Estimated That About 16,000 People Passed the Turnstiles Yesterday.

CHOR CONCERT A FEATURE.

Female Singers Divided Honors with the Fireworks Last Evening.

Yesterday was a banner day at the fair, this to spite of the unsettled weather conditions at early morning.

When the sun started to break through the clouds the crowds from all over town began to put in an appearance.

A majority of the stores and business establishments of this city closed at 10 o'clock yesterday and a few minutes later the crowd passing through the turnstiles surpassed any other day.

At 1 P. M. the fair opened its doors to the public and the fair grounds were again filled with the throngs of people.

The person who goes down to the fair with the idea that he is going to see a "naughty" midway will be disappointed.

A Feature at The Store This Week.

Miss Ohlsen, expert Corset authority, of New York, is demonstrating Redfern & Warner's Corsets this week at the store.

The Redfern & Warner's Corsets were selected because they are conceded to be eminently superior to all other makes.

If You Knew the Value of a Good Corset

You would never buy a corset on the "say-so" of anyone but an experienced person.

expert judgment of the woman who sells is the one to take for a specific style.

If the advertised corset seemingly meets your needs, ask for that general make, but not for the individual style advertised.

Then let the saleswoman show you the style in that make that will suit your form.

Warner's Rust-Proof Corsets are generally advertised only to familiarize you with the meritorious features.

but there is a style for you that has all the good corset points with the added construction made to fit you.

Each model has the "SECURITY" Rubber Button Hose Supporters attached—as good a hose supporter as the corset is a corset.
