INFANTILE

Our oldest child, now six years of age, when an infant six months old was attarked with a virulent, malignant skin disease. All ordinary remedies falling, we called our family physician, who attempted to come it; but it spread with almost recreditole rapidity, until the lower portion of the little fellow's person, from the middle of his back down to his knees, was one solid rash, ugly, painful, blotched, and malicious. We had no rest at night, no peace by day. Finally, we were advised to try the Curicura general series of the course was wrought, leaving the little fellow's person as white and healthy as though he had never been attacked. In my opinion year valuable remedies saved his life, and o-day he is a strong, healthy child, perfectly well, no repetition of the disease having ever occurred.

the pots be exposed to the sun. The abrevs roots soon grow to the side of the pot, and these are based in full sumshine, trebly hot coming through glass, which condenses its rays; the roots are soon killed. The whole ball of earth is baked over dally, and yet people wonder why they don't succeed with house-plants. Shade the sides of the pots always, either by plunging in a box of sand, moss, cocoa fiber or ashes, or place a thin board on edge across the front of the plant shelf, that will come almost to the top of the pots. Let the plants have the sun, but shade the pots. A good way to screen them is to set each pot in one or two lizes or more larger, filling the space with moss or sand.

The best gardeners say that the torous common pots are not so good for house plants as those glazed or painted outside. The reason is that evaporation is constant from the sides of the porous pots, and the roots are not only dryer but colder for it.—Vick's . Magazine for December. L'tier-diy society has wandered too far away from nature, in every way, for its own good. Our grandfathers and grandmothers lived wholesomer, puter, better, healthier, more natural lives than we do. Their minds were not filled with noxious isms, nor their bodies saturated with poisonous drugs.

Is it not time to make a change, to return to the simple vegetable preparations of our grandmothers, which contained the power and potency of nature as remedial agents, and in all the erdinary allments were efficacious, at least harmless?
