

FRAGMENTS.

BROTHER ADRIANUS MINER will be released from the penitentiary tomorrow.

On Tuesday evening, "Skipped by the Light of the Moon" will be played in the Theatre.

MARCUS R. MAYNARD, advance agent for Mary Anderson, who appears March 30th and 31st, is in this city.

C. M. HANCOCK, of the Wabash House, and F. B. Semple, of the Chicago & Northwestern, came to the city last evening.

BROTHER C. R. SAVAGE will deliver a lecture in the Seventh Ward Meeting House, tomorrow (Tuesday) evening, at 7:30 o'clock. The subject is Electricity.

In the First District Court, at Provo, yesterday, Judge Powers told those jurors who were too poor to serve without pay that they might go home. So much for the Governor's nullification veto.

Tim "Liberal" party are beginning to figure again. Probably J. R. McBride & Co. think they have struck it rich, and propose to fleece the "Mormons" while they have a chance. The "Utah Conspiracy" is still in full blast.

THREE were received at Ogden from the West, yesterday, 21 passengers, 120 going East over the Utah Pacific, and 10 via the D. & R. G. To-day 241 passengers arrived, 170 going over the broad gauge, and 69 over the scenic route.

The liberal "Liberal" committee are going to hold a meeting "to take into consideration the present political situation in this Territory and advise such future action thereon as the committee may judge expedient." Evidently getting ready for the spoils.

LOCAL NEWS.

Indicted.—By special dispatch to the News per Deseret telegraph line from Provo, we learn that deputy marshals arrested Bishop Bromley at American Fork this morning on a charge of unlawful cohabitation, the grand jury having found two indictments against him. He was arraigned to-day and pleaded not guilty and his trial set for Thursday at 10 o'clock. His bond is continuous.

The Mammoth Suit.—The big suit of Elias Morris vs. The Mammoth Mining Company, for work done on the Mammoth property by Mr. Morris, was called up in the Third District Court this morning. The attorneys for the defendants asked that the case be continued for the term, as the Morris brothers were wanted as witnesses in a criminal suit at Provo, and could not attend. The plaintiff objected to the continuance, and finally the case was set for trial on Monday, March 29th, when all witnesses were ordered to be in attendance.

Witnesses Under Bonds.—On Saturday afternoon, Mrs. Sarah E. Smith and her daughters Mary and Leonora were subpoenaed and taken before the grand jury. After the interrogations were through, Mrs. Smith was released on $2,500 bail, and her daughters on $250 each, to appear as witnesses at the trial of President Joseph F. Smith.

On Saturday Mrs. Jennie Susan was arrested in Provo, as a witness in the case of the alleged plural wife of Mr. S. H. Hill. This morning she and Mrs. Hill were before the grand jury, and both were afterward bound on $2,500 bail, to appear as witnesses against S. H. Hill, for polygamy and unlawful cohabitation. Mrs. Hill's bail being $1,000 and Mrs. Susan's $2,500.

Court Notes.—In the First District Court on Saturday, the grand jury returned two indictments—one under United States statutes, and one under Territorial laws.

In the case of the People vs. Jas. Wilson, indicted for grand larceny, the Court instructed the jury to acquit the defendant, which was done.

People vs. William Frank Jones; two indictments for grand larceny; dismissed.

Thomas Yates was admitted to citizenship.

In the case of the People vs. David Miller, charged with grand larceny, the jury, after being out twenty-four hours, brought in a verdict of guilty as charged in the indictment, and recommended to the mercy of the Court.

Charles Hardy, arraigned for housebreaking, was sentenced to the penitentiary for six months in the penitentiary.

The Governor Proclamations.—On Saturday evening the Governor issued the following:

Murray, Governor of the Territory of Utah, by virtue of the authority in me vested, do hereby appoint Arthur Francis to be Territorial Auditor of Public Accounts; Arthur Francis to be Territorial Recorder of Deeds; and Arthur Francis to be Recorder of Marks and Brands; Christopher Reid to be Territorial Registrar of Claims and Measures.

Eli B. MURRAY, Governor.
By the Governor,

Secretary of Utah Territory.

District Court.—In the Third District Court to-day, in the case of Giovanni Correggio vs. Frederick Zinberg et al., the court gave judgment for plaintiff.

Alfred Andre was admitted to citizenship.

Elias Morris vs. Mammoth Mining Company; continued to March 29.

The grand jury reported one indictment under United States laws, and bail was fixed at $2,500.

The case of Weaver vs. Pitts and Chaffin vs. Collins et al. were continued for the term.

Henry W. Brown vs. A. Hansen et al., on trial before the Court.

Peter A. Peterson, of Sweden, and Andrew C. Jensen, of Denmark, were admitted to citizenship.

Police Court.—In the Police Court to-day Thomas Jack and James Hollerlin were each fined $5 for drunkenness.

GEO. C. LAMBERT ARRESTED.

The Charge is Living With His Wife.

About 5 o'clock this morning Deputy Marshals and Caddie presented themselves at the residence of Mr. George C. Lambert, associate editor of the News, in the 7th Ward, and served upon him a warrant of arrest issued by Commissioner Critchlow, and charging "unlawful cohabitation with more than one woman as his wives." Mr. Lambert's family and a number of neighbors were subpoenaed and ordered to appear before the Commissioner at 10 o'clock, which they did, with the exception of Mrs. Lambert, who was too ill to leave home.

The complaint was signed by E. A. Ireland, and alleges that from Jan. 1, 1894, to March 1, 1898, Mr. Lambert did cohabit with Mary Alice Lambert and Rosie Cannon as his wives, contrary to the provisions of the Edmunds law. The accused waived examination before the Commissioner, and was released on $1,000 bail, John A. Groosbeck and A. R. Hyde being sureties. The witnesses were immediately ushered into the presence of the grand jury, for examination.

Lying and Begging.—We have been shown a letter received by a person in this city from a non-"Mormon" lady in Scranton, Pennsylvania, giving an account of an anti-"Mormon" preacher named Henry A. Newell, who has been lecturing in that region of late, claiming to be a missionary from Utah, whose aim in life is to regenerate the sinful "Mormons," and interlarding the grossest misrepresentations of the people of this Territory with phrases appearing in the scriptures.

At the same time, the preacher is said to have asserted that many strangers visiting this city would go to the Tabernacle and after listening to a discourse would go away with the idea that the "Mormons" preached nothing but righteousness, but if they were only to attend the ward meetings they would find it quite the reverse.

We are not acquainted with the preacher named, but we are with the methods he resorts to in the effort to run an over-credulous and prejudiced public, and put money into his pocket at the expense of an innocent and greatly-maligned people. He will have his reward.

The "Mikado."—Although performed here so many times of late as to cause some people to regard it as somewhat of a "chestnut," the Mikado drew excellent houses at Saturday's performance, and was well received, showing that the amateur company is a popular one. If the applause and enthusiasm of an audience may safely be regarded as an indication of the excellence of the performance, the company may congratulate itself on having scored a wonderful success, for seldom has an audience in that building greeted an entertainment with greater enthusiasm. The parts were all well sustained and a great improvement was noticeable in nearly every performer since their last appearance in this opera, as a result of thorough rehearsal and study and seeing it presented by other companies.

Miss Edith Clarendon, a decided beauty, Yum Yum, and when it is understood that she had only studied the part for a few days, her acting and singing were little less than marvelous. She was by far the best Yum Yum that Salt Lake has yet seen. Quite a number of local girls were introduced, most of which were highly appreciated.

Liberated.—On Saturday last Sami Haycock, a young man from Pangulit, was pardoned by the Governor and liberated from the penitentiary. The offense of which he was convicted was perjury, he having become bondsman for one James Marshall, on an indictment for a serious crime, who was tried and acquitted. It appears that he was discovered that Haycock was not possessed of sufficient property to cover the amount of the bond.

He was convicted of perjury on that ground and sentenced by Judge Boreman to the penitentiary for about three months of which he had served. All the circumstances point to the fact that he had no intention of committing a crime, and the executive clemency in his case was well exercised. His conduct in prison was most commendable, good, and there is good reason to believe that it will continue to be of that nature outside of it.

"Carmen."—Of the production of this celebrated opera by Her Majesty's Opera Company, who will appear at the Salt Lake Theatre on Thursday evening, the St. Paul Press has the following:

"It is seldom indeed that the opportunity is afforded to hear one of the world's most famous operas with the creator of the principal role in that part, particularly with an ensemble as generally satisfactory as that with which the famous French opera company presented 'Carmen' at the Minneapolis Grand last evening. The attendance was worthy the peculiar interest of this performance. The singing was by states and down, boxes and balconies, and the vocalists were representative of the culture and musical appreciation of both cities. Doubtless the music was perfectly preserved. Minnie Hauk's Carmen is a satisfactory artistic performance in every respect, and yet it lacks the refinement, the power to charm, the wit-like grace and dexterity, the impulsive wilfulness and diabolism, in a certain lurking coarseness of manner and miscellaneous coarseness, she gave an almost flawless impersonation of the Gypsy queen who lures Don Jose to his doom. Vocally her powers are easily adequate to the requirements of her lower notes makes her rendition of the favorite of the nation's music and manly music, perfectly preserved.

"The Battle Hymn of Israel."

"The Battle Hymn of Israel," written by Bishop O. P. Whitney, and set to music by Prof. George Careless, was sung for the first time in the Tabernacle at the close of the services yesterday afternoon. The poetry is full of martial fire, and the theme is well suited to the times. The music is stirring and sublime, and reflects credit upon its talented composer. The choir, led by Professor Beasley, and accompanied on the organ by Professor Daynes, rendered the hymn with great force and expression. The effect was grand and impressive. We hope to hear the Battle Hymn again ere many days. The poem appears in full in the Contributor for February. The words and music have just been published at the office of the Juvenile Instructor.

Teachers' Association.—The Salt Lake County Teachers' Association met in the 14th Ward Assembly Hall, Saturday, March 12th, 1898.

After the usual opening exercises, and considerable miscellaneous business, the programme was carried out as follows:

"What benefit is derived from a knowledge of Disfranchisement?" Answered by Miss Rachel Edwards. The lady related the story of a man and 40 sounds, into that some letters must represent more than one sound. She then related the story of a man and 40 sounds, into that some letters must represent more than one sound.

Question: "First, why do volcanoes break out in the tops of mountains, and not in the surrounding low lands?" Answered by R. Torrance.

Second: "Is there any benefit derived from keeping class records?" Answered by C. F. Wilcox.

Fourth: "What is the most suitable time of the day to teach writing?" Answered by R. S. Hovner.

After the questions had been answered, a discussion was carried on in regard to the use of class records. The critic's report was given by Mrs. R. E. Randall.

Adjourned to meet March 26.
