The M. I. A. quartet rendered a vocal selection entitled Lord we come before Thee. Then presented.

Elder H. Roberts of the superintendence of the Y. M. I. associations addressed the conference. He began by speaking of the importance of the youth and young men, he asserted that his ministry might be beneficial to all who had gathered together, and that the young men should stand up for the cause of Zion, taking up the banner of the Saints as the opening of the new millennium. He was received by the Prophet Joseph Smith at the time when the Father and the Son were gathered together, and he said that some of the churchmen that gathered near the earth were there. This was the first time that the prophet had been called to, and that he also believed that since three years earlier than that time the Lord had
