

Third Annual Session of Western Funeral Directors' Association.

DENVER DELEGATION LATE.

Four Days' Meeting Opened This Forenoon-Morticians Have Mapped Out Lot of Work for Themselves.

The fact that the Philippine soldiers and the western undertakers selected the same city and the same time in which to hold their respective reunions may not have any significance in it. The charge that they had ever worked in collusion would undoubtedly be scorned. But the queer coincidence was especially conspicuous in the Knutsford hotel where the undertakers and the soldiers gathered to register and where the former are holding their meetings. Of course, the undertakers feel that their organization takes precedent over everything else.

The third annual convention of the Western Funeral Directors' association should have opened its first session this morning at 10 o'clock. But the Denver delegation was dhour in getting to the city and it was after 11 o'clock before the session was called to order. President T. F. Dunn, of Vctor, Colo-rado, presided, but owing to the nearness of the noon hour, he suggested that a recess be taken until 1.30 p.m. The suggestion was promptly acted upon. There are now over 100 delegates in the city and they anticipate having the most pleasant and profitable meet-ing the association has yet held. It will undoubtedly be the best attended.

The meeting will last four days and within that time every subject that pertains in any degree whatever to the science of embalming or otherwise caring for a deceased body will be taken up minutely. There will be dem-onstrations along with the lectures so that every subject will be invested with absorbing interest to the undertakers. A large room off the rotunda of the hotel on the ground floor has been fitted up tastefully for the meetings. The undertakers did not come here to see the city only, but they came here to work, and if they carry out program they have mapped out they will be a very busy body indeed. One feature about the meeting and one which assures the morticians that they will not have gathered in vain, is the lectures that will be delivered by Prof. W. P. Hohenschuh of Iowa City, Iowa, He is one of the most ac-complished lecturers on the anatomy and the science of embalming in the United States.

MID TEARS AND FLOWERS.

Funeral of Proniing Young Man Held This Afternoon.

The funeral of Sidney Leslie Clawson. son of Sidney B. and Nellie Burns Clawson, was held this afternoon from 72 North State street. The services were in progress when this report was written. Such grief as was manifest over the bier of the dead young man is fortunately seldom witnessed in these days, Acquaintances of the deceased wept, his friends cried vio-lently while the bereaved mother was well nigh overcome with the woe that vas upon her.

The people came from every part of the city to attest their love and respecfor the young man that is gone, the house was able to accommodate only about half who gathered there. The music was sweet and the flowers were beautiful and numerous. The casket was covered with magnificent wreaths and there was not igom enough about the bier to place all the various floral pieces. The plano, the mantel and the chandeller were brought mantel and the chandeller were brought into use and then there were many flowers that had to be left outside. The music was furnished by a quartet com-posed of George D. Pyper, Will Patrick, John D. Owen and Thomas Ashworth. Counselor Barton of the Eighteenth ward conducted the services, which were opened with the song "The Chrislian's Good Night."

The prayer was offered by Elder James Saville, and the quartet sang "Night of Rest." Both of the selections were beautiful and so affecting they words of comfort for the bereaved ones, and of eulogy for the departed one were spoken by Bishop O. F. Whitone were spoken by Bishop O. P. White ney and Elders Hamilton G. Park and Henry P. Richards. The services over, the remains were laid to rest in the city cemetery. The deceasd was boru in this city January 7th, 1882, and was a promising youth. For several fourth wards are out at Saltair today This afternoon there was a good representation from each of the abov named districts present, with indications that before the day closed there would be a big crowd at the beach.

Tomorrow the G. A. R. and the Philppine war veterans will invade Saltair to the strains of martial music. Ar entertaining program has been arranged and the day promises to be a big one.

The Women's Relief society of Salt Lake Stake held a very successful outing at Saltair yesterday which was participated in by representatives from all the wards. President Angus M. Cannon ably filled the post of master of ceremonies and was in evidence among the knots of pleasure seeker on both floors. The major portion of the ladies and their friends stayed until evening when the picnic baskets proved to be veritable cornucopias of good things. In the afternoon there was a very enjoyable program given on the upper floor. After the invocation by President Joseph E. Taylor were several pleasing selections giver by the Temple choir and Christensen' orchestra. A cornet solo by L. F. Christensen and a recitation entitled "The Minuet," by Miss Hazel Cannon, were also not the least of the numbers on the program. The children of Farm ers' ward evoked a hearty round of an plause by their artistic execution of hoop drill. The drill by girls representing the nations of America, England, Spain and France was also amon the notable features.

There were close upon 500 Eleventh warders at Lagoon yesterday when the Sunday school took its annual outing day passed off very pleasantly The One of the features of the outing wa he program of sports and in the contests the following were the winners Children's race under 6, Silvia Price, girls 8 to 10, Jennie Searles; boys same age, tie between Milen Knight and Frank McMaster; three-legged race Bert White and Rob Cameron; hob bles, Geo, Morris: girls 12 - 15, Annie Crew: boys same aze, David Hood, obstacles, George Kirk: ladies, officers and teachers, Louie Morris: baby con test, child of Mrs. James Olson; walt walti contest, Heber Wickens and Miss Ham-mer: children's cake-walk. To replenish the state treasury the state board of loan commissioners has arranged with the National Park bank of New York for a 90-day loan of $40,000 at 2% per cent. Probably $100,000 altogether will have to be borrowed to tide the state coffers over till the December influx of taxes, and the extra loan has been arranged for on the same basis as the $40,000 loan. Last year the state borrowed $175,000, but had to pay 3 per cent for the loan.

GOOD BUSINESS.

Afternoon Call Witnessed Considerable Movement in Stocks.

Ajax registered the first sales at the afternoon call on the stock exchange 1,700 shares being disposed of before the stock was passed. Daly again came in with a couple of hundred shares, as did Lower Mammoth and May Day, and as the list was gone through with, stops were here and there made while the brokers unloaded small blocks, For an afternoon session the business done was very good. The stocks in which no sales were made posted quotations like those contained in the morning list.

Tetro did the business, though, as it company, received word this morning this morning, 12,300 shares being that on Wednesday night last he was sold at 30 to 31 cents. PERSONALS.

Col. John Q. Cannon left last night for Cherry Creek, Nev., on mining busi-ness. He will be absent several weeks. Scott McClellan, superintendent of the Wayne county schools, was in the city yesterday and called on State Superintendent Nelson.

Prof. Evan Stephens, director of the Tabernacle choir, was called to Malad, Idaho, yesterday, by the serious, and perhaps fatal, illness of his brother, Daniel Stephens. Prof. J. J. Daynes will have charge of the choir at the Philippine entertainment, and for as long as Prof. Stephens is away.

Dr. C. T. Brown returned last night from a five weeks' vacation trip to northern California. His family, whe were with him, will return about September 1st. Mrs. L. C. Miller has returned from an eastern trip, which included the Pan-American exposition at Buffalo.

valise was taken from a sleeping car on Rio Grande train No. 3, and was not missed until after Mr. Morsback's departure for the west. He expects to return to Salt Lake tomorrow morning and while very much annoyed over the inconvenience the loss of the contents of the grip has caused him, he will offer a very liberal reward for the return of the stolen property and ask no questions. Mr. Morsback's headquaterrs are at 204, Pullman building, Chicago.

himself in the store until after the place was closed up, and being in possession of the knowledge of the cafe combination, opened the same, appropriated something over $50 and quietly left the place, leaving the door open. Shortly after the theft was discovered and reported to the police, the proprietor of the store suspected his former employe as the one who had "turned the trick," and after locating him accused him of the theft. His accused was very anxious to make a settlement and save himself from prosecution. He returned all the stolen money and so far nothing has been
