ATTACK MADE ON AMERICAN MARINES

Shore Party From the Gunboat Tacoma Set Upon by Santiago Police.

SOME SERIOUSLY WOUNDED.

Character of Injuries Indicates They Were Assaulted With Clubs And Swords or Bayonets.

Origin of Trouble is Unknown as Full Particulars of the Affray Are Still Lacking.

Washington, May 1.-The navy department has received a cablegram rem Commander Wood of the Dixie at Havana, transmitting a report from Commander Tappan of the gunboat Tacoma now lying at Santiago, Cuba, stating that trouble had occurred between some of the sailors of the ship on shere leave and the local authorilies. The dispatch promises details

White a full report of the affray at santiago is not at hand it is learned at the navy department that Commander Tappan has cabled that 10 of he personnel of the Tacoma were inpured in the attack by the police at Santiago. These were:

Henry Lee, fireman second class; fracture of skull, gun shot wound in lung, condition serious.

Ensign A. T. Brisbin, Frank' Leg-

Ensign A. T. Brisbin, Frauk' Leg-orn, electrician, first class: Elmer F. Inders, apprentice seaman; Charles L. Shackleton, machinist's mate, first ass: Glencavender, seaman; Harry J Startevant, electrician first class and Louis Cline, ordinary seaman, cuts and ruises, but not serious.

Leslie B. Dustin, seaman, compound fracture of left forearm, seriously in-

Claude J. Pember, electrician, third class, incised wound of left forearm, severe. Commander Tappon's dispatch states that these men, with the exception of the ensign, composed a liberty party of the Tacoma and were attacked by the police while returning to their ship at half-past 1 yesterday morning. No cause is assigned for the attack, but it is said that the men were singing as sailors are aut to do attack, but it is said that the men were singing as sailors are apt to do when they have had a happy evening ashere and on returning to their ship. In almost all large ports, unless the men are absolutely disorderly or are destroying property or interfering with citizens, the police let them proceed on their way without molestation beyond perhaps a friendly warning to refrain from disorder. So far as the may cofficers here know, this has been the custom at Santiago ever singe the custom at Santiago ever since the American ships have made that a sta-tion port. Indeed, the sailors are betion port. Indeed, the sallors are be-lieved to have been welcome visitors. for they spent a great deal of money in the native shops and markets and contributed much to the social life of department are at a loss to conceive what may have been the reason for the change of attitude on the part of the Santiago police.

They can scarcely believe that the men were much to blame, and they are certain they would not be aggressors because Commander Tappan re ports that they were "attacked" b the police and the character of the in puries sustained by the men is an indication that they were assaulted with clubs and swords or bayonets. No mention is made of any injury inflicted upon the police, which is not surprising in view of the fact that the strictest watch is kept upon the liberty men to make sure that they carry express no make sure that they carry ashere no the absence of an explanation to contrary it is believed at the navy department that either Ensign Brisbin got late trouble through interfering in behalf of his men when they were as-saulted, or that the sailors became saulted, or that the sailors became involved through attempting to succor their officer when he had fallen into the hands of the police. According to state department advices, Ross E. Holaday, the American consul at Santiago is assisting in the investigation which will be made by the divilian authorities by order of Gov. Magoon, supplementing the inquiry that is being made by Commander Tappan. The naval officials here have no doubt if these inquiries disclose the fact that the police have been guilty of unwarranted attack upon the sailors, the civil authorities of Santiago will mete out the proper punishwill mete out the proper punish-

Havana, May 1.—No further particulars have been received of the attack made yesterday by the police of Santiago on a party of enlisted men from the cruiser Tacoma. The dispatch received by Commander Wood of the Dixie from Captain Tappan of the Tacoma, giving details of the affair, was forwarded to Gov. Magoon by Commander Wood, with the request that the authorities of Santiago be directed to assist Commander Tappan in every way to ascertain the facts in the case. Gov. Magoon instructed the governor of Santiago to render all assistance possible. Commander Wood is the senior officer in Cuban Waters. ble Commander Wood officer in Cuban Waters.

The attack was made upon the Ta-coma's men while they were on their way to the wharf at 2 o'clock in the morning to embark in a launch for transportation to the cruiser.

PARIS EXPERIENCES A VERY QUIET MAY DAY.

Paris, May 1.—Although the entire garrison of Paris were under arms and 600 mounted guards and vast police reserves were on duty in order to prevent the gigantic May day manifestation planned by the Socialists, the city presented almost its normal aspect this received. Though were massed at the presented almost its normal aspect this morning. Troops were massed at the Prince Eugene barracks, the Bank of France, the Opera, the Grand Palay, the Bourse and other strategic points, but they were discreetly kept out of sight in order to avoid unduly exciting the populace. The authorities, while not interfering with workmen's meetings, are resolved to break up the first attempt at street demonstrations which might lead to serious disorders.

The others who remained were taken out by the firemen without being injured. It is not believed that any of the women will die from their injuries, although this cannot be definitely established until after reports have been received from the hospitals to which they were taken.

Mrs. Cecilia Malaney, one of the proprietors of the lunch room, was rescued by a fireman from one of the rear windows. Mrs. Malaney declared that at least one employe, Miss Mrs. Studemeyer, and several patrons of the place had lost their lives cither by suffocation by smoke or in the flames. The firemen could find no bodies in the building to substantiate the story of Mrs. Malaney, but for a considerable time after Mrs. Malaney was taken out the flames prevented a thorough search of the building. CORRUPTION IN KEYSTONE STATE Capitol Investigation Commission Will Resume Taking Evidence This Week.

STEALING WAS EVERYWHERE.

Castiron Substituted for Solid Bronze And Even That Was Not up To Standard Weight.

Harrisburg, May 1 .- More testimony on the transaction by which S. M. Williams of Pittsburg, an unsuccessful bidder for the $2,000,000 worth of electrical fixtures in the state capitol, was loaned $10,000 on an unindersed note last August, will be taken up by the capitol investigation commission

Saveral Pittsburg men have been subpoenned and will, it is said, testify that Williams boasted of where and how he got this money and to whom he also furnished other information pertaining to the contract.

Yesterday, when upon the stand. Williams refused to deny that Congressman H. B. Cassell of Lancaster, had loaned him the $10,000 about the lime he ceased trying to "get square politically" with Senator Penrose for not foreing Joseph M. Huston, architect of the capitol, and John H. Sanderson, general contractor, to give him a portion of the electrical fixtures contract. Cassell is president of the Pennsylvania Construction company, which furnished the $2,000,000 worth of metallic furniture for the capitol, and it is not known whether he will be called.

Williams is a former member of the state house of representatives and as secretary of the Pennsylvania state board of trade and the "homeless 28" he was in charge of the campaign for the 2 cent fare bill which passed the present legislature and was signed by Gov. Stuart.

Gov. Stuart.

The commission declines in advance of its meeting to disclose the names of witnesses. It is known, however, that John F. Short, editor of the Clearfield Republican, a Democratic newspaper, will be called today. Short will be asked about the stories that the home of former State Treasurer Frank G. Harris, now on his way to Europe, was furnished by Sanderson, and that his law office is fitted up with metallic furniture.

of public grounds and buildings which gave the Pennsylvania Construction company the metal furniture contract. Experts employed by the commission have found that chandellers, standards and brackets turnfshed the state by Sanderson's Pennsylvania Bronze company, are underweight. It was discovered that despite the fact that cast iron rods had been substituted, and that iron rods had also been substituted in the interior of the fixtures in place of solid bronze, as called for by the specifications, the cast iron did not begin to make up the standard weight for which the Pe sylvania Bronze company got from the state more than $2,500,000.

MOVEMENT INAUGURATED TO PREVENT COAL FAMINE.

Chicago, May 1 .- The traffic and operating departments of the Harriman and the Hill lines have united in a strenuous effort to prevent the re-northwest.

Orders have been issued by the highest officials of the various roads, and have the sanction of E. H. Harriman and James J. Hill, requiring all of the officials to make every effort to induce the coal dealers to lay in their winter supply in the summer months. The officials of the railroads dread another such coal famine as occurred last winter, when they were blamed for the suffering and destitution which reigned in the west and northwest many weeks.

tion which reigned in the west and northwest many weeks.

Accordingly a personal canvass is being made in all the cities and coal dealers are being urged personally to co-operate with the railroads in placing the western county beyond the possibility of another coal familie. It is the purpose of the railroads to either get the west and northwest adequately coaled during the warm months or to place the blame for any future famine where they say it rightfully belongs—with the dealers who wait until the last moment to get their winter's supply. winter's supply.

Wanted to Go Home But Physicians Were Afraid of Effects of Reaction From Strain.

ONLY STIMULENTS GIVEN.

Are Sleeping Soundly-Correspondents And Newspaper Photographers in Vicinity Are Turned Aside.

Johnstown, Pa., May 1 .- Taken from he dark recesses of a coal mine where they had been imprisoned for over 100 hours, the seven men rescued from the Berwind White mine at Foustwell are lying in the hospital, physically exhausted and oblivious to all around

The men were reached at 10 o'clock last night but were not brought out until early this morning, the physicians fearing the effects of a reaction from the strain and exposure, to the outer

When brought out all the men want ed to go to their homes and were taken o the hospital under protest. No food was given them at first, but only a stimulant in the form of brandy and water.

Soon after arriving at the hospital the men were sound asleep and no communication is allowed with them. Correspondents and newspaper photographers who swarm about the vicinity of the hospital are turned aside and the men are not disturbed except at regular intervals, when the nurses administer hot broths and other nourishment Immediately after these treatments the men again drop to sleep.

"We knew the men on the outside were pumping out the water in an endeavor to release us. We kept a careful watch and could note the water going down. There was nothing we could do to help and we all chafed under this until we could hear the tapping under the pipe and knew it meant for us to keep up our courage," said Foreman Bolya. "We always signalled back whenever we heard the tapping.
All the men had full dinner buckets
when they came into the mine Friday morning, but the food in these was soon exhausted and we felt the pangs of hunger keenly. I don't think the men, after the third day, ever expected to see their families again, but the way they kept up their spirits was admira-ble."

Charged With Criminal Conduct And Assault With a Deadly Weapon.

EVIDENTLY JUMPS HIS BOND.

Warrant is Still in Effect But it is Not Likely He Will Ever Return For Trial.

Judge Armstrong today continued the trial of the two cases against J. A. Peebles for the term. Peebles is charged with assault with a deadly weapon upon James Magerl, and also with oriminal conduct with Mrs. Magerl, He was bound over to the district court by Judge Diehl, and was released on ball. He has evidently jumped his bond, as the sheriff has not been able to find him, and a bench warrant was issued some time ago for his arrest. The warrant is still in effect, but it is not likely that Peebles will ever show up for trial, so his bond will have to be forfeited.

The trial of the case of M. Levy, the junk man charged with receiving stolen railroad bras from Harry Le Roy and Bert Miller, who are serving time in the state prison for their crime, was continued by Judge Armstrong until

FOREST RESERVE

President Roosevelt Signs a Proclamation Adding 75,520 Acres to Area

OF THE FISH LAKE TERRITORY

Upon the Request of Citizens and Commercial Organizations of Salina and Vicinity.

(Special to the "News.")

Washington, D. C., May 1 .- President Roosevelt has signed a proclamation adding 75,520 acres to the area of the Fish Lake national forest reserve in Sevier county, Utah. This addition, consisting of a strip of country along the northwest boundary of the forest, including a portion of the water shed upon which the town of Salina depends for its municipal water supply, was made in response to a pe tition signed by the Salina town trustees, the quarantine physicians of Salina and Sevier county, representative of the Commercial club of Salina, the Cattle and Wool Growers' association and the citizens of Salina and vicinity, Considerable amount of merchantand the citizens of Salina and vicinity. Censiderable amount of merchantable timber and a great deal of luniper and pinion pine are included in this addition, the latter species is becoming rapidly recognized as of great value for fuel and fencing purposes. The regulation of grazing upon this area will be of great benefit to residents of Salina in the purification of their city water supply and will at the same time end the controversy between the sheep and cattle interests, which has at times threatened serious which has at times threatened serious consequences. No fees will be charg-ed for grazing upon the new addition during the coming grazing season.

BURGLAR SCARE.

Woman Turns in Alarm and Pajama Brigade Swoops Down on House.

A burglar scare was the enlivening experience on upper Seventh street last night. It was just at the witching hour of 12, "when churchyards yawn, and graves give up their dead," as per the immortal bard. One of the houses in the neighborhood, which is a furnished house, had been vacated jemnished house, had been vacated sem-porarily, and a lady living next door, whose husband, by the way, was ab-sent from town, saw a window up and heard a man prowling around in the vacant house. She immediately, as became a brave woman, got frightened, and rushing to the phone, called up the penitentiary and informed them that a burglar was in the house next door to her, and that she was alone in her own house. The warden of the penitentiary,

(whose son, by the way was the owner of the house in which the prowling was going on) called up another residence in the neighborhood where it was known there were three men and several women residing, with instruction to the masculine portion to swoop down onto the burglar and take him redhanded. This the said masculine three proceeded to do, backed up by a three proceeded to do, backed up by a night-gown brigade carrying brooms, sticks, corset-stays and fire shovels. Bearing down on the deserted house, the windows of which were open and the lights all going, the three men. the lights all going, the three men, armed with revolvers, sticks and stones, approached in military style and with bravery that would do credit to any of the Salt Lake police force, called out "Hullo, thar! What're ye doin' thar! Come out o' thar!"

Meekly peeking forth out of his pajamas, the face of a man was seen. He wanted to know what the trouble was; said he did not like being disturbed in his slumbers like that, and what did his slumbers like that, and what did the gentlemen want? He had just rented the place, and wished to take peaceful posset, on of his property. Exit brave transculine trio, excunt night-gown brigade, ting-a-ling-ling, down go the blinds, good night.

Judge Armstrong rendered a decision finding Flegal guilty and today passed sentence upon him.

CARPENTERS SEEK RAISE.

Number of Contractors Agree to Pay Them $4.50 a Day.

There were no indications this morning, whether there would be a strike or not among the carpenters. The carpenters want $4.50 per day of eight hours, instead of $4, a demand which a number of contractors have granted. One contractor says he does not object to paying the price to competent men, but he does object to paying it to men whose services are not worth it.

ST. GEORGE WATER SUPPLY.

State Board of Health Inspector Claims Is Unfit for Drinking.

Inspector Clark of the state board of health has returned from St. George that the water supply of the town of 1,800 inhabitants is unfit for drinking or culinary purposes; in fact, it is detrimented to have comes for the first that the water comes for the first that the water supply of the town of der of Mrs. Charley Ingateur and Car Kamist, a Bennock Indian, on Fort Hall reservation, last December. The property of the town of the town from sandstone buttes a number of miles distant, and flows over alkali fields and through cattle corrals before reaching the point of consemption. The inspector remarks with some show of pathos, "the condition of the water then, may be imagined." The result of drinking such water is noted in the prevalency of kidney disorders, especially among the women.

There is a supply of perfectly pure water in Pine valley, 15 miles from the city, which it was proposed three years ago to pipe in. But when the city council was told that it would cost $20,000 to accomplish this, the municipal fathers couldn't think of such a thing. But now it has been plainly demonstrated that the present water supply is so badly handleapping the town, the belief is gaining that the city will carry out the proposition of three years ago, and something will be done.

PROPERTY RECOVERED.

Officer Carlson Secures Additional Goods Stolen by Mr. Stone.

Additional property stolen by the man Stone arrested by Officer Carlson last night was recovered this morning by Carlson. Some garden hose stolen from Dr. Johns, 450 east South Temple street, and a shovel was located by Carlson this morning. He took Stone Carlson this morning. He took Stone with him but had the latter handcuffed and held on to his man for fear the fellow would make another break for liberty, as he did last evening. Stone will be charged with eight or 10 offenses of petit larceny, and it is not improbable that he will have to answer to a complaint charging burglary.

Stone was arraigned before Judge Diehl this afternoon and pleaded guilty on two charges of petit larceny and was sentenced to three months confinement in the city jail on each, the sen-ment in the city jail on each, the sen-tences to run concurrently.

SETTLEMENT STILL IN FUTURE

Two Conferences Were Held Today With B. H. Roberts Acting As Mediator on Question.

Outlook is Hopeful But Formal Agreement Has Not Yet Been Reached In the Negotiations,

Electric lights will burn in Salt Lake tonight as usual, and the outlook at 2 o'clock is that a final settlement will be brought about between the electricl workers and the company. That this will be the outcome is the opinion of B, H. Roberts who held two conferences with the men today, and who declared this afternoon that the situation was growing more hopeful constantly, and that there was now a reasonable certainty that the outcome would be successful, although no decision has yet been formally reached. L. Lynn, district president and local secretary of the union, called the electrical workers together at noon in a body, to discuss the result of the morning conference with B. H. Robcrts at his office in the Templeton building. The men responded, and the meeting was held at the Electrical Workers' hall, the men bringing their unches with them to talk things over while they are, and thus be prepared to report for duty when needed.

THE OUTLOOK.

THE OUR LOOK.

At the clos of this meeting President Lynn said that there was no danger of an immediate strike for the reason that negotiations are still on, "and," he continued, "while negotiations are dn, there is no danger of a strike at once. The lights will burn tonight at any rate even if the worst happens.

When asked as to the present status of the controversy, Mr. Lynn said that there were no new developments, except that the men were basing their whole case on the wage schedule, and had given in on every other point at issue, agreeing to work the same length of time as at present and to continue the present understanding as to rules. In the conference with B. H. Roberts this afternoon there are present the entire executive committee of the local riectrical workers' union, which is composed of L. Lyun, Frank Sawege, W. F. Ramsey, Lee Woodward and E. B. Peacock.

sented Either Company or Men. Relative to the statement printed this morning in a reckless and irresponsible newspaper, to the effect that the Hou. newspaper, to the effect that the Hou. B. H. Roberts had represented the Utah Light & Railway company in the recent conferences between the corporation's officials and its employes, Mr. Roberts today said with emphasis:

"It is not true that I represented the company in that capacity, nor was I asked or authorized to do so. The steps I took in the direction of a settlement were of my own initiation and on my own responsibility as a citizen. What I did I was led to do by reason of the fact that I had succeeded in arranging an anicable adjustment of ranging an amicable adjustment differences between the same parties year ago, and concluded that I mis year ago, and concluded that I might be of service in the present difficulty. I desire to make this statement at this time, because misinformation to relation to the subject has gone out to the public. Not having represented the company or the men, or having activit upon or at the request of either, but having moved wholly on my own intigation in the premises. I feel that there facts should be stated."

F. E. STEWART ARRESTED

Still Another Alleged Victim in Toilet Article Agency Scheme.

Deputy Sheriffs Slater and Speery last night arrested Francis E. Stewart upon the charge of obtaining money by false pretenses. The complaining witness is Mrs. Cora B. Nichols, who claims that Stewart secured a total claims that Stewart secured a total sum of $1.552 from her by falsely representing that the Stewart company was doing a flourishing business in the manufacture and sale of toilet articles and also on the representation that Stewart had patents on several of the articles manufactured by the company, all of which proved to be untrue, Stewart spent the night in the county fall and is now trying to raise the necessary bail to secure his redense. county fail and is now trying to raise the necessary bail to secure his release. Mrs. Nichols also filed a civil suit against Stevart and his wife in the district court yesterday to recover $1.552 from them, which she put into the company by reason of the fraudulent representations of Stewart. She claims that she paid $500 for stock in the company and advanced $752 in money to help pay the expenses of incorporation. The new claims that the representations made to her by Stevart were false and she wants her money back. A similar suct was filed against Stewart some time ago and also a criminal action by another woman who it is alleged had been fleeced, and
