-A horrible scene was witnessed at the execution of two negroes for murder, at North Hempstead, L. I., yesterday. One of them died speedily, but in the other case the rope broke, and when a second was adjusted the when a second was adjusted the noose slipped and the unfortunate victim was left a second time standing. This elicited the pitcous appeal—"For God's sake, gentle-men, make sure work of it this time," and the "gentlemen" did, for one or more of them pulled at the hand of the victim until he was strangled to death. Such bungling butchers ought to be sent to the penitentiary.

The congressional sub-committee, however, do not agree with Judge Droble concerning the late election, for they report that the Conservatives undoubtedly were elected, but were deprived of that advantage by the returning board. If this is true, then the federal government ought to have sustained the Conservatives and not the Republicans, instead of overthrowing the former and sustaining the latter in power.
