THE REFORM SCHOOL

That Is Where Johnny Larsen, Aged Eleven, Has Been Sent.

HE HAS A BAD RECORD.

He Let Fall Something About the City Jail Break On Sunday Night.

Johnny Larsen, a lad of eleven years, was this morning taken before Justice Jarvis, in an effort made by Probation Officer Zane to secure the boy's commitment to the Reform school. The youngster formerly lived with his parents on Second south street, between Second and Third west streets, but of late has been allowed to run at large, and has been arrested several times for petty offenses. Yesterday he was arrested by Officer Hall for stealing a ride on a street car, and when taken to the police station he was found to have in his possession a number of articles which he had stolen from different stores in the city. He was then taken before Judge Jarvis, and the case was set for this morning at 10 o'clock. When the case was called Probation Officer Zane stated that the boy had been arrested several times before, and that he had been given a number of chances to reform, but that he had failed to do so. He had been guilty of petty larceny, and he thought that the best thing that could be done with him was to send him to the Reform school.

Assistant County Attorney Harrington prosecuted.

Chief Jailer Ingalls testified that young Larsen had been before the police court on fewer than half a dozen times on various charges. Last November he was found guilty of burglarizing Angelo Rizo, store, and sentenced to ninety days from January, 1895, in custody.

In reply to Justice—What was done with the boy on those occasions?

Answer—Justice Hollis made an order that he be sent before the boys, but his father begged to have the boy given another chance, and as he promised to reform—I do what was asked.

Judge Jarvis—What is he charged with this time?

Answer—Petit larceny, stealing a number of articles. The property is in the court's custody.

Jack Larsen, the father of the boy, who keeps a boot and shoe repairing store opposite the old city hall, took the stand at his son's bad ways, and said he sometimes with evil companions. His mother died three years ago. Witness could do nothing with him and was very anxious that he should be committed to the Reform school.

The justice then said, in reply to Attorney Harrington's remarks:

"You may say all that's been said of me in this."

"Do you want to go to the Reform school?" asked Attorney Harrington.

"Yes, sir, that is my last arrest, but I would like one more chance."

Judge Jarvis made an order committing the lad to the Reform school at once.

Young Larsen, in conversation with a News reporter, told an interesting story of his brief incarceration in the city jail, stating the "break" made last Sunday night, he said, he was advising to the worst kind of treatment at the hands of the officers. He resented a kick on the head, the wound of which he now exhibits, from a brutal guard, Sullivan, who said time to sing him. "I could have got away with the rest but I wanted," said Johnny, "but I preferred to stay and be punished. If the judge had given me another chance I would have left the city and gone on my mother's farm."

Larsen is a rather good looking boy, quite large for his age and was dressed neatly. His sister recently died and he was allowed over to Deputy Marshal Timony, and spoke of his little sisters, to whom he explained the greatest love. He was told that the police officials could help well.

Junction City Notes.

The circus has been preaching and a large number of people thronged the streets in the forenoon. The afternoon and evening performances were well attended. The managers of the show seemingly have not effected the above business result.

In the case of John M. Calder, in bankruptcy, Referee Maloney filed his report. It is announced that he expects to pay the estate in full.

Notes.

The regular meeting school of the Brigham Young Academy opens Tuesday morning, May 28th.

A man belonging to S. W. Shaw, besides considerable other property, had his team and wagon driven from him and sold by the State Insurance company at the late shearing sales. A lawsuit was the result and one of the animals is finally located.

The Utah Grand Lodge of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons met in annual session in this city on the 23rd inst. and elected officers for the ensuing year.

The Utah Central Railroad company has issued a circular to the effect that on and after June 1st the company will not haul any freight on Sundays.

The Ogden Gas company, U. A. Mitchell and Co. and the Ogden Electric Light company have entered into a contract for the lighting of the streets of Ogden for the ensuing year. The Brown-Ingram Electric company is also negotiating for the lighting of the streets.

An interesting quality meeting is being held at the Fourth ward meeting house, on the Fourth west st. It is in connection with and over the signatures of many of the leading members of the ward, and is conducted by Bishop Wells and Counselors Preston and Nebeker. Many interesting and instructive remarks are being made.

The following officers of the Brigham Young Academy Alumni association for the ensuing year were elected at the business session Thursday: Fred Shurtz, president; L. C. Woolley, vice president; Mrs. May Rich Talmage, second vice president; Nellie Elliott, secretary; Bryant S. Hinckley, treasurer; Miss Isabelle Ivins, corresponding secretary; Miss Mattie Nelson to act with the executive committee.
