

SEASON OPENS AT CUMMINGS' FIELD

Coach Joseph Maddock Begins Tackling and Punting Practice Today.

PROSPECTS ARE VERY BRIGHT.

At Least One Good Player in Sight for Each Position on the Squad.

At Cummings' field this afternoon the University of Utah football team will commence active training for the season of 1906. It is a faithful year for Utah football, for the great height attained last year is either to be vindicated or to be charged to the account of luck and accident. Ahead of the University for the season is the championship of the west, including the coast. If games can be arranged, and if the same fortunes of last year continue to attend it, the secret of the success is just a problem in evolution. Maddock coming from last year has carried the game far in advance of its standard.

Coach Joseph Maddock arrived in Salt Lake yesterday afternoon and went to work at once with the new team. He reached Peterson, Benning and Russell to the players and ordered them to report at Cummings' field. There they met and had the first talk of the year in matters pertaining to the season's work. Two new footballs were ordered and these will be on duty tonight. Captain Benning has been at work all summer waiting for the footballs with his big bow, the intention being to learn the drop kick instead of a free kick movement which he used effectively last season.

From now to the opening of school daily practice and tackling practice will continue. The team will then be ready to commence training in earnest, and to stand the training about over the hard field.

SELECTION FOR QUARTER

The present prospects for a lineup are encouraging, with at least one likely candidate for every place. A new situation is developing in the light of the fact that it is known that Varsity and Pitt were working out all summer for the place at Park City, and that their development was very good. Now comes Cuddy Russell from Brigham Canyon bringing a big arm, a quarterback ranked under the arm in the form of Scammon. While nothing has been said about it, Russell and Scammon have worked more shifts at the big kick than at the maul, while the summer months passed away and Scammon now has the maul in his hand. Last year he had down left end in emergency.

Whichever man loses for quarter is a likely candidate for end, while young Anderson, who played last year, is believed to have lost a year, is back to hold down the other place.

RAIDERS MAY RETURN.

For the Peterson will be one tackle, while the other is open to all comers, having a good record in the past. It is believed that while C. C. Curtis, a husky tackle from Kimberly, Utah, who came to the game with promise, to develop into a good player for the other guard position.

Maddock has brought with him a demand for a tackling dummy and charging mauler which will be expected on the field as in the new game and will be used to trip the men into shape for the last and best work planned for them.

BIG RACES AT THE SAUCER TRACK

W. E. Samuelson Gets Even With Hardy Dowling in Match Race.

IN FRENCH STYLE OF COINC.

Word Comes That Iver Lawson and Floyd McFarland Will Soon Be Here for Race Meet.

Manager Heagren gave the bike fans another good entertainment last evening. All the races were of a high class order and worth taking a long journey to see.

The feature of the program was the French style race in which Samuelson, Dowling, Heagren and Barlett participated. Dowling managed to defeat Samuelson and Samuelson ran away from Barlett. Then Samuelson and Dowling lined up for the final and the crowd pushed and pulled to see the result.

The riders were nearly two laps from home when Dowling decided to go around Samuelson. But the latter had different arrangements in his mind and refused to permit the Californian to pass him. The race was close and exciting, however, and Sam won by a neck.

Another good race was the Australian pursuit of course, Samuelson won it. When it came to the kind of going the other riders will have to take the woods. The half-mile professional with Sam and Dowling was a fierce affair, and although Heagren made a desperate effort to win, he failed to catch the boys in time.

The summary of the events follows: Half-mile sprint, French style, first heat, Samuelson, last heat, Dowling, time 1:22.5. Second heat, Dowling, first heat, time 1:24.5.
