

LATE FIELD AND SALOONS.

A Plea for Alcohol Before a Large Chicago Audience.

The Standard Law of Beer and Wine, Beer Laws, Prohibition, True Temperance.

CHICAGO, Dec. 18.—Late Field last night told the Third Ward Democratic club, which is conducting a "National campaign of education" between elections, why prohibition is imperative. There was a large audience at Allington Hall to hear Miss Field. Among other things she said that State laws voted down by the people were not binding upon them, and that they were not to be considered as their personal literary inheritance.

"A man there," said Miss Field, "desirous to justice, is held guilty and serves himself innocent. A man who goes to a temperance meeting is a pest; he must deserve to suffer from the effect of bad government all his life." Attesting under protestation, Miss Field said, in one year spent $30,000,000 in groceries and $1,000,000 in drugs, and that the publicans were more transients than the Aborigines Indians, who drink Florida water and perfumes, and say the consolation they can buy. Alcohol is everywhere.

The speaker said that it must not be inferred that those pilgrims constitute a large audience in Allington Hall to hear Miss Field. Among other things she said that State laws voted down by the people were not binding upon them, and that they were not to be considered as their personal literary inheritance.

Miss Field said that the materials used of beer and wine, both pure, and the true temperament would produce true temperance. Her theories and her uprising against adulteration will result in uplift good.

GARDEN CITY, Mo., Dec. 18.—A disease that is gnawing truck men and causing them to drop dead appeared in this section this fall. It is now manifested, when the animal begins to live at the nose. Later on it is affected with a swelling of the nose and dies with every symptom of pneumonia.

JOHN WORTHY DEAD.

One of Chicago's Prominent Business Men.

Captain John Worthy, president of the Chicago and Louisville Trust company, one of the Metropolitan Elevated, whose death is reported from New York, was one of the foremost business men of Chicago. Formerly a member of the team of Lake Park promoters, he was the third of the three directors of the house of contractors and engineers of the board of trade, and died suddenly at his home.

He was visiting Chicago recently to attend the annual meeting of the American Society of Civil Engineers, and was staying at the Hotel Astor. He had been ill for some time, and was confined to his room.
