NOTORIOUS VAIL

DIVORCE CASE.

Testimony Was Concluded Before Judge Hall at Noon Today.

THE ARGUMENTS TONIGHT.

One of the Worst Cases in the History of the Utah Courts—Shameful Allegations—Mixed Details.

The divorce case of the Vails occupied the attention of Judge Hall's court the greater part of today again. Mr. Vail was on the stand for several hours and put through a rigid cross-examination by plaintiff's counsel. He, however, stuck to his first story. With reference to his being familiar with Mrs. Sherman, he said he had only casually met her, while he was boarding at her mother's house. He stoutly denied ever having kissed this woman, or put his arm around her waist. He said he had no affection for her, and had not seen her more than twice since 1895. He stated that he met Mrs. Sherman, and her brother, accidentally while going to Kayaville on horseback, which accounted for his riding with her; denied fantasizing Mrs. Vail by showing her Mrs. Sherman's photograph.

Mrs. Vail was put on the stand again this morning and testified in rebuttal. She denied having illicit relations with "Billy" Wilson or any other man. Plaintiff further denied all of the matters heretofore testified to by Mr. Vail, and other witnesses, reflecting upon her character. She said she had written but one letter to a gentleman friend since her marriage, and that was with her husband's consent. It was to a friend who used to board at her mother's place, and she had known him for a long time. This party wrote to her first, not knowing she was married. She claimed she was never under the influence of liquor, and had never taken as much as two glasses of beer, but never drank whisky.

Mrs. Vail said her husband obtained drugs for her to procure an abortion and insisted upon her taking the medicine; and at Mr. Vail's insistence she took drugs which resulted in two abortions. She said her husband did not want to raise a family because they were not settled.

The deposition of W. H. Wilson, referred to by witnesses as "Billy," was then read. The answers in the depositions were in the main favorable to Mrs. Vail. Wilson denied having had, at any time, improper relations with plaintiff. The hearing of the testimony was concluded at 12:30 and the arguments of counsel in the case will be heard by Judge Hall at 2 p. m. Critchlow's office beginning at 7:30 tonight.

Transferred.

Judge Hall today made an order transferring the case of John Johnson vs. Emma Johnson et al. from the equity division to be tried before Judge Stewart.

Dissolution Asked For.

The Montana Summer Resort company, a corporation, today filed an application in the equity division of the district court, praying for an order of dissolution of the company, and distributing the property belonging to the corporation to the stockholders, which consists of $10,000 in cash.

The petition states that this action was decided upon at a mass meeting of the stockholders held on February 23, 1901, in this city. The concern was organized some few years ago to operate a pleasure resort up in Parley's canyon, but just recently the city purchased all of its property in the canyon named, including the water rights, for $10,000, which virtually leaves the company without an excuse for further existence. The hearing of the application was set for April 5, 1901.

BISHOPRIC IS BANQUETED.

People of the Third Ward Give an Enjoyable Function.

The banquet given in the Third ward last night, in honor of the new bishopric—Bishop Oliver Hodgson and Counselors Andrew Smith, Jr., and E. M. Weller, Jr., was one of the most enjoyable affairs ever held in the ward. Covers were laid for 250 guests, and E. J. Gledhill achieved honors as toastmaster.

The toasts were all responded to very happily. Mrs. Z. Eardley spoke of the conditions of the ward in the past.

Counselor Smith talked of the present conditions.

An entertaining dissertation on matrimony and its consequences was given by T. R. Gill.

Orson Hewitt waxed lucid on the theme, "eating to live and living to eat."

A brief speech thanking those present for the honor they had shown him and for their good wishes, was made by Bishop Hodgson.

There was instrumental music by the Regal Mandolin and Guitar club, and vocal selections by George Carlton, Frank Bolto, William Carlton, Isabel Ure, James Eardley, T. R. Gill, Agnes and Margaret Collier, Pearl Carlton and John Y. Smith.

There will be a grand ball in the ward hall this evening.

TWO MORE CONVICTS FREE.

How a Badly Operating Law Continues to Turn Prisoners Loose.

The release of the State prison convicts steadily goes on under writs of habeas corpus. This morning Judge Hall ordered the discharge of these two prisoners, Daniel Palmer, sent up for one year, from Emery county, last June, for grand larceny; and J. E. Cornelius convicted of a similar crime in Wayne county, on the 8th day of April last, and received a like sentence.

The writs were granted on petitions setting up the recent ruling of the Supreme court holding that information signed by district attorneys in lieu of the county attorneys to be illegal.

LIVE STOCK INTERESTS.

Greatly Increased in Utah by Recent Heavy Snows.

Live Stock Agent Gregory of the Denver & Rio Grande, has just come in from a trip to the southern portions of the State, having visited as far south as tropic Garfield county. Mr. Gregory says that the snows and rains of the past month was the salvation of the south country. He declared that if it had not been fully two-thirds of the live stock of the south would have been taken out of the country. "You can see it," he said, "the snows have increased the value of every sheep in the south country two dollars per head, and the increase in the value of the cattle would be in a like proportion."

Continuing, he said that the prospect for the coming season's shipments were brighter than for the past seven years. This he says holds good all over the south country and the people of the well known districts are filled with a new feeling of hope.

PRETTY WEDDING.

Last night Miss Rosina J. Steffensen, daughter of Christian Steffensen of Salt Lake and Franklin G. Fryer, grandson of the late Joseph Kingsley, and son of Robert Fryer of Deweyville, were married at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert H. Penrose, the latter being a sister of the bride. The ceremony was performed by Elder C. W. Penrose in the presence of over thirty relatives and friends. Miss Lulu Jensen acting as bridesmaid and Mr. H. J. Jensen as best man. The bride wore a handsome gown of white crepe and carried bride roses, and the bridesmaid was also gowned in white. The rooms were prettily decorated.

At any rate I have known of severe catarrhal headaches which were cured by Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, and catarrhal diarrhea, hay fever, asthma, and catarrh of the throat and stomach speedily show great benefit after a few days use of the remedy and when it is remembered how much more convenient a tablet is than infusions, douches, salves and powders it is not surprising that this new preparation should rapidly supplant all other remedies for catarrh.

The House committee on judiciary this morning decided to recommend the passage of House bills 30, 117 and 175 and the rejection of 183 and 184. No. 30 is G. W. Johnson's bill defining the powers and duties of district attorneys. The committee amended the bill by striking out section 4, allowing 15 cents mileage, and section 5, repealing all acts in conflict with the new statute, 117, by N. L. Morris, is to amend the statutes relating to notices, orders and procedure, and No. 155, by Langton, prescribes the contents of notices by mail under provisions of the probate code.

The two that the committee wish killed are by McGregor, and the committee believes that they are unconstitutional and against public policy.

No. 183 is to amend the statutes relating to the sale of abstracts of mortgages by county records to the assessors of other counties, and No. 184 is to provide for the manner and place of taxing mortgages, deeds of trust or other securities, and making mortgages on land in more than one county void.

INSURANCE STATEMENTS.

This is the last day allowed by law for all insurance companies doing business in this State, to file with the secretary thereof, their annual financial statement, and to renew their certificates of authority to do business. The Revised Statutes is that such delinquent companies shall forfeit to the State $100 per day while in default; and any person soliciting insurance for any company who is in arrears, shall for each day and every day so engaged. These fines may also be increased as follows: On the part of insurance companies, $1,000 per day and with reference to individuals, not to exceed $20 for each day, and every day so engaged. These fines may also be increased as follows: On the part of insurance companies, $1,000 per day and with reference to individuals, not to exceed $20 for each day, and every day so engaged. A ROMANTIC MARRIAGE.

Bride Comes from England to Marry a Man She Had Never Seen.

A romantic marriage will be celebrated in Salt Lake tomorrow. The bride came all the way from England to marry a man she had never seen.

Her first name is Hannah; her second name is unknown. Her father is Benjamin F. Whitmore and he resides in Arizona. He came here to meet his future wife. It was a case of negotiation by correspondence entirely and the young couple met in this city for the first time yesterday, when they expected to be married. There were certain complications, however, and the ceremony was necessarily deferred until tomorrow.

WATER SQUIBBLE.

It appears that the water scrip fund, over which the city auditor and treasurer have had considerable controversy of late, is about to vanish. Mr. Reiser has maintained that this fund was properly chargeable with water main extension expenses.

Chairman Robertson, of the finance committee has sent the auditor a letter, authorizing him to draw on the fund named, in order to pay P. J. Moran's estimated contract of May 22nd, 1900, for construction of water mains. This claim was appropriated some time ago, but has been held in abeyance pending a settlement of the misunderstanding between the auditor and treasurer. Something over $15,000 is tied up in this scrip fund, which will now be applied to water main extensions.

NEWSPAPER MAN ARRESTED.

B. Ciambelli, an Italian Editor, is Charged With Forgery.

Early this morning B. Ciambelli, editor of an Italian paper published at Pueblo, Colorado, was arrested by Officer Fitzmaurice at the Rio Grande Western depot, on the charge of forgery. The arrest was made on the strength of a telegram from Sheriff J. L. Beaman of Pueblo.

The telegram did not state the amount involved, merely asking that he be arrested and held. Ciambelli was accompanied by his wife and two children and they were on their way to San Francisco. He admitted his identity, but denied the charge, and said he was willing to go to Pueblo. He claims that it is all a mistake that can easily be rectified. He says he had a position offered him on an Italian paper in San Francisco.

CHICKEN THIEVES AT WORK.

This afternoon Mrs. Urie of 153 north Third Street reported to the police that chicken thieves visited her place last night and stole fifteen chickens and a turkey. The case was placed in the hands of Officer Roberts.

PERSONAL.

E. J. Coyle, the assistant general passenger agent of the Canadian Pacific, was in the city yesterday, on his way to Vancouver, British Columbia. Mr. Coyle stayed at the Knutsford and spent the day visiting the places of interest in Salt Lake. He also visited the First Presidency. Though but 29 years of age, he represents at Vancouver the Canadian Pacific line of steamships between there and Honolulu, Australia and Yokohama. This line owns the Empress of China, the Empress of Japan, and the Empress of India, the three fastest steamships between our western coast and the Orient.

S. O. Stevens of Logan and Sidney Stevens of Ogden are registered at the Knutsford.

Julien Spofford of Boise is a guest at the Knutsford.

NOTHING EQUALS IT.

For the Cure of Catarrh.

A physician now retired from practice, but who still keeps abreast of the times, in speaking of the advance made in medicine in the last ten years says: "One of the most obstinate and baffling diseases is the very common trouble, catarrh. Nasal catarrh is only one of its many forms; catarrh of the throat, catarrh of the stomach, bowels, liver and bladder are very common, but the sufferer usually thinks it is something else than catarrh and is treated for the wrong disease."

The best and most successful treatment for any form of catarrh is now admitted to be by internal remedies through the stomach and the safest and probably the most efficient is in the tablet form, sold by druggists as Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

I have seen many remarkable cures of catarrh resulting from regular daily use of these tablets, which seem to act on the blood and liver, driving the catarrhal poison out of the system through the natural channels.

Once had occasion to analyze these tablets and found them to contain no cocaine nor opium, but simply a combination of harmless antiseptics like Eucalyptal, Guaiacol, blood root, etc.

At any rate I have known of severe catarrhal headaches which were cured by Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, and catarrhal diarrhea, hay fever, asthma, and catarrh of the throat and stomach speedily show great benefit after a few days use of the remedy and when it is remembered how much more convenient a tablet is than infusions, douches, salves and powders it is not surprising that this new preparation should rapidly supplant all other remedies for catarrh.
