Exhibits Will Be in Place and Doors Will Then be Thrown Open.

IS A CREDITABLE EXHIBIT.

Commissioners Gardner and Kuchler
Will Officiate on Behalf of the State at Ceremonies Scheduled.

The Utah building at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition will be formally thrown open to visitors Monday, according to advices received from Seattle. Another carload of exhibits arrived there yesterday, and the car carried the last consignment of articles intended for exhibition at the big exposition is scheduled to arrive today. The placing of the exhibits will be hied by the commissioners in charge, and it is expected that everything will be in readiness to open the doors of the Utah building Monday morning.

Parties who have been at Seattle state that the Utah building and exhibit show up to excellent advantage. The location secured is a good one, and while the shipment of the exhibits has been unfortunately delayed longer than was anticipated by the commissioners, all speed will be made to place them when they do arrive and exhibit them in the most creditable manner possible. ## OF INTEREST TO FARMERS AND MECHANICS

Farmers and mechanics frequently suffer from slight accidents and injuries which cause them much annoyance and loss of time. A little cut or bruise may be cured in about one-third the time usually required by applying Chamberlain's Liniment as soon as the injury is sustained. This liniment is also valuable for sprains, soreness of the muscles and blood poisoning resulting from an injury when Chamberlain's Liniment is applied before the parts become inflamed and swollen. For sale by all druggists.

CAUSE OF RESERVOIR BREAK.

Construction Engineer Jensen
Comments on Its Unstable Construction.

Construction Engineer Joseph Jensen of Springfield is in the city today, consulting with the state engineer. He is well acquainted with the Burton dam that went out the other day and says the trouble was no doubt with the foundations of the structure. The soil in that section is such that foundations of a dam should be sunk down to the clay formation in order to remain firm, as otherwise the water will seep under the bottom, unless the reservoir is carefully puddled. In this case, the constructors thought it sufficient to drive a plank piling down to the back of the dam, expecting that it would prevent erosion. But the water got under or over this piling, and softened the soil under the dam embankment and finally the whole slid out, and with it the Deseret reservoir below. A number of houses in Deseret village crumbled and collapsed, because the flood water softened the earth beneath the slight foundations. In some cases, the occupants had got their effects out, while in others, they were killed. Mr. Jensen thinks the losses will total at least $50,000. The reservoir can be repaired within 20 days by pouring enough water to carry the country dependent on them for irrigation through the season.

NINTH AVENUE LINE.

To Begin Next Month—Heavier Steel
On Main Street.

The Utah Light & Railway company is laying 50-pound steel rails on Main street in place of the 22-pound steel that has been there since the paving of the street in 1892. Owing to the constant interfering of reconstruction by passing cars, it has to be done during the hours of the night, when the cars are not running.

Construction of the Ninth avenue line will begin the middle of next month, the track being extended to K street, and the northeast bench is thickly settled, the line will be extended to N street, and thence north and east around the city cemetery to connect with the Fort Douglas line.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED.

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by inflammation of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed, you have a running ear, which is not perfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are cured by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular, free.

PAT MORAN GETS SOME MORE JOBS

The Official Contractor Lands
Contract, Although Above Estimates.

PENALTIES NOT ENFORCED.

Contractors Show That Board of Works Hampered Them in Their Work—Lumber Strays Away.

Patrick J. Moran, the official contractor, was given three more paving contracts at his own price last night by the board of public works. His aggregate bids are $9,504.88 above the estimates of City Engineer Louis C. Kelsey. Since Moran has run all his competitors out of the market, he has gradually raised his prices. In view of the fact that Moran does good work and the city has no trouble with him, the board of public works and the council feel that they are justified in giving him the contracts at any price. There is no other city in the west where the contractors are allowed to do work for amounts higher than the city engineer's estimate. In Salt Lake City before this year there never was a contract let that was higher than the estimate.

The bids opened last night were on three extensions and the aggregate bid amounted to $105,375.57. The estimate of the city engineer was $95,870.69. The separate extensions and the bids and estimates are as follows:

Extension 48, Eighth South between Main and State streets, $13,599.67.
Extension 35, State street from Seventh South to Ninth South, $38,377.05.
Extension 55, First West street between South Temple and Third South, $53,571.37.

The estimated cost, submitted by the city engineer, was $8,843.21, distributed as follows: Extension 48, $11,735.89; extension 35, $35,377.05; extension 55, $49,720.27.

The aggregated bids are $9,504.88 above the aggregated estimates, divided as follows: On extension 48, $1,862.78; on extension 35, $1,000; on extension 55, $5,642.10.

ESCAPE THE FORFEIT.

Shea & Anderson, who built the conduit on the Salt Lake & Jordan canal, escaped a penalty of $25 at the hands of the board of public works. Although they were several days behind the time specified for the completion of their contract, they showed that they were hampered in their work by the orders given by the board, Frank M. Matthews, land and water commissioner, also took away the lumber out of the old flumes which were given to the contractors under the plans and specifications. They had to buy new lumber for timbering the excavation and this delayed them to a certain extent. The city council allowed them $500 for the lumber and $150 damages. When this case came up before the board, Kelsey said that there was no excuse for the land and water commissioner taking the lumber away.

PAINTERS ON STRIKE.

Masters Refuse to Abolish Clearance Card.

The Master Painters' association of Salt Lake City held a meeting yesterday afternoon to consider the objections of the members of the Brotherhood of Painters, Decorators and Paperhangers' local union No. 77, Salt Lake City, to the refusal of the union, and as a result the men, who are now on strike, are likely to remain out, for some time. They went out yesterday, and President Dunsby, of the union, states that the men will remain out until the "clearance card" is abolished. He regards it as a system of blackmailing men employed in the various shops.

President Bogel of the Master Painters and Decorators' association says the "clearance card" takes the place of a letter of recommendation, and when the holder of it applies for work it saves the employer the trouble of looking up his record, and avoids delay, as if he has one of these cards his standing is easily ascertained.

MILITARY DINNER TONIGHT.

Governor Spry and Staff Hosts to Regular Officers at the Alta Club.

Gov. William Spry and his military staff will be hosts this evening at dinner at the Alta club to the officers of Fort Douglas and their military visitors. The visitors now in the city include Col. J. W. Pope, chief quartermaster of the department of the Colorado; Capt. Platt, ordnance department, whose wife was Miss Belle Monahan of this city, who is also in the city; Col. Cavenough of the staff of the governor of Delaware, who is the guest of his brother, Capt. Cavenough.

Capt. Platt, while a visitor in the city, has been ill for several days in his apartment in the Kettie state. He is due to sail for Honolulu July 5 from San Francisco.

VIEWS THE WORLD THROUGH GRATING

Clarence Petty, Sentenced to Jail
For Delinquency in Alimony, is Somewhat Stunned.

KELLY TELLS HIS TROUBLES

His Spouse Was Tired and She Married
Him to Get a Rest, Being Satisfied With Three Weeks.

After making several evasive answers in which he practically winked at the order of the court, Clarence Petty, a carpenter, who was summoned in court yesterday afternoon because he had refused to pay alimony to his divorced wife, Mrs. Clara Petty, was sentenced to five days in the county jail. When Judge Morse stopped the proceeding and passed sentence on Petty, the latter sank back in the witness chair stunned. He was taken into custody by Deputy Sheriff Steel, who took him to jail.

This is the second time that Petty has been before the court on an order to show why he did not pay the alimony. He was discharged before because of the stormy weather which prevented him from working. He earned only $50 last month and could only account for $30. Mrs. Petty was divorced on March 18, 1909, and Petty has not paid her any alimony which was fixed at $12.50 a month.

THREE WEEKS.

From the testimony of James F. Kelly, his wife, Mrs. Alta Ellis Kelly, developed a stem-winding line of profanity within five days after her marriage. She professed to pray with her husband when they went to bed at night and reproved him because of his religious beliefs.

Within ten days after they were married she began to talk about her husband to her friends. Edward Lougry corroborated this. He said that Mrs. Kelly declared she would never live three weeks with her husband and she carried this threat out. Just eighteen days after they were married she picked up her things and left. As a parting shot he told her husband, he says, that she married him to get a rest, but declared that he had attempted to work her to death. She had a boy 5 years old by a former marriage.

TRAXELL A DESERTER.

Mrs. Mary Traxell was granted a divorce from Frank Traxell on the ground of desertion. Traxell left his wife here two years ago and went to Brigham City where he is now living with his three children. He packed up the furniture and took that, too, leaving his wife here where she has provided for herself. They were married in Carthage, Mo., on Aug. 23, 1891. Her story was corroborated by her daughter, Georgia, 17 years old, who is here visiting with her.

LEFT HIS DYING BABY.

Ruby D. Owen, who was deserted while her baby girl was on her deathbed, was granted a divorce. The last she heard of her husband, Charles Owen, an accountant, was a year ago in Denver. They were married in Salt Lake on Sept. 1, 1905. For two years he has failed to support her, and she has enough money by working during this time to take a business course. She is now a stenographer employed by a local firm. She was restored to her maiden name, Ruby D. Williams.

DECREE IS DENIED.

Upon cross-examination, Mrs. Berline H. Wallis, who charges her husband, William H. Wallis, with non-support, admitted that he paid more than half of the grocery bills, furnished her a home to live in, and assisted her in the house work. Judge Morse refused to grant her divorce on the showing made. Her counsel desired further evidence. Mrs. Wallis is an aged woman. She was married to Wallis on Oct. 3, 1906. For the last two years her life has been unhappy, she says, and that they have lived apart some of the time.

HIGHAM CASE SETTLED.

After being before the court for several weeks, Judge Morse finally granted Mrs. Hattie D. Higham a divorce and $50 a month alimony from Archibald Higham, a painter and paperhanger. In a court of record, Earl, 14 years old, and Elmer, 16 years old, chose their father as their guardian, and the other five children were awarded to the custody of the mother.

HOLLBERG CASE BEGINS.

Louise Hollberg began the trial of her suit yesterday afternoon against her husband, Charles Hollberg, whom she charged with extreme cruelty and perversion. They have two sons, aged 4 and 7 years respectively. They were married here on March 28, 1906.

When Mrs. Hollberg was called to the stand she related numerous charges against him. For the last two years she said she had supported herself most of the time. Her husband, she said, was a drunkard and that he had several grocery bills which had been outstanding for years. Judgment had been secured against him in several suits for small bills. The case will probably take two or three days.

SERIOUS CHARGES MADE.

Sophia Condie, widow, Says She Was Defrauded by Two Men.

Mrs. Sophia Condie, a widow, filed a petition in the probate division of the third district court yesterday asking that the Utah Savings & Trust company be substituted in her place as administrator of the estate of her husband, Joseph Condie, who was killed in the Rio Grande yards on May 7, 1906. In this case, she charges are made against Anton Lundberg, formerly county pauper clerk, and defunct justice of the peace, and Henry S. Haddock, a grocer, who, she declares have looted the estate and secured part of the money secured as damages for her husband's death. If the petition is granted it will be followed by suits to recover $1,000 from each of the men.

Before Mrs. Condie secured judgment against the defendants, she had to call upon the county for assistance for herself and children. Lundberg, who was pauper clerk, became acquainted with her affairs. When the verdict of $3,300 was granted her by the jury, she found that she had to file a bond to be appointed administrator. She went to Lundberg and he said that he would go on her bond and secured Haddock as the other bondsman. When she received the check for the damages, Lundberg took it to the bank and cashed it. Then he borrowed $1,000 from her and so did Haddock. They afterward gave her promissory notes to run five years without interest or security when she asked about the money. Mrs. Condie also averred that she gave Lundberg $200 with which to pay for the sidewalks in front of her home but that the money was never applied.

HAM AND EGG CASE ON.

Son of Ham Learns Legal Lore and Airs It in Court.

The ordering of a meal of ham and eggs and the refusal to pay for it, as is charged against Jack Clifford, has now become a legal case. Clifford has filed a complaint against Bowman and Prosecutor Rogers, as well as other court attaches, something to do. The little act has brought about two cases. Clifford is charged by Ollie Burns, the proprietor of the restaurant with having obtained his meal under false pretenses, and in retaliation Clifford has filed a complaint against Burns charging battery. Clifford was arraigned yesterday, and acting the part of his own lawyer, took the chance of airing his legal lore. He learned from the prosecutor's bench. He asked for a continuance until today, and then swore to the complaint against Burns.

HIT WITH CREAM PUFF.

Novel Cause of Action Alleged by Sarah May Edgar Cowan.

Through the clever manipulations of William Hibbard, her husband, Mrs. Sarah May Edgar Cowan has filed a divorce suit in the third district court that she was defrauded out of her home. Besides this, she charges her husband with non-support and asks for separate maintenance and the title to the property involved. According to her complaint, Hibbard had a lot and persuaded her to build a house on it. After she had done this he agreed to deed her the property. Now he refuses to transfer it and has refused to support her. A restraining order was issued prohibiting him from disposing of the property. They were married here Feb. 15, 1904.

The committee on refreshments of the women's citizens' committee of the G. A. R. encampment at its meeting held yesterday afternoon, made arrangements for serving luncheons to the veterans who take part in the parade here Aug. 11. It is intended to carry out a campaign for soliciting contributions with which to provide the day in the third district court against her husband, Don M. Cowan. They were married on April 8, 1903, and have no children. Cowan is a switchman. She asks for her maiden name, Sarah May Edgar.

CHRONIC RHEUMATISM.

This is the variety of rheumatism that usually attacks the larger joints, knees, hips and shoulders. It is aggravated by cold and damp weather, and for this reason a man afflicted with it can often (or tell) changes in the weather. Chamberlain's Liniment applied freely and with vigorous rubbing relieves the pain and makes sleep rest possible. It will also effect a cure, but will not prevent the recurrence of the disease. For sale by all druggists.

UNITARIAN CHURCH PICNIC.

Yesterday's annual picnic of the Unitarian church at Liberty park was attended by nearly 100 children, many of whom were accompanied by their parents. Following are the names of the winners of the respective events: Junior boys, Raymond Zink, 100-yard dash and potato race; Lewis Larson, second in potato race for younger boys; Robert Hayes, sack race; Raymond Zink and Robert Hayes, three-legged race; Edward and Francis Hayes, three-legged race for younger boys; Lawrence Tribe, 100-yard and 50-yard dashes for small boys; Girls—Doris Auscherman, 50-yard dash; for juniors; Beth Larson, 50-yard for seniors; Margaret Brown and Cordelia Straup, three-legged race; Beth Larson, potato race; Kindergartners—Martina Merriott and Florence Larson, 50 yards.

ST. MARY'S COMMENCEMENT.

At St. Mary's academy commencement last evening, the following students were graduated: Academic course—Catherine Brennan, Ethel Bixby, Lorna Burton, Edna Camomile and Maude Taylor. Commercial course—Florence Doran, Angeline Heckart, Mary Hegney, Lou Hayes, Bertha Michaels, Ann Sullivan, Marguerite Scott and Bertha Tilo. The gold medals, a high graduation honor at the institution, were awarded to the five graduates from the academic course. There was a musical and literary program, and Dean Harris congratulated the graduating class on the excellence of the work done. The attendance was large.
