the purpose of avoiding the joint rules.

Wright explained by saying that he was occupied when Davis addressed him, and understood Davis to ask whether there was any great change in the organization of the committees.

Morton said it was perfectly plain to him that the Senate, having withdrawn from the joint rules, as it had a right, there were none in force. He read from the record, showing that previously the democrats held this view of the case. He believed their sole purpose now was to retain the 22nd joint rule for counting the electoral vote. It was confessedly a wicked rule, universally condemned. He had been trying to abolish it for years.

Bayard said the 22nd rule only was objectionable. Last session he attempted to secure the passage of a law regulating the electoral count outside of the joint rules. He described the origin and workings of the rules. He reiterated his previous opinion that the rules could be terminated at the discretion of either house.

Edmunds quoted from his own and Merriman's remarks last session, showing that Merriman had changed his opinion since then.

Merriman said the change was wrought by reflection.

Edmunds paid a graceful tribute to the late Speaker Kerr as a noble, patriotic and honorable man, and quoted his decision on this question. Edmunds said the joint rules were simply the standing orders of each session repealable by either party. After further debate the question and decision of the chair was sustained—yeas 50, nays 4.

Withers introduced a bill for the relief of owners and purchasers of land sold for direct taxes in insurrectionary States. Referred.

The joint resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution concerning the electoral count was read.

EASTERN.

Moody Talks to the Business Men.

CHICAGO, S.—The attendance at Moody's meeting is steadily on the increase, instead of falling off as was anticipated with severe weather. The temperance meetings especially are largely attended and many cases of practical results therefrom are noted. To-night Moody preached to business men, by request, among them many members of the board of trade. Subject, "Life and death of the rich man," mentioned in Luke 12th. The sermon was full of striking thoughts, points, and illustrations of the wickedness and depravity of humanity as represented by business men. The sermon was well received. Mr. Pentecost, of Boston, assisted at the after meetings.

Levissee's Sworn Statement.

A New Orleans special to the Inter-Ocean gives the sworn statement of Levissee, taken by an attorney in New Orleans, in which Levissee testifies that while remaining at the house of a lady in the city he received a note from a man well known as a democrat, urging him to meet the writer next morning, November 5th. From hints he received, he was convinced that the purpose in all this was to offer a bribe for his vote, and in order to develop fully the circumstances and names of the parties connected with the move, and to keep the bribes in pursuit of him until it was too late to attack any one else, he visited the place appointed, acting under the advice of Marshal Pickton. He met the party whose name he does not designate specifically, except as Mr. B., and a conversation ensued stating that he had merely a business proposition to make, and asked if for forty or fifty thousand dollars he could refuse governor's certificates as elector and thus defeat the election of Hayes. Levissee made no direct answer, but suggested a larger sum might be necessary, etc. At the next interview the same day, B. said that if Levissee would cast his vote directly for Tilden he could offer him $100,000. This again left it unsettled, and an hour later B. returned, giving the statement of how and where the money could be obtained, namely from a Mr. C., well known to deponent. Together they went to see the latter, who was wealthy and fairly responsible. On the morning for casting the electoral vote, B. met deponent and said the money was in the hands of C., who would pay it over when the act was consummated. At this point, believing his purpose had been accomplished, Levissee told B. the amount was insufficient, and they would drop the matter. He promised B. he would not disclose names unless judicially compelled.

A correspondent speaks of Levissee as an irreproachable respected citizen.

Joint Rule Decision

The Inter Ocean's Washington special says the decision sustaining Speaker Ferry on the joint rule question is considered a great step toward solving the election complication. Since the republicans can question one Missouri and one North Carolina electoral vote on precisely the same grounds as the democrats can question the solid republican return from Oregon, it is doubtful if the democrats will even allow Cronin to appear and present his returns. It is authoritatively stated that a telegram has been sent to Gov. Tilden urging him to repudiate Grover's action.

Want a Military Demonstration.

The National Republican Committee have a circular, printed in a democratic office here, for distribution over the south. It announces that next March inauguration day, there is to be an extensive military parade here, and invites rifle clubs and other military organizations of the south to participate. It asks for the numerical strength of each company which will accept an invitation, and for other information about the company.

TO CALIFORNIA.

We don't give this for un fait accompli, but it is very strongly rumored that Cedar Rapids is to be the half-way station between Chicago and Council Bluffs.

If this is to be, and some experiments have been made to that end, we suppose it is on account of the superior condition of the road. A trip on the steel railed and well ballasted road, is not any more now, if as much, wear and, tear on the employes and machinery to a train, from Chicago to Cedar Rapids, 218 miles, as it was on the iron rails from Chicago to Clinton, 138 miles, in the olden time.

It is not necessary for us to say that the C. & N. W. R'y is a first class road in every particular, that it rides as easy as sitting in a "rocking chair," that its coaches are parlors, that its employes are the most polite and affable gentlemen the traveling public can meet or will meet in a lifetime of travel—the esprit de corps of the employes, if we may so say, is at a high standard; we say we need not say this in a newspaper, it is self evident to every traveler on the road. But in the future these are to be increased; we suppose the speed will be increased; if possible, the superb train will be more superb: there is to be no train more complete, either for comfort or safety, leave the world's commercial metropolis for the GOLDEN GATE, THAN THE GREAT TRAINS ON THE CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN RAILWAY—THE ONLY COMPANY RUNNING OUT OF CHICAGO THAT HAS A ROAD SO RELIABLE THAT THEY ARE NOT AFRAID TO RUN AT ANY SPEED CAPABLE OF BEING ATTAINED BY ENGINES OF THE MOST IMPROVED CONSTRUCTION, RUN WITH THE HAND OF IRON NERVE, AND A HEAD OF BRAINS, WITHOUT ANY FEAR OF ACCIDENT OR INCONVENIENCE.

Every employe on the road feels a personal interest in the North-Western Railway; it's the "chipper" road in the West, and so far as anything he can do it will continue so to be.

THIS IS THE TRANS-CONTINENTAL LINK FROM THE GREAT LAKES TO THE GREAT MISSOURI RIVER.

The old time traveler speaks in high glee of the "ease and comfort" of these days of steel in contrast with the pioneer days of this pioneer road in the days of iron. The comforts of travel on the North-Western Railway are in every traveler's mouth from the Atlantic to the Pacific. It must be a proud compliment to the efficient management, and that is the reason every officer or employe feels so happy and obliging.

It is with pride we mention these things, and join the general shout along the line, Hurrah for the "OLD RELIABLE."—Cedar Rapids Republican, Aug. 14, 1876.
