WANTED FOR MURDER. Pueblo Officer Will Come for Philip Zigich, the Murray Accomplice.

Sheriff Emery last night received a telegram from Chief of Police Shoup of Pueblo, Colo., stating that Philip Zigich is the man wanted there for the murder of John Masterson in January 1903, and to hold him until an officer can arrive from there to take him back to face the charge. Zigich was arrested for being an accessory after the fact to the murder of John Masterson a week ago by his brother, Marko Zigich, who made his escape.

Information was given to Marshall Mauss of Murray, to the effect that the Zigich brothers were wanted in Pueblo for murder. That information was given to Sheriff Emery who wired the chief of police at Pueblo concerning the matter and sent him a picture of the two men. The result is that the man now in custody will probably be taken back to stand trial for the crime committed there.

WITNESS WAS IN UTAH. Left Salt Lake for Nevada Today to Testify in Important Murder Case.

About a year ago at Humboldt county, Nev., four highwaymen held up and robbed Albert Waldman and Jack Welsh, and in the encounter which occurred between the men Waldman was badly beaten up and Welsh was killed. Later George Severmer, Jake Lindman, Tony Iutz and Fred Gorman were arrested, charged with the murder, and after a long and sensational trial, were found guilty and sentenced to capital punishment. The condemned men had relatives of wealth and influence, and a new trial was secured for them on the ground that one of the trial jurors had expressed an opinion as to the guilt of the defendants before their trial.

As the time for the rehearing approached, however, it was discovered that Waldman, the principal witness for the state, and without whose testimony it was thought a conviction could not be had, had disappeared, and his whereabouts could not be found. After a long and almost hopeless search Waldman was located at the Lincoln House in this city, and it was learned, was about to start for his early home in Philadelphia. When told he was wanted in Nevada to assist the state in the second trial of the alleged murderers, and with the rough treatment he had received from the accused still fresh in his mind, he said he was only too willing to assist the witnesses stand against the prisoners. He left for Winnemucca today.

SAYS SHE WAS FROZEN OUT. Allegation by Elizabeth C. Skewes in Loss of Mining Stock.

Suit has been filed in the district court by Elizabeth C. Skewes against C. R. Smith, C. D. Rookledge and Elmer B. Jones to recover the sum of $34,250, the value of 65,800 shares of stock in the Utah Consolidated Gold & Silver Mining company belonging to plaintiff and alleged to have been illegally taken from her because of her failure to pay an alleged illegal assessment on the same of three cents per share. It is alleged by plaintiff that the action of defendants was taken for the purpose of "freezing" her out of the company and selling the stock to the Columbus Consolidated Mining company.

TOOK OVERDOSE OF MORPHINE.

J. R. Bassett of Denver, Colo., Died from Effects of Drug Last Evening.

MAY BE A CASE OF SUICIDE.

Left Note Stating that He Desired His Remains to be Cremated in Case of Death.

What is believed to be another case of suicide occurred in this city yesterday, the victim being J. R. Bassett, president of the Irrigation, Mining and Land company of Denver, Colo. He died at his room at 144 West Third South street, last night at 8:30 o'clock as the result of an overdose of morphine.

Mr. Bassett came to Salt Lake about a month ago as a representative of the above named company, since which time he has been endeavoring to dispose of certain mining and irrigation interests, but his efforts have been unsuccessful, and it is evident he was in straightened circumstances, as no money or valuables were found on his person or in his room. Shortly after reaching this city he rented a private room, telling his landlady that his rest was easily disturbed, and that he desired to be as quiet as possible.

As he slept later than usual yesterday morning, about 10 o'clock the gentleman of the house went into his room to enquire if all was right, and endeavored to wake Mr. Russell, but he was apparently in a sound sleep, only muttering and stating he was not disturbed. Thinking his slumbers were normal, he was left alone. But at 2 o'clock, the man failing to make his appearance, his room was again visited. This time it was evident that the man had died. The physicians are of opinion that the drug must have been taken early in the morning, but of course were not able to say whether with suicidal intent or not. An empty morphine box found in the room bore testimony as to the nature of the drug used. It is thought by some the deceased had been addicted to the morphine habit, and that the overdose had been accidentally taken, but the consensus of opinion is that the poison was taken intentionally.

Among his effects discovered when the room was searched was the following letter, indicating the disposition he wished made of his remains:

"To Whom It May Concern: In case of death I wish to be placed in a pine casket, and if out of Denver, my remains to be expressed to Denver and transported only in an express wagon to the crematory, and for express charges, Royal Arcanum lodge No. 75, South Union, Mass. By me as my last request.

(Signed) "J. R. BASSETT."

Another letter written since he came to Salt Lake was also found referring to the above, and stating he desired the provisions thereof carried out. He also mentioned marks on one of his thumbs and an artificial eye as points of identification.

The dead man was about 50 years of age, but nothing is known here of his past life or of his relatives, further than that he occasionally resided in Denver, after an inquest has been held his remains will probably be shipped to Denver, and his body cremated, agreeable to the request expressed in his letter.

A MODERN MILL.

Constructed Along the Most Modern Lines.

A four story mill equipped from cellar to garret with the latest and most modern machinery is being operated in the city by James R. Smith & Sons, at the corner of Third West and Eighth South. A fine article is being turned out which is christened, "Queen of the Valley." The fine equipment of the mill and the well known reputation of the management bespeaks a treat for Salt Lake housewives, who appreciate good bread. Utah produces some of the finest flour in the world and the "Queen of the Valley" is a welcome addition to our excellent flour family. The mill has a capacity of 250 bbl. per day, and is driven by a 100 H. P. Corless engine. The proprietors in making their initial bow, respectfully invite their many friends to try their new product, and know for themselves that it is good.

Never before has such a large orchestra been heard at Saltair as will play for the Grand Ball on Aug. 29th, Christensen's Academy Day.
